CAPITAL IRON WORKS, &c.

TO be sold, by Order of the Assignees, and before the major Part of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt now in prosecution against George Ainsworth and John Stephens, (late trading under the Firm of the Mersey Wire-Mill Company,) and also in a Separate Commission of Bankrupt against the said George Ainsworth, at the Globe Tavern, in John-Street, in Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, on Monday the 5th of January 1807, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, subject to such Conditions as will be then produced:

All that capital Manufactory, lately erected for the Purpose of drawing Wire, situate at Bank Quay, in Warrington, in the said County, called the Mersey Wire-Works, consisting of a capacious and very substantial Iron Forge and Wire-Mill, with all the requisite Workshops, Store-Houses, and Buildings, for refining and manufacturing of Iron and drawing of Wire, on a Scale of great Magnitude.

The Forge contains a large Iron Lift-Hammer, and Two Pair of Rolls and Shears, with the necessary Fly-Wheels, large Iron Shafts and Gearing, and One Preparing Fire, Three Reverberatory Furnaces, Two Hollow Fires, with the Blowing Engine and Regulator complete; the whole on the most approved Construction, and worked by a new and well finished Steam-Engine, on the late Patent Principle, fully equal to Twenty-five Horses' Power, with Two large Boilers.

The Wire-Mill consists of a Ground Floor, containing Three Scouring Barrels, with all the Cast-Iron Wheels, Tumbling Shafts, Cranks and Gearing, requisite for working Six Pair of large Tongs on the First Floor, and Twenty Wire-drawing Blocks on the Second Floor, with a large Workshop on the Attic Story, capable of containing upwards of One Hundred Hand Blocks; this Apparatus, which is all new and well adapted, is worked by an excellent new Steam-Engine, constructed by Messrs. Fenton, Murray, and Wood; fully equal to Twenty Horses' Power, with One large Boiler.

The Works are advantageously situated contiguous to the Navigable River Mersey, and also near the Sankey Canal, whence an unlimited Supply of Coals may always be had at a moderate Expence, and are well calculated for either drawing of Iron or Brass Wire, for rolling of Copper Bolts and Sheet-Copper, or manufacturing Hoops, or at a comparatively small Expence may be converted into Corn-Mills, or into Cotton or other Manufactories where great Power, extensive Premises, and a populous Neighbourhood are primary Objects.

The Premises will be conveyed, free from Incumbrance, for the Remainder of a Term of 2000 Years, which commenced on the 21st Day of December 1768.
