A PROCLAMATION,

For dissolving the present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We think fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which stands prorogued to Wednesday the Thirteenth Day of May next: We do therefore publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgessees, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting and Attendance on the said Wednesday, the Thirteenth Day of May next. And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our People, and to have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving Subjects Our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a new Parliament: And do hereby further declare, that, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, We have this Day given Order that Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland, do respectively forthwith issue out Writs in due Form, and according to Law, for calling a new Parliament. And We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require Writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, who are to serve in the said Parliament, to be duly returned to, and give their Attendance in, Our said Parliament; which Writs are to be returnable on Monday the Twenty-second Day of June next.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Twenty-ninth Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and seven, in the Forty-seventh Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have, in Our Council, thought fit to declare Our Pleasure for summoning and holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on Monday the Twenty-second Day of June next ensuing the Date hereof: In order therefore to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament; We do, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy Rood-House, in Edinburgh, on Tuesday the Ninth Day of June next ensuing, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers to sit and vote in the House of Peers, in the said ensuing Parliament, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent, (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing, duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law). And the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same, in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors; and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial Care to preserve the Peace thereof, during the Time of the said Election; and to prevent all Manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders, and Violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command, that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Witness Ourselves at Westminster, the Twentieth Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and seven, in the Forty-seventh Year of our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 15th of April 1807,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in virtue of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for reviving and continuing several Laws of Customs relating to the establishing Courts of Judicature in the Island of Newfoundland; and to the prohibiting the Exportation from, and permitting the Importation to, Great Britain, of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thousand eight hundred and nine; and for continuing several Laws relating to the granting a Bounty upon certain Species of British and Irish Linens exported from Great Britain, and taking off the Duties on Importation into Great Britain of Foreign Raw Linen Yarns made of Flax; to the granting a Bounty upon the Importation into Great Britain of Hemp, and rough and undressed Flax, from His Majesty's Colonies in America, and to the Encouragement of the Greenland Whale Fisheries; and for reviving and continuing several Laws relating to the regulating the Prices at which Corn and Grain may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and to the Admission to Entry in Great Britain of Oil and Blubber of Newfoundland, taken by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on the Fishery from, and residing in, the said Island; and for continuing an Act of the Twenty-third Year of His present Majesty, for the more effectual Encouragement of the Manufactures of Flax and Cotton in Great Britain; and for reviving and continuing several Laws relating to the permitting the Importation into Great Britain of Hides and other Articles in Foreign Ships; and to the prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and to the permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions, without Payment of Duty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight; and for reviving and continuing an Act, passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty-fifth Year of His present Majesty, for the Encouragement of the Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures of Ireland until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven; and for amending and further continuing an Act made in the Seventh Year of His present Majesty for the free Importation into Great Britain of Cochineal and Indigo, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and nine."

His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Eighth Day of October last, to permit for the Space of Six Months, from the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of October, the Importation of sundry Articles of Provisions, therein specified, Duty free: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Permission should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council to allow, and doth hereby allow, for and during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the Sixteenth of this instant April the Importation into any Port or Place of Great Britain of any Beans, called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse; and also of Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine, and of Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, (except Salted Beef, and Pork.) and of Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Sago, Sago Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Scur Crout, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; provided that a due Entry shall be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that shall be so imported with the proper Officers of the Customs at the Port where the same shall be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned and referred to in an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His present Majesty; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Parokener.

St. James's, April 29, 1807.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, in the County of Oxford, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and warmest Thanks for the signal Testimony you have lately evinced of your unalterable Attachment and conscientious Regard to the Protestant Establishment within your United Kingdoms; sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your mild and auspicious Reign, we shall not cease to pray that it may be continued to us for a long Succession of Years.

Given under our Common Seal the 27th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1807.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Duke of Marlborough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, humbly approach your Majesty most deeply impressed with Gratitude for the many inestimable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Reign; and we beg Leave to repeat to your Majesty our solemn and faithful Assurances of unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, and to those Principles which happily placed your Majesty's Royal Family upon the British Throne, and which alike support the Dignity of the Crown, and the Rights and Privileges of the Subject. We trust that the great Example of uniform and steadfast Adherence to our excellent Constitution both in Church and State, so eminently conspicuous in your Majesty's sacred Character, will not fail to pervade and animate every Department of your Majesty's Government; and we fervently pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign over us, and to receive the willing Obedience of a free and loyal People.

