General Post-Office, Nov. 28, 1806.

THE Court of King's Bench having, in a Case which lately came before it, (the King against Wilson,) declared the Law, relating to Letters brought by Ships to Post Towns, to be, that all such Letters, as well for the Consignee and Owners of the Ships, as for all other Persons, are to be sent immediately to the Post-Office, in order to be delivered under the Authority and Protection of the Post-Office Laws.

It is therefore hoped, that all Persons will conform thereto, to prevent the Necessity of enforcing the Penalties imposed by the said Laws.

By Command of His Majesty's Postmaster General,
F. Freeling, Secretary.

Navy-Office, December 8, 1806.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 17th Instant, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yard, at Portsmouth, with a Quantity of Lignum Vitæ of from Three Inches to Seven Inches in Diameter.

A Form of the Tender may be seen at this Office.

No Tender will be received after Twelve o'Clock on the Day of Treaty, nor any noticed, unless the Party, or an Agent for him attends.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, December 1, 1806.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance, do hereby give Notice, that Proposals will be received at their Office, in Pall-Mall, on or before the 22d Instant, from such Persons as may be willing to undertake the Provision of Intrenching Tools, for the Service of this Department.

Further Particulars, together with the Terms and Conditions of the Contract, may be known upon Application at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any Day between the Hours of Ten and Four o'Clock.

The Proposals are to be sealed up and endorsed "Proposals for Intrenching Tools," but no Proposal can be admitted after the said 22d Instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon of the same Day, neither will any Tender be noticed, unless the Party making it, or an Agent in his Behalf shall attend.

By Order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.
