

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Suffrance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil, or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Application has been made to Parliament for Leave to bring in a Bill for paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, and improving the Town of Woolwich, in the County of Kent; and for supplying the said Town with Water by an Aqueduct from Woolwich Common, in the Parish of Woolwich, in the said County.

Woolwich, March 16, 1807.

Robert Moore.

Custom-House, London, March 12, 1807.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on the Evening of the 7th Instant, the Boats of the Tartar Cutter, in the Service of His Majesty's Customs, and of the Lively Cutter, in the Service of His Majesty's Excise, were feloniously fired on by the Crew of a Smuggling Luggar, with the Name obliterated, then lying in Folkstone Roads, which was afterwards seized by the Revenue Officers, and her Crew, consisting of Fourteen Men, taken out of her, and put on board the said Cutters, Seven of whom afterwards escaped from the Tartar, and Three were rescued from the Custody of the Peace Officers in the Town of Dover;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said Offenders who have escaped, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of them (except the Master of the said Luggar, and such of her Crew as actually fired) who will discover any one or more of the said Offenders who have escaped, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

HOWICK.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons, (except as is before excepted,) who will make such Discovery as aforesaid, such Reward to be paid upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs.

By Order of the Commissioners.

J. T. Swainson.

Custom House, London, March 12, 1807.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on the Evening of the 8th Instant, a very numerous Mob assembled in the Town of Dover for the Purpose of rescuing from the Custody of the Peace Officers several Smugglers, who stood charged with Felony; and that although Proclamation was made by the Mayor of the said Town for the Persons assembled to disperse themselves, and peaceably depart to their Habitations, or to their lawful Business, upon the Pains contained in the Act made in the First Year of the Reign of King George the First, for preventing Tumults and Riotous Assemblies, yet the said Mob, consisting of several Hundred Persons, did not disperse till the Arrival of a large Party of Cavalry and Infantry, about Two Hours after the said Proclamation, and succeeded in rescuing Three of the said Smugglers, and severely assaulted an Officer and a Private of the Shropshire Militia, and an Officer of the Royal Miners;

His Majesty, for better discovering and bringing to Justice the principal Persons engaged in the said Riot, and who, by not dispersing according to the said Proclamation, have committed Felony within the said Act, is pleased hereby to offer His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Rioters, (except those who actually committed Acts of Violence,) who will discover any one or more of his or their Accomplices, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said Felony.

HOWICK.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, as a further Encouragement, do hereby offer a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons, (except as is before excepted,) who will make such Discovery as aforesaid, such Reward to be paid on Conviction by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs.

By Order of the Commissioners,

J. T. Swainson.

Guildhall, London, February 24, 1807.

THE Committee appointed to carry into Execution the Acts of Parliament for rendering more commodious, and for better regulating the Port of London, do hereby give Notice, that from and after Lady Day next the Office for conducting the Harbour-Master's Business of the Port of London will be removed from No. 41, Fore-Street, Limehouse, to the Canal Office at Blackwall, and that the present Office in St. Katharine's-Square, below the Tower of London, will be continued as usual until further Notice; and the Committee have directed to be made public, for the Information of all Masters and Commanders of Ships, Vessels, and other Craft using or coming into the Port of London, as well as Pilots and all other Persons, the following Sections of the Bye-Laws for regulating the said Port, so far as relates to the Attendance of the First Harbour-Master at the Office nearest the Custom-House, and also the Attendance of the other Harbour-Masters at each Extremity of the Canal in the Isle of Dogs, &c.

Sec. 3. And be it further ordained and established by the Authority aforesaid, That the First Har-