Given under our Seal this 20th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1807, Archibald Reed, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Sir M. Ridley, Bart. and C. Brandling, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for Newcastle-upon-Tyne.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Corporation of Master-Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity-House of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Wardens, Assistants, and Brethren of the Trinity-House of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our warm Affection and steady Adherence to your Majesty's Person and Government, and offer you our sincere and grateful Thanks for the Constancy, Resolution, and Wisdom with which you have always maintained the Reformed Religion, established in this United Kingdom; and particularly we beg Permission to express to your Majesty our most willing and cordial Acknowledgements for the zealous Regard and Attachment to the Protestant Church, and the civil Rights of your Majesty's Protestant Subjects, manifested in your most judicious, firm, and noble Conduct on a recent Occasion. For highly as we esteem and admire a mild and liberal Spirit of Government, which grants and secures to all Sects and Denominations of Christians a free and undisturbed Exercise of their religious Rites and Opinions, we must ever think the Preservation of the present Establishment in Church and State, and the dearest Interests of the Nation, require a due Mean to be observed and maintained between religious Toleration, and conceding that Degree of Power and Authority which might ultimately endanger or interfere with the Principles on which our excellent Constitution is founded.

That your Majesty may long live the Protector and Supporter of that Constitution, is our most ardent Wish and constant Prayer.

In Testimony whereof the Master hath hereunto subscribed his Name, and we have caused the Common Seal of the Corporation to be affixed, at the Trinity House in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, the 24th Day of April 1807, Thomas Gilson, Master.

[Transmitted by Sir M. Ridley, Bart. and C. Brandling, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for Newcastle-upon-Tyne]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Borough of Newark-upon-Trent, in the County of Nottingham, and the Inhabitants of the said Town and Neighbourhood, being strongly impressed with Sentiments of Gratitude to your Majesty for your constant Regard and Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects, feel a peculiar Anxiety to express, at this Juncture, our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the Exercise of the Prerogative constitutionally vested in the Crown, and which has been so justly and firmly exerted by your Majesty on a late Occasion, in the Maintenance of the religious Establishment of the Empire. We beg Leave to thank your Majesty most cordially for this Instance of your Wisdom and paternal Care; and we trust in Divine Providence, that you will long live to maintain and defend our invaluable Constitution, which, under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, has continued to improve amidst the Wreck and Miseries of other Nations, who have fallen a Sacrifice either to their Timidity, or their Desire to change ancient and regular Systems of Government for speculative and deceptions Schemes of modern Organization.

Thomas Bland, Mayor.

[Transmitted by H. Willoughby, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for Newark-upon-Trent.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, assembled at a Meeting called by public Advertisement, and held this Day, humbly beg Leave to express the Gratitude of our Hearts for that paternal Regard which your Majesty has shewn, by every Act of your truly beneficent Reign, for the Constitution of these Kingdoms, of which the Established Protestant Church is an inseparable Part, essential to its Existence.

We have witnessed with the most perfect Veneration, that exalted Magnanimity which your Majesty has displayed on a late Occasion of infinite Difficulty and Hazard.

We have seen an Attempt to impose upon your Majesty a Measure, which would have annihilated by its Consequences the constitutional Ascendancy of Protestantism in your Dominions, and we gratefully hail, as the impenetrable Shield of our national Religion, that firm and dignified Resistance which your Majesty opposed to that Attempt.

Here, Sire, your Majesty has been, indeed, the conscientious and heroic Defender of our best Rights, by that critical Exertion of your royal Prerogative, which has unmasked and brought before the Public, an Attempt to gain the Sanction of your apparent Assent to Innovations perfectly irreconcilable in your Majesty's known Opinion, with those strong Feelings of moral and religious Duty, which have shed so bright a Lulre on your Majesty's Life.

May that Life, Sire, so invaluable to your Subjects and to the World, long, very long, be granted to us; and may the British Constitution, as established in Church and State, remain unimpaired to after Ages, protected by an illustrious Succession of your Majesty's Descendants, inheriting alike the patriotic Virtues of your Majesty, and the high Prerogatives of your Crown.

