Guildhall, London, February 24, 1807.

THE Committee appointed to carry into Execution the Acts of Parliament for rendering more commodious, and for better regulating the Port of London, do hereby give Notice, that from and after Lady-Day next the Office for conducting the Harbour-Master's Business of the Port of London will be removed from No. 41, Fore-Street, Limehouse, to the Canal Office at Blackwall, and that the present Office in St. Katharine's-Square, below the Tower of London, will be continued as usual until further Notice; and the Committee have directed to be made public, for the Information of all Masters and Commanders of Ships, Vessels, and other Craft using or coming into the Port of London, as well as Pilots and all other Persons, the following Sections of the Bye-Laws for regulating the said Port, so far as relates to the Attendance of the First Harbour-Master at the Office nearest the Custom-House, and also the Attendance of the other Harbour-Masters at each Extremity of the Canal in the Isle of Dogs, viz.

Sec. 3. And be it further ordained and established by the Authority aforesaid, That the First Harbour-Master shall constantly attend every Day, and shall regularly superintend the Conduct and Management of the whole Duty afloat during the Flood Tide in the Course of each Day, and shall, during the remaining Hours, attend for the Transaction of all Public Business at the Office situate nearest the Custom-House, or at such other Office or Place between the Tower of London and Blackwall aforesaid, as the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons in Common Council assembled, or any Committee or Committees appointed by them, shall deem necessary and proper, from Time to Time, to regulate and appoint in Writing; which Office shall continue open from Nine o'Clock in the Morning until Five o'Clock in the Afternoon each Day; and whenever the First Harbour-Master quits the said Office, a Notice in Writing shall be stuck up on the Door, or left in the Office, daily, announcing the Hour at which he means to return, for the Purpose of receiving any Communication relative to the Harbour-Service, upon Pain of forfeiting for every Default a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, nor less than Ten Shillings.

Sec. 14. And for the more speedy and easy Entrance and Exit of all Ships or Vessels into and out of the said Canal, Be it ordained and established by the Authority aforesaid, That one of the said Harbour-Masters doing alternate Duty as aforesaid, shall, at the Discretion and by the Appointment of the said Board of Harbour-Masters as aforesaid, attend and remain at the Eastern Extremity of the said Canal; and the other of the said Harbour-Masters doing alternate Duty as aforesaid, shall, at the like Discretion and Appointment of the said Board of Harbour-Masters as aforesaid, attend and
