St. James’s, June 1, 1807.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty’s Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING’s Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Merioneth, assembled at a special County Court held for the Election of a Representative in Parliament, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our unfeigned Thanks, for your having so firmly resisted the Innovations lately proposed in the religious Establishment of the United Kingdom.

And we are happy in this Opportunity of expressing to your Majesty our Zeal and Attachment to your sacred Person, and to the Constitution, as at present established, both in Church and State; and our firm Persuasion that, under your Majesty’s Royal Auspices, the same will be transmitted down unimpaired to our latest Posterity.

At the Request of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Merioneth.

[Transmitted by W. Vaughan, Esq.]

To the KING’s Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Barnstaple, beg Leave to approach your Throne with unfeigned Sentiments of Attachment and Affection to your Government and sacred Person. We contemplate with the liveliest Thankfulness the many Blessings we have enjoyed under your auspicious Reign, and the signal Obligations you have conferred upon all Classes and Descriptions of your Subjects. Influenced by the mild and forbearing Genius of Protestantism, you have uniformly evinced a Desire to be the common Father of your People, and granted Toleration to your Subjects of every religious Persuasion; and if any Thing can increase our Admiration of your Wisdom and paternal Regard for your People, it is your Discernment of the true Principles of our unrivalled Constitution, and your spirited and dignified Conduct in maintaining them. It is the fervent Wish of our Hearts that your Majesty may long reign in Health and Happiness, a Blessing to a grateful People, governing them by the Wisdom of your Councils, and instructing them by the Purity and Lustre of your Example.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, this 11th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1807. Henry Drake, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by William Taylor and George Woodford Thellusson, Esqrs.]

To the KING’s Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Borough of Wick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Royal Borough of Wick, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne to declare our unalterable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and to express our grateful
