Whitehall, May 8, 1807.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Night of the 16th Ultimo, a Luggur, laden with smuggled Spirits and other contraband Articles, having been chased on Shore opposite the Town of Folkstone, in Kent, and boarded by the Boat's Crew of the Lively Cutter, in the Service of the Revenue of Excise, William Lilburn, Commander, a great Number of Persons assembled riotously, and fired several Volleys of small Arms against the said Luggur and the Officers therein, and a Cannon-shot also struck and damaged her.

His Majesty, in order to bring to Justice the Persons who have been guilty of this violent Outrage and Capital Felony, is pleased hereby to promise His most gracious Pardon to any Accomplice who shall discover any one or more of the said Offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted.

HAWKESBURY.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Commissioners of Excise offer a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery, to be paid by their Secretary upon the Conviction of the Party or Parties for the Capital Felony aforesaid, on the Prosecution of the Revenue of Excise.

By Order of the Board,

Thomas Burton, Secretary.
