Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Selkirk, in their Annual General Meeting assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Selkirk, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with the humble Professions of our Duty, Loyalty, and Allegiance. The Moderation and Virtue which has distinguished your Majesty through the whole Course of your Reign, impress our Minds with the most sincere Veneration for your august Person and Character, while the uncommon Firmness which your Majesty has so recently shewn in maintaining, equally, the just Prerogative of the Crown, and the constitutional Liberty of your People; those sacred Privileges by which the illustrious House of Hanover was seated on the Throne of the United Kingdoms, call forth our highest Gratitude, and the warmest Affections of our Hearts.

That Divine Providence may guard your sacred Person; that it may long preserve your precious Life; that the Successors to your Throne may inherit your Royal Virtues; and while they sway the first Sceptre in the Universe, may study to reign in the Hearts of a free and loyal People, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Selkirk.

Signed in their Presence, and by their Appointment, this 30th Day of April, 1807.

James Pringle, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Leeds, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our united and grateful Expressions of Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government.

A Period, Sire, of nearly half a Century has now manifested to your People your Majesty's firm and conscientious Adherence to every sacred Obligation under which your Majesty succeeded to the Throne of this United Kingdom.

We pray that your Majesty's Posterity may long continue to fill, and, after your Example, to adorn, that Throne.

We have viewed with the deepest Regret the late Agitation of a Question repugnant to your Majesty's known conscientious Persuasion, unnecessarily stirring up the Minds, and exciting the Passions of your Subjects, and finally rendering indispensable your Majesty's Recurrence to the Sense of your People.

We feel confident that every Class and Denomination of your Subjects, whose Rights have been at all Times equally protected, and whose Happinefs has been impartially promoted by your Majesty, will rejoice with us in this and in every Opportunity of testifying an ardent Zeal for your Majesty's just Authority, and an unanimous Determination to support its constitutional Exercise.

That your Majesty may long reign over a grateful and happy People, is our sincere and fervent Prayer.

By Order of the Meeting,

Richard Ramsden Bramley, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, and its Neighbourhood.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, most humbly beg Leave, at this important Crisis, to renew to your Majesty the Sentiments of Loyalty, Veneration, and affectionate Attachment which actuate our Hearts, when we contemplate the patriotic and beneficent Reign of your Majesty, the true and firm Protector of our glorious Constitution in Church and State.

We are assured, by the Exercise of your Majesty's undoubted Prerogative on a recent Occasion, that with unabated Solitude your Majesty graciously watches over the true Interests and Welfare of your People; and most humbly offer to your Majesty our sincere Acknowledgements of Gratitude for that Firmness of Decision, which evinces to your faithful Subjects your Majesty's Resolution most vigilantly to guard against and resist any Attempt that may be made to lessen the Security of the Protestant Reformed Religion, as by Law established.

We fervently pray Almighty God long to preserve to us your Majesty's most valued Life, in the exemplary Display of all those Virtues which so eminently adorn the Sovereign, and the Father of a happy People.
