

with Water by an Aqueduct from Woolwich Common, in the Parish of Woolwich, in the said County.
Woolwich, March 16, 1807. Robert Moore.

Custom-House, London, March 12, 1807.

*W*HEREAS it hath been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on the Evening of the 7th Instant, the Boats of the Tartar Cutter, in the Service of His Majesty's Customs, and of the Lively Cutter, in the Service of His Majesty's Excise; were feloniously fired on by the Crew of a Smuggling Luggur, with the Name obliterated, then lying in Folkestone Roads, which was afterwards seized by the Revenue Officers, and her Crew, consisting of Fourteen Men, taken out of her, and put on board the said Cutters, Seven of whom afterwards escaped from the Tartar, and Three were rescued from the Custody of the Peace Officers in the Town of Dover;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said Offenders who have escaped, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of them (except the Master of the said Luggur, and such of her Crew as actually fired) who will discover any one or more of the said Offenders who have escaped, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

HOWICK.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons, (except as is before excepted,) who will make such Discovery as aforesaid, such Reward to be paid upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs.

By Order of the Commissioners,

J. T. Swainson.

Custom House, London, March 12, 1807.

*W*HEREAS it hath been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on the Evening of the 8th Instant, a very numerous Mob assembled in the Town of Dover for the Purpose of rescuing from the Custody of the Peace Officers several Smugglers, who stood charged with Felony; and that although Proclamation was made by the Mayor of the said Town for the Persons assembled to disperse themselves, and peaceably depart to their Habitations, or to their lawful Business, upon the Pains contained in the Act made in the First Year of the Reign of King George the First, for preventing Tumults and Riotous Assemblies, yet the said Mob, consisting of several Hundred Persons, did not disperse till the Arrival of a large Party of Cavalry and Infantry, about Two Hours after the said Proclamation, and succeeded in rescuing Three of the said Smugglers, and severely assaulted an Officer and a Private of the Shropshire Militia, and an Officer of the Royal Miners;

His Majesty, for better discovering and bringing to Justice the principal Persons engaged in the said Riot, and who, by not dispersing according to the said Proclamation, have committed Felony within the said Act, is pleased hereby to offer His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Rioters, (except those who actually committed Acts of Violence,) who will discover any one or more of his or their Accomplices, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said Felony.

HOWICK.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, as a further Encouragement, do hereby offer a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons, (except as is before excepted,) who will make such Discovery as aforesaid, such Reward to be paid on Conviction by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs.

By Order of the Commissioners,

J. T. Swainson.

Guildhall, London, February 24, 1807.

*T*HE Committee appointed to carry into Execution the Acts of Parliament for rendering more commodious, and for better regulating the Port of London, do hereby give Notice, that from and after Lady-Day next the Office for conducting the Harbour-Master's Business of the Port of London will be removed from No. 41, Fore-Street, Limehouse, to the Canal Office at Blackwall, and that the present Office in St. Katharine's-Square, below the Tower of London, will be continued as usual until further Notice; and the Committee have directed to be made public, for the Information of all Masters and Commanders of Ships, Vessels, and other Craft using or coming into the Port of London, as well as Pilots and all other Persons, the following Sections of the By-Laws for regulating the said Port, so far as relates to the Attendance of the First Harbour-Master at the Office nearest the Custom-House, and also the Attendance of the other Harbour-Masters at each Extremity of the Canal in the Isle of Dogs, viz.

Sec. 3. And be it further ordained and established by the Authority aforesaid, That the First Harbour-Master shall constantly attend every Day, and shall regularly superintend the Conduct and Management of the whole Duty afloat during the Flood Tide in the Course of each Day, and shall, during the remaining Hours, attend for the Transaction of all Public Business at the Office situate nearest the Custom House, or at such other Office or Place between the Tower of London and Blackwall aforesaid, as the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons in Common Council assembled, or any Committee or Committees appointed by them, shall deem necessary and proper, from Time to Time, to regulate and appoint in Writing; which Office shall continue open from Nine o'Clock in the Morning until Five o'Clock in the Afternoon each Day; and whenever the First Harbour-Master quits the said Office, a Notice in Writing shall be stuck up on the Door, or left in the Office, daily, announcing the Hour at which he means to return, for the Purpose of receiving any Communication relative to the Harbour-Service, upon Pain of forfeiting for every Default a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, nor less than Ten Shillings

Sec. 14. And for the more speedy and easy Entrance and Exit of all Ships or Vessels into and out of the said Canal, Be it ordained and established by the Authority aforesaid, That one of the said Harbour-Masters doing alternate Duty as aforesaid, shall, at the Discretion and by the Appointment of the said Board of Harbour-Masters as aforesaid, attend and remain at the Eastern Extremity of the said Canal; and the other of the said Harbour-Masters doing alternate Duty as aforesaid, shall, at the like Discretion and Appointment of the said Board of Harbour-Masters as aforesaid, attend and remain at the Western Extremity of the said Canal from the Time of Half Flood until the Expiration of One Hour after high Water, in the Day, to direct, manage, and order, in such Manner as to such Harbour-Masters shall seem most easy, convenient,
