TAKE Notice, that a Writ of ad quod damnum has issued, directed to the Sheriff of Dorsetshire, to enquire whether or no it will be to the Damage or Prejudice of His Majesty, or of any other, if His Majesty should grant to Henry Earl of Uxbridge, in the County of Middlesex, and Baron Paget, of Beaufort, in the County of Stafford, Tenant of the Manor of Stapelbridge, otherwise Stapelbridge, otherwise called Stalbridge, in the County of Dorset, licence that he may have and hold for ever one Market every Week, on Monday, at the same Manor; and that an Inquisition will be taken on such Writ on Monday the 31st Day of August instant, at the House in the Town of Sherborne, in the said County, called or known by the Name or Sign of the Antelope, between the Hours of Elven o'Clock in the Forenoon and of One of the Clock in the Afternoon of that Day.—Dated August 14, 1807.

The Legatees of JAMES MILLER, deceased.

Carlisle, August 5, 1807.

Whereas Two Third Parts of the Net Residue of the Personal Estate of James Miller, late of the City of Carlisle, in the County of Cumberland, Yeoman, (who died on or about the 13th Day of January 1791.) were in and by his last Will and Testament, bearing Date the 25th of February preceding, given unto and amongst the Grandchildren of his Aunt Margaret, formerly Margaret Miller, the late

Wife of John Reid, of Freehold, in the State of New Jersey, in America, Yeoman, deceased in such Manner as is therein-mentioned; and whereas the greatest Part of such Residue was at the Time of the Death of the said James Miller, and still is, secured on Mortgage of certain Premises which soon afterwards descended to a Minor, who hath nearly attained the Age of 21 Years, so that it is expected the Money will be ready to be paid as soon as the said Legatees, or their respective legal Representatives, shall make proper Application to John Mitchinson, of Carlisle aforesaid, Esq; the Executor and Trustee in the said Will named; Notice is therefore hereby given to all such Legatees or Persons now entitled as aforesaid, and who are supposed to be resident in the States of New Jersey and New York, or some other Parts of America, that the said Two Third Parts of the Residue of the Personal Estate of the said James Miller will be paid, on their severally producing the necessary Proofs of their Identity, and complying with the other Requisites in the said Will contained in that Behalf.

Whereas at a Meeting of the Creditors of George Steadman and John M'Lean, late of Lamb-Street, Spital-fields, in the County of Middlesex, Potatce Merchants, Dealers and Chapmen, (Bankrupts.) held at Batson's Coffee-House, Cornhill, in the City of London, according to Notice in the London Gazette for that Purpose, on the 11th Day of June now last, it was unanimously agreed, that the Proposals which had been made for the Purchase of the Interest which the said Bankrupts, or one of them, and their Assignees possessed in and to the Fisherwick Estate should be acceded to, provided Lord Chichester and his Trustees, or either of them, should pay to the Assignees the Sum of 6000l. (being the Sum offered,) together with Interest, as in the Proposals mentioned, within Two Years and One Quarter of a Year from Midsummer-Day 1807; and whereas, for carrying such Resolution into Execution, it was consented to, and agreed, that a Deed of Covenant and Agreement should be prepared by Richard Preston, of the Inner-Temple, London, Esq; on Behalf of all Parties, and an Agreement was prepared and settled by him, and Two Parts, One executed by the Assignees of the Bankrupt, and the other by Lord Chichester and his Trustees, are now ready to be exchanged, but Messrs. Harvey, Bryant, and Maydwell, the Solicitors to the Assignees, having been directed by the Assignees, or one of them, in consequence of an Order from the Committee appointed to act in and manage the Affairs connected with the Bankrupts' Contract for the Purchase of the Fisherwick Estate, to retain and keep in their Custody and Possession such Deed so executed by the said Assignees, and not to exchange the same for that executed by Lord Chichester and his Trustees, as aforesaid; and Messrs. Harvey, Bryant, and Maydwell, having been called upon by the Solicitor of Lord Chichester and his Trustees to make such Exchange; the Creditors of the Bankrupts are desired to meet the Assignees and the Committee at Batson's Coffee-House, Cornhill, in the City of London, on Friday the 28th Day of August instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, to resolve, determine, and direct whether the said Agreement, executed by the said Assignees shall be exchanged for the other Part of the said Agreement, or shall be retained; and on other special Affairs relating to the said Agreement.

August 5, 1807.

Whereas Mr. Thomas Underwood, late of Trentham-Lane, in the County of Stafford, (who died on the 29th June last,) has in his Will, after Payment of certain Legacies, given a Part of the Residue of his Property to his Two Nephