

our humble Expression of the highest Admiration, and the most lively Gratitude.

Accustomed to behold in the whole of your Majesty's Conduct, for a long Series of Years, the firmest Resolution, and the most anxious Solicitude in supporting the true Principles of our admirable Constitution both in Church and State, we were not surpris'd at the late noble Stand made by your Majesty in Defence of the venerable Fabric rais'd by the Wisdom, and watered by the Blood, of our martyred Reformers. But when we look back upon those Times of unrelenting Persecution, in which Bigotry and Superstition consigned to Death and to Torment every Friend of civil and religious Liberty; when the Sword was avowedly set in Opposition to the Word of Truth, and Power employed without Remorse, to bind and to force the Conscience, we cannot too strongly express our Thanks to your Majesty, for your reasonable and patriotic Exercise of your undoubted Prerogative.

Your Majesty has ever been our Friend, our Protector, and our Father; your enlightened Mind has ever penetrated the crafty Designs of the wily, and your manly Fortitude has ever resisted the daring Efforts of the violent.

May Heaven long continue to your Majesty unimpaired Health of Body, and undiminished Vigour of Mind.

May the great Ruler of the Universe long continue to this Country the enviable Blessing it now enjoys, a good and patriot King. Such are our Prayers to Heaven, and such the genuine Sentiments of our Hearts; deeply sensible as we are, that, under your Majesty's Government, we shall enjoy, in its original Purity, that equal and tolerant Constitution under which we have hitherto lived, and been happy.

May it please your Majesty to accept graciously this our humble Address, with the most respectful Assurance of our unshaken Allegiance and most devoted Service.

Signed at the Request of the Burgeses and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough and Town of Carnarvon, convened at the Guildhall on Saturday the 25th Day of April, 1807.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, halten to tender to your Majesty our dutiful Assurances of Veneration and Respect for your sacred Person.

Whilst we profess and admire those Principles of Toleration which unite all your Majesty's Subjects in the sacred Cause of well-regulated Liberty, we are anxious to avow our Gratitude for your Majesty's firm Adherence to that Establishment which has long preferred to us our invaluable Constitution, and which placed upon the Throne of these Realms the illustrious House of Brunswick.

We are deeply sensible of the Blessings resulting from the mild and tolerant System of Government under which we live; and we pray that your Majesty may long continue to dispense them to a grateful People.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable Lord Eldon.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Perth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Affection.

Firmly attached to the Established Religion of our Country, and venerating the Principles of our civil Constitution, with which it is so intimately connected, we feel ourselves called upon to express our Gratitude to your Majesty for the truly paternal Care of both, which your Majesty has evinced on a late important Occasion, in the reasonable and necessary Exercise of the Royal Prerogative.

It must be pleasing to your Majesty to reflect, that, under your Majesty's mild and beneficent Government, every Sect of Christians have enjoyed the Benefits of religious Toleration to an Extent unknown at any former Period; but your Majesty has never ceased to preserve, with watchful Care, the Ecclesiastical Establishments of your Dominions, connected as they are with that Form of civil Government under which we have been so eminently favoured by Divine Providence; and we are confident that your Majesty may at all Times rely on the cordial and zealous Support of a loyal, affectionate, and grateful People, whenever your Majesty shall find it necessary to exercise your undoubted Prerogative.

That it may please Almighty God to prolong your Majesty's Life, and to crown with Success your Majesty's unceasing Endeavours to promote the best Interests of your Subjects, is the earnest Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Perth.

Signed by our Preses, in our Name, and by our Appointment, Doane, Preses.

[Transmitted by Alexander Fraser, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

An Address from the Lord Lieutenant, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Berwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Berwick, in a General Meeting assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with cordial Expressions of Gratitude for the conscientious Regard your Majesty has lately manifested to the best Interests of your People, in refusing dangerous Encroachments upon the Laws established by the Wisdom of our Ancestors, for securing to their Posterity the Blessings of the Reformed Protestant Religion, which, free from all foreign Influence and Controul, forms one of the surest Bulwarks of the Constitution both in Church and State.

In important Occurrences like the present, we