Thomas Horton, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Convenor, Deacons, and other Members of the Trades-House of the City of Glasgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Convenor, Deacons, and other Members of the Trades-House, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and address your Majesty, with Expressions of heartfelt Approbation and Gratitude, for the firm and decided Regard and Attachment lately shewn by your Majesty to the Protestant Religion, as by Law established, in these Realms.

We reflect with Joy upon the many happy Years of Prosperity we have already experienced under your Majesty's auspicious Reign; and our fervent Prayer is, that your valuable Life may be long preferred for a Blessing to your People.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the Trades-House, by the Convenor, Robert Austin.

[Transmitted by A. Campbell, Esq; Representative in Parliament for Glasgow.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Seven Incorporations of Dumfries, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, while we with Pleasure bear Testimony to the Loyalty of the Roman Catholics in this Part of the Kingdom, and cordially approve Acts of Toleration towards every Religion, at same Time conceive the Co-operation of Church and State indispensable to the Safety of any Country, and hold it highly impolitic that any others than Persons professing the established Religion of a Kingdom, should hold the Reins of Government; therefore we humbly beg Permission to offer our unanimous and heartfelt Thanks for your Majesty's wise and salutary Exercise of the royal Prerogative, in dismissing from your Councils Men who attempted to infringe the Protestant Establishments of this Kingdom, by endeavouring to pass a Bill in Parliament, granting certain Privileges to Roman Catholics, altogether inconsistent with the, till now held sacred, Principles of our excellent Constitution, as established by the glorious Revolution, which called your illustrious House to the Throne.

The firm Opposition which your Majesty has so conscientiously exerted on the present Occasion, has made an indelible Impression on our Hearts, and is an invaluable Addition to the many Blessings bestowed on a grateful People.

We acknowledge, Sire, with Pride, your just Claims to be styled the Defender of the Holy Reformed Religion, and the faithful Guardian of the Laws and Liberties of this Realm. And it is our fervent Prayer, that your Majesty may live long to reign in the Hearts of your Subjects, who enjoy Blessings that hitherto have not been the Lot of any other Nation.

And we appoint the Convenor to sign this in our Name, and to affix the Seal of the Incorporations hereto, at Dumfries, the 16th Day of April 1807 Years.

John Fergusson, Convenor.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Dalkeith.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of your ancient City of Lincoln, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to renew the Assurance of our unalterable Attachment to your sacred Person, and our increased Confidence in your Majesty's Wisdom, Moderation, and Firmness in the Government of the Empire over which, through the Blessing of Providence, you have so long been the Sovereign.

Every Act of your Majesty's beneficent Reign has afforded us the happy Assurance that the civil and religious Establishments of the Country, as settled at the glorious Revolution, are safely entrusted to your Royal and Fatherly Care; but at the present Moment we are peculiarly and imperiously called upon to express our highest Sense of Obligation and Gratitude to your Majesty, for the signal Instance of your unceasing Vigilance, and your constitutional and conscientious Regard for those invaluable Blessings, manifested by your firm and determinate Resistance to a Measure recently brought forwards by your late Ministers.

As Friends to religious Toleration to the fullest Extent that is compatible to the Established Religion of the Kingdom, we have witnessed with Satisfaction the liberal Indulgences which, during your Majesty's Reign, have invariably been granted to those who differed from that Establishment, but we must express our deep and serious Concern in having observed that a Measure, introduced at first with much Restriction, but, even so restricted, greatly alarming to your Majesty's Mind, and repugnant to your Sense of Duty, should have been extended without due Explanation to your Majesty, to such a Length, as to endanger the fundamental Principles of the Constitution both in Church and State, and to demand your Majesty's most prompt and decided Interference; and whilst we acknowledge, and are grateful for the Wisdom and Firmness which resisted the Measure, we are alive to, and justly sensible of, the unbecoming Manner in which it was forced on your Royal Consideration; nor can we abstain from the Expression of our strong Disapprobation of the Conduct of those Persons who proposed that Measure upon the alleged Plea that it was indispensably necessary for the Tranquillity and Safety of the Empire, yet when your Majesty's Sense of sacred and bounden Duty prevented its Adoption, abandoned the Measure, but still persevered to retain their Station of Ministers, and proposed Conditions unwarrantable, unconstitutional, and insulting to their Royal Master, tending to make themselves Parties against their Sovereign, and to render unfavourable in the Eyes of the People a just Exercise of the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown, which a scrupulous Regard to your Coronation Oath compelled your Majesty to resort to. That Prerogative has ever been exercised by your Majesty most favourably to the Liberty of the Subject; but it has never been exerted more necessarily, more wisely, or more acceptably to your People, than in the present Instance.

