

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, beg Leave to present to your Majesty this humble Expression of our Gratitude for the paternal Anxiety with which your Majesty watches over the best Interests of your People. We have seen, with cordial Admiration, your Majesty's Firmness, in defence of those Laws which guard the reformed Protestant Religion, the best Blessing which these happy Lands enjoy, and the surest Bulwark of every constitutional Privilege. We rejoice in the Conviction, that the Measures adopted by your Majesty, in this momentous Crisis, will increase the Confidence and Affection of a grateful People to their King.

That the tried Friends of Religion and of rational Liberty, to whom you have committed the Management of the public Interests, may ever share your Majesty's Counsels; and that the divine Mercy may long preserve a Sovereign whom so many Benefits endear to us, are the earnest Wishes of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, and the Seal of the City is hereto affixed, at Edinburgh, this eighth Day of April 1807 Years,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Clergy, Freeholders, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Bolton and its Vicinity, in the County-Palatine of Lancaster, deeply impressed with the Comforts and Security enjoyed under your paternal Protection, humbly think it to be our Duty at a Crisis of such serious Importance, to express our heartfelt Admiration of your Majesty's unshaken Attachment to our well-arranged Establishment in Church and State, and to submit our fervent Wishes, that the Ministers and others whom your Majesty honours with Confidence, may ever concur with the Goodness, the Wisdom, and the Patriotism of their Sovereign.

The recent Proofs of your Majesty's watchful Protection of the Church of England demand from your Protestant Subjects repeated Assurances on their Part of their steady Loyalty and Zeal.

We sincerely deprecate every improper Attempt to embroil the State with religious Innovations, so long as the Established Church continues to inculcate and encourage the purest Principles of Religion, Loyalty, and Liberty.

It is to a gracious Providence, and to your Majesty's prudent Councils and Firmness, that we owe the Preservation of this Country amidst the Wreck of others; and we, with other of your faithful Subjects, presume to assure your Majesty, that it is our fixed Purpose to aid, as far as lies in our feeble Power, your Majesty's virtuous and noble Resolution of withstanding all undue Encroachments upon your sacred Prerogative, and upon the religious and civil Constitution of this favoured Country.

We most sincerely pray that your Majesty may very long live to protect and bless your loyal Subjects, and see our Constitution, in Church and State, remaining an unimpaired Monument of Admiration to the World, for those legal and religious Principles which have built it up in Firmness, and which we devoutly hope may, under the Protestant Princes of your illustrious House, continue for Ages to sustain its Prosperity, its Glory, and its Virtue. We are, may it please your Majesty, with inviolable Fidelity, your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Clergy, Freeholders, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Bolton, and its Vicinity, in the County-Palatine of Lancaster.

Crown-Office, April 11, 1807.
