WHEREAS the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in Scotland, have been authorized to cause a Land Lazaretto to be erected at Holy Loch, in the River Clyde, on the Western Coast of Scotland, and another at or near Inverkeithing Bay on the Eastern Coast, for the Reception and airing of Goods, subject to the Rules of Quarantine: And whereas it has been represented by the said Commissioners, that the Resort of Ships liable to Quarantine, bound to the Northern Ports of Scotland, or to the South-West Ports thereof is very inconsiderable, and that it may be expedient that so much of His Majesty's Order in Council of the Fifth of April One thousand eight hundred and five, as relates to the Performance of Quarantine at Cromarty Bay, and at Carlston, should be revoked; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, That all such Ships or Vessels liable to the Performance of Quarantine as are bound to the Northern Ports of Scotland, comprehending the Ports of

Inverness, Zetland,
Orkney, Caithness, and Stornaway,

or to any Member, Creek, or Place belonging to, or within any or either of the above Ports, shall no longer perform Quarantine at Cromarty Bay, in the Murray Firth, but shall perform the same at Inverkeithing Bay; and that such Ships or Vessels as are bound to the South West Ports of Scotland, comprehending the Ports of

Dumfries and Kirkcudbright,

or to any Member, Creek, or other Place belonging to, or within either of those Ports, shall no longer perform their Quarantine at Carlston, at the Mouth of the River Nith, but shall perform the same at Holy-Loch, in the Firth of Clyde:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.