Under these Impressions permit us, Sire, to offer the Tribute of our unfeigned Gratitude; and in thus expressing our Sentiments we have the confident Assurance that your Majesty becomes, if possible, still more dear to a loyal and affectionate People, and that your Majesty will experience the unanimous and decided Support to which a Conduct, proceeding from such Motives, and directed to such Ends, is so pre-eminently entitled. We pray to God to bless your Majesty with the highest Reward which your Royal Mind can receive, (and which we should regard as the greatest Mark of Divine Favour to the Nation,) that your Majesty may long witness the Happiness of your People, and receive the heartfelt Testimony of their Gratitude and Veneration.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Harwich, in the County of Essex.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Harwich, in the County of Essex, beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach the Throne, and to express our grateful Sense of the very many Blessings and inestimable Comforts we enjoy in common with all your Majesty's Subjects, under the Protection of your Majesty's most mild and benevolent Government. Your Majesty's unremitting Attention to the Welfare and Interests of your People demands, on all Occasions, our best Thanks and Energies; but more especially do we feel ourselves called upon to convey to the Throne our Tribute of Gratitude, for the Firmness manifested by your Majesty to preserve inviolate that Security which the Constitution of your Majesty's Realm affords to the Protestant Reformed Religion. The mild and tolerant Principles which have been so conspicuous during your Majesty's Reign, and which have bestowed upon it additional Lustre, afford the most convincing Proof that your Majesty is actuated by the most benevolent and liberal Views in applying the Restraints which the Constitution warrants. It is our Regard for our holy Religion in its purest Form which calls upon us to guard it, and our Gratitude to your Majesty, as its firmest Defender and Friend, which induces us, with all Humility and Thankfulness, to approach the Throne. May our gracious and Almighty Protector, who has conferred so many Blessings on the People of this Land, long preserve your Majesty to reign over us.

John Hopkins, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Under Steward, and Town-Clerk of the ancient and loyal Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Under Steward, and Town Clerk of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of New Windsor, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with the warmest Affection, and with the deepest Sentiments of Gratitude and Veneration.

We deem it especially to be our Duty at this important Crisis to express our most grateful Acknowledgements to your Majesty for your dignified and decided Support and Protection of the Protestant Reformed Religion, as by Law established in this Kingdom.

Truly sensible of the inestimable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's benignant Reign, we earnestly pray that your Majesty may long live, and continue to fill the Throne of your Ancestors; and that every Thing may contribute to your Majesty's Happiness and the Welfare of the Empire.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the 28th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1807. Charles Knight, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Pontefract, and its Vicinity, beg Permission most humbly to approach your Majesty, to express our Obligation and Gratitude for the dignified and decided Support and Protection which your Majesty, on a late Occasion, has afforded to the Protestant Religion, as by Law established, and for the firm and constitutional Exercise of your Royal Prerogative in preserving the Independence of your Crown.

To Divine Providence and your Majesty's Firmness we owe the Preservation of our Country amidst the Wreck of others; and we, your faithful Subjects, presume to assure your Majesty, that it is our fixed Determination to aid, as far as is in our Power, your Majesty's virtuous and noble Resolution of withstanding all undue Encroachments upon our civil and religious Constitution.

We most sincerely hope that your Majesty may long live to protect your loyal Subjects; and that our Constitution in Church and State may remain an unimpaired Monument of Admiration to the World.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and Deacons of Crafts, of the Royal Burgh of Lanark, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and Deacons of Crafts, of the Royal Burgh of Lanark, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with the most unfeigned Expressions of Gratitude and Attachment.

