

sion except One, which drove on Shore and was lost. The Crews of the Enemy's Vessels took to their Boats, but I fear as the Sea ran very high, some of them were drowned in attempting to land. Had the Breeze fortunately continued, I have no Doubt but we should have taken and destroyed the whole Convoy, which, exclusive of the Gun-Brigs, appears to consist of about Twenty-seven Sail of Brigs, Sloops, and Chaffe Marées. I have the Pleasure to add, that the Officers and Seamen employed on this Service, performed it to my Satisfaction and to their own Credit. Inclosed is a List of the Vessels taken and destroyed, with their Cargoes, &c.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Memorandum.—The Brig Mr. Cave Gregory was in was run down by the Spartiate, in the Night of the 6th Inst. and lost, all the Crew saved.

Whitehall, June 18, 1807.

The King has been pleased to appoint Alexander Campbell, Esq; to be a Commissioner for managing His Majesty's Revenue of Excise, in the Room of Richard Spiller, deceased.

Whitehall, June 20, 1807.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Reverend John Ashpinshaw, late of Calverton, but now of Staunton, in the County of Nottingham, Doctor of Laws, and to Elizabeth Ashpinshaw his Wife, His Royal Licence and Authority, that they and their Issue may take and use the Surname, and bear the Arms of Staunton only, in Compliance with an Injunction contained in the last Will and Testament of Anne Charlton, late of Staunton aforesaid, Spinster, deceased, (Cousin of the said Elizabeth Ashpinshaw,) and in Testimony of their grateful and affectionate Respect for her Memory; such Arms being first exemplified with a due Distinction, and recorded in the Herald's-Office:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.
