Bar-Iron, White and Tanned Rope, Tallow or Mill Grease, Tarpaulins for Waggon-Covers, Pitch, Tar, and Turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon Payment of the proper Duties, without Bond being entered into by the Merchant Exporter, to any of the British Plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's Settlements in South America; provided the Merchant Exporter shall first verify, upon Oath, that the Articles so exported are intended for the Use of a particular Plantation or Settlement, to be named in the Entry Outwards, and not for Sale; and that the said Plantation or Settlement has not before been furnished with any Supply of the said Articles during the same Season; and provided also that the Exportation of the said Articles shall, in no Case, exceed the Value of Fifty Pounds Sterling for any given Plantation or Settlement, whether by one or more Shipments within the same Season: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

St. James's, July 22, 1807.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, met in their annual Convention.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Delegates from the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, met in their annual Convention, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to express the Sentiments of Loyalty and Respect with which the eminent Virtues of your Majesty inspire us.

While we admire that liberal and enlightened Spirit which has uniformly characterized your Government, extending to all Classes of Men in the British Empire the Blessings of Freedom and Protection, we revere the dignified Firmness with which, on a late Occasion, your Majesty maintained the Protestant Religion as by Law established, and the sound Principles of the Constitution.

Having the Happiness of living under a Sovereign whose anxious Desire it is to preserve to every Class of his Subjects the Exercise of their just Rights, and to advance by every prudent and equitable Measure the Prosperity of his Empire, it shall be our Endeavour to cherish a spirit of Loyalty to your Majesty, and of Submission to the Laws; and sensible that, in the present Circumstances of the Country, a Concern for the public Welfare should supersede all private Differences of Opinion, we shall study to promote that Unanimity, and Vigour, and Perseverance which, animating as we trust they will the whole Subjects of the Empire, must under God render this Nation fully equal to the arduous Contest in which it is engaged, and, in Defiance of the Attempts of our Enemies, preserve secure our national Honour and Independance.

That your Majesty may long be preserved to be a Blessing to the Empire, and to continue to reign in the Affections of your People; that the great Ruler of the Nations may eminently prosper your Administration, and at length bestow on you a heavenly Crown; and that Princes of the House of Brunswick, formed on your Majesty's Example, may sway the Sceptre of the British Islands to the latest Posterity, is the fervent Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal, most dutiful, and most obedient Subjects, the Delegates from the Royal Boroughs of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, and the Seal of the City of Edinburgh is hereto affixed, Donald Smith, Preses.