Your Majesty's paternal Regard for, and Solicitude to promote, the best Interests of your People, has on all Occasions been highly conspicuous, and on none more so than a late memorable Occasion, when your Majesty most clearly manifested your firm Attachment to the Protestant Reformed Religion, as established by Law, and your Zeal in supporting the religious and civil Constitution of the Empire.

That your Majesty's valuable Life may be long preserved as a Blessing to a grateful Nation, is our earnest Wish and Prayer.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, this 23d Day of April 1807, by Richard Vary, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Greenock, in Council assembled, beg Leave to express to your Majesty the high Satisfaction we feel in your Majesty's paternal Care of the civil and religious Rights of the Protestant Interest, and your Resistance of what, in our Idea, was an Attempt to render these less secure than under the Constitution they at present happily are. And that your Majesty may long live the beloved Father and Sovereign of a loyal and dutiful People, is our sincere Wish and Prayer.

Signed by our Chief Magistrate, in our Name, and by our Appointment, and sealed with our Corporation Seal, at Greenock, the 23d Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1807, John Hamilton.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough aforesaid, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, grateful for the Prosperity which we have long enjoyed under the present inestimable Constitution in Church and State, beg Leave to express our sincerest Satisfaction and Gratitude for the dignified and decided Support and Protection given by your Majesty at this interesting Conjunction to the Protestant Reformed Religion, as by Law established, and for the firm and constitutional Exercise of your Royal Prerogative to preserve the Independence of your Crown; nor can we refrain from expressing our fervent Prayers that the Almighty may long continue to us your Majesty, as the watchful Guardian of our Constitution in Church and State, and as the faithful Sovereign of a loyal and grateful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the ancient City of Saint Andrew's, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE approach your Majesty at this interesting Juncture with all Humility, and with a most grateful Sense of the many Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government.

We beg Leave to express our Admiration of your Majesty's dignified Firmness in resisting the Innovation lately proposed against the Protestant Establishment, and the Constitution of the United Kingdom.

That the Divine Mercy may long preserve a Sovereign whom so many Benefits endear to us, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Saint Andrew's.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, and the Seal of the City is hereto affixed, this 22d Day of April, 1807, Kellie, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, impressed with the deepest Sense of your Majesty's paternal Care and Protection during your august Reign, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of Devotion, Veneration, and Attachment.

Whilst we reflect with humble Admiration on the benevolent Policy which has induced your Majesty to confer on all your Subjects, in its full Extent, the Blessing of religious Toleration, we have witnessed with profound Sensations of Gratitude, the Determination of Justice and Firmness which, on a recent Occasion, has directed your Majesty's Conduct towards your Roman Catholic Subjects.

In the decided Support and Protection which your Majesty has thus afforded to the Protestant Religion, as by Law established, and in the Exercise of your royal Prerogative to preserve the Independence of your Crown, we consider that your Majesty has been influenced only by those Principles of the Constitution, which have so incessantly conduced to render your Majesty's Reign an invaluable Blessing of Divine Providence, and consequently to increase the Power and Happiness of the Empire.

Under the Influence of such Principles, your Majesty's Government is entitled to our warmest Support and Confidence; and we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that in Duty, Attachment, and Loyalty, we will yield to none of your Majesty's Subjects in our Endeavours to uphold a Throne, which we trust will ever be established in the Hearts of a free and grateful People.

April 21, 1807. John Thomas, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailies and Trustees of the United Towns of Port Glasgow and Newark.

May it please your Majesty,

WITH the highest Satisfaction do we your loyal Subjects, the Bailies and Trustees of Port Glasgow and Newark, congratulate your Majesty on the Exercise of your just Prerogative in the recent constitutional and necessary Change of your Ministers, thereby affording an additional Instance of your Majesty's Judgment, Firmness of Mind, and paternal and conscientious Discharge of the Trust reposed in you as Guardian of the Interest of Church and State.

That your Majesty may long live to perform the Duties of your exalted Station; and that those of your Descendants, in due Time succeeding thereto, may, as we flatter ourselves they severally will, have Wisdom to imitate, and Resolution to adopt, your Majesty's very exemplary public and private Conduct, is our earnest Prayer.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said Towns, in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, in Council assembled, within the Council Chamber thereof, the 21st Day of April, 1807 Years,

James M'Leish, eldest Baillie.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Town or Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln, and the Inhabitants thereof.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Stamford, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the profoundest Attachment to, and Veneration for, your Person and Government.

