

sideration of the manifold Dangers to which our Country is exposed.

That Almighty God, for the Sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, may direct your Majesty's Councils; that he may prosper your Administration, and prolong your valuable Life, so justly dear to us; that he may bestow his choicest Blessings on our gracious Queen Charlotte, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family; and that the Subjects of the British Empire, animated by your illustrious Example, may ever be distinguished among the Nations by that sacred Regard for pure and undefiled Religion, which alone can ensure the Blessing of Heaven on the Means employed for our Defence, are the earnest Prayers of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by James Wallace, Moderator. Edinburgh, May 5, 1807.

[Transmitted by Mr. Wallace.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Synod of Moray.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers of the Province of Moray, in Synod assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the firmest Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. Deeply sensible of your Majesty's paternal Solicitude for the Happiness of your People, manifested through the whole of your Reign, we feel ourselves particularly called upon at present to offer this Expression of our grateful Acknowledgements for your firm and conscientious Adherence to those Principles which placed your illustrious Family on the British Throne.

That your Majesty may be long spared as the Defender of our Faith, and the Guardian of our Liberties, is the earnest Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers of the Synod of Moray.

Signed in our Name, Presence, and by our Appointment, at Elgin, this 28th Day of April, 1807. Grigor Grant, Moderator.

[Transmitted by James Brodie, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Rev. the Presbytery of Linlithgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and most dutiful Subjects, the Presbytery of Linlithgow, beg Leave, with the greatest Humility, to approach the Throne of our beloved Sovereign, acknowledging the distinguished Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Reign, and rejoicing in the recent Exercise of the Royal Prerogative, in a Manner so consistent with the Principles of our happy Constitution, and so subservient to the religious Interests of the Inhabitants of the United Kingdom. That the Grace of God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, may long preserve your Majesty the Father of your People, the Guardian of the Protestant Interest, and of the Liberties of the civilized World, is the most earnest

Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your very faithful and devoted Subjects.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Linlithgow, this 29th Day of April, 1807 Years, by Henry Lijston, Moderator.

[Transmitted by Brigadier-General Hope.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Angus and Mearns, assembled at one of our provincial Meetings, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most grateful Acknowledgments for the late Exercise of your Majesty's Royal Prerogative, by which is seasonably prevented a Measure dangerous, we apprehend, to the Protestant Interest, that solid Basis of genuine Liberty, and of the growing Prosperity and Happiness of these Realms.

While we are desirous that the Blessings of Toleration may be enjoyed by every Denomination of Christians, we can never contemplate without Alarm whatever has a Tendency to counteract or to weaken the Principles of that happy Constitution, which ensures to your Majesty's illustrious House the Possession and Inheritance of the British Throne, and to your Majesty's Subjects, the invaluable Blessings of the best of Governments.

That it may please the King of Nations, the supreme Arbiter of human Affairs, long to preserve your Majesty, a Blessing to your People, and a nursing Father to the Church of Christ, is the ardent Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Angus and Mearns.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Forfar, this 28th Day of April, 1807, by James Miller, Moderator.

[Transmitted by Sir David Wedderburne.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Councillors of the Burgh of Forfar, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to congratulate your Majesty on the late constitutional Exercise of the Royal Prerogative, in Defence of the Protestant Religion.

That Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty's precious Life, for the Support and Maintenance of our Liberties civil and religious, is our fervent Prayer.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment, of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Forfar, at Forfar, the 30th Day of April, 1807.

J. Sands, Chief Magistrate.

[Transmitted by Sir David Wedderburne, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The very humble Address of the Rev. Presbytery of Caithness, North Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Moderator and Members of the Presbytery of Caithness, met at Wick, 6th May, 1807, beg Leave most humbly to approach your