We are grateful beyond Expression, Sir, for the Protection which your Majesty has invariably given to our Laws, our Liberties, and our Established Religion. We humbly beg Leave to assure you, that we will at all Times, on all Occasions, and at every Hazard, be ready to maintain and defend your Majesty's sacred Person and just Prerogative Persons whomsoever. And we sincerely pray that your Majesty may long reign in Prosperity and Happiness over a loyal and dutiful People, whose Pride it is to have been made better by your Example, and who sensibly feel the Pre-eminence to which they have risen amongst surrounding Nations, under the Guidance of your fatherly Care and Wisdom.

Given under the Common Seal of the Corporation of Stamford aforesaid, and under our Hands, at the Town Hall in the said Borough, this 18th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1807. Newcomb, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, Freeholders, and Freemen of the Town and Borough of Okehampton, beg Leave humbly to express our Gratitude for that paternal Care and Anxiety which your Majesty ever evinces in the Protection of the best and dearest Interests of your Subjects. We have seen with Admiration the dignified and decided Support and Protection which your Majesty has, on a late Occasion, afforded to the Reformed Protestant Religion, as by Law established; and your Majesty's constitutional Exertion of your Prerogative in the Defence of those Laws, which are the greatest Blessings this happy Land enjoys, and which have ever upheld and supported the great Bulwark of every constitutional Privilege.

We are happy in the Conviction, that the Measures which your Majesty in your Wisdom has thought proper to adopt, will increase the Confidence and Affection of a grateful People to their Sovereign.

That your Majesty may ever be assisted in your Councils by the tried Friends of true Religion and rational Liberty, and that the Divine Providence which you truly adore, may long preserve to us a Sovereign, who reigns in the Hearts of his Subjects, the Defender of the Established Religion, the Guardian of the Laws and Liberties of the Realm, and the Delight of your People, is the earnest Wish of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects. J. Cudding, Mayor.

[Transmitted by R. B. Robson, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough of Okehampton]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Common-Councilmen of the Town and Port of Dover, in the County of Kent, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Common-Councilmen of the Town and Port of Dover, in the County of Kent, deeply impressed with Gratitude for the paternal Solicitation your Majesty hath always evinced for the Happiness of your People, deem it our Duty at this important Crisis to approach your Majesty, to renew our sincere Profession of Loyalty and Affection to your Royal Person, and of Attachment to the civil and religious Constitution of the Kingdom.

The established Religion of your Dominions hath uniformly received your Majesty's gracious Protection and Support, and hath been the Object of your Majesty's peculiar Anxiety; and we cannot but contemplate with the greatest Veneration, and gratefully feel how strongly the Practice of Virtue and Religion hath been inculcated and promoted by the Example invariably shewn in your Majesty's own Person.

Whilst we regret that any Attempt should have been made to agitate the public Mind, by the Revival of Claims which had been considered by the Nation at large as set at Rest, we are filled with Admiration at the firm and constitutional Determination of your Majesty to resist all Attempts at Innovation in the religious Establishment of the Country, and to preserve inviolate those Barriers which the Wisdom of our Ancestors judged necessary for the Defence of the Constitution in Church and State. And it is our most fervent Prayer, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over an affectionate and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal this 19th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1807.

[Transmitted by Charles Jenkinson, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town of Dover.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the London Clergy, incorporated by the Title of the President and Fellows of Sion College, within the City of London, beg Leave to approach your sacred Majesty, and at the present Moment, in all Humility, to lay before you the Sentiments of Veneration, Duty, and Affection, by which your Clergy of the City of London have ever been animated towards your royal Person and august Family.

We feel, Sire, that we should be utterly unworthy of that uniform and pious Protection, which, through the Course of a long and auspicious Reign, your Majesty has (under Divine Providence) extended to the Church established in the United Kingdom, if we did not in the present Posture of Affairs, express our deep and indelible Gratitude to your Majesty, for a recent Instance of your royal Wisdom and Constancy, in the Preservation of those Sanctions which Experience has proved to be necessary for the Protection of our Constitution in Church and State. These Sanctions were the Legacy of our revered Ancestors, who lived in Times most distinguished by the Progress of true Philosophy, and the Sagacity of legislative Wisdom.

Sire, we are fully aware of all the Dangers and Confusions which must arise from depriving the Established Church of that mild and tolerant Ascendancy, which equally prevents the ruinous Conflicts of contending Sects, and the overbearing Supremacy of a foreign spiritual Jurisdiction, inconsistent either with Liberty or Toleration, or genuine Allegiance to a Protestant Prince.

In your Majesty's firm Refusal to sanction Projects utterly subversive of all that the Wisdom of our Forefathers devised, and destructive of the strongest Barriers of that Constitution which your august Family were called, by Divine Providence, to the Throne of these Kingdoms to defend, we recognise with Veneration and Gratitude, an eminent Regard for the true Principles of Christian Toleration and the high Duties incumbent on a Monarch of the Protestant Succession, and a most conscientious Adherence to the Sanctity of your Coronation Oath, which places the Protestant Religion, established by Law in this Kingdom, under your Majesty's peculiar and incessant Protection.

That your Majesty may long here on Earth enjoy the Allegiance, Affection, and Gratitude of all your faithful Subjects, and the approving Testimony of your Conscience; and that you may late inherit the unfading Crown which is reserved in Heaven for the Protectors and Defenders of the sincere and uncorrupted Faith of Christ, is the fervent and constant Prayer of, Sire, your ever dutiful, grateful, and affectionate Subjects, the President and Fellows of Sion College.

Given at Sion College under our Common Seal, this 18th Day of April 1807.

[Transmitted by the Reverend Robert Watts, Secretary of Sion College.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Perth and Stirling, beg Leave humbly to express our grateful Sense of your Majesty's mild Government and paternal Sollicitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People. We particularly admire the firm and dignified Manner in which your Majesty has shewn your Determination to maintain and defend the Protestant Reformed Religion, as by Law established, the best Blessing bestowed by Divine Providence on these Realms, and the surest Means of guarding and perpetuating the inestimable Privileges secured to your People by the British Constitution.

That Almighty God, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may long preserve your Majesty, may prosper your Councils, and crown with Success your unceasing and paternal Concern for the best Interests of your Dominions, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Perth and Stirling.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Stirling, this 21st Day of April 1807, by Patrick M'Farlan, Moderator.

[Transmitted by James Somerville, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Borough of Dundee, beg Leave to approach the Throne with a most grateful and affectionate Sense of the numberless and distinguished Blessings which, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, we have enjoyed under the mild and benign Government of our most gracious Sovereign.

Permit us, Sire, to express the grateful Feelings of our Hearts for the paternal Care which your Ma-jeſty has uniformly exerciſed towards your People, particularly in a recent Inſtance, where the Firmneſs, which has ever diſtinguiſhed your Maſteſty's Character, was ſucceſsfully exerted in the Protection of the Proteſtant Religion, that great Baſis of our national Rights.

Allow us alſo to expreſs the Intereſt we feel in your Maſteſty's juſt and conſtitutional Exerciſe of your Royal Prerogative, by calling to your Councils thoſe of approved Abilities, well known to your Maſteſty, and who, we truſt and believe, will, after the Example of their Sovereign, ever make the true Principles of a Britiſh Conſtitution a Rule of Conduct to Britiſh Miniſters.

Long, very long, may your Maſteſty reign over a free and happy People, and continue to a grateful Nation the Bleſſings of an enlightened and ſpirited Government.

Signed in Preſence, and by Appointment of

Whitehall, April 25, 1807.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that early on the Morning of Saturday the 18th Instant, the Warehouse of Mr. John Cuff, jun. Brewer, situated near the Wharf, in the Parish of Barking, in the County of Essex, was discovered to be on Fire, and that there is every Reason to suppose that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil-minded Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set fire to the said Premises) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And as a farther Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Inhabitants of the said Parish, and a farther Sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Governor and Company of the Royal Exchange Assurance, the Managers of the Sun Fire Office, and the Directors of the Phoenix Fire-Office, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except the Person who actually set fire to the said Premises,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

The last-mentioned Reward will be paid by either of the Offices above mentioned.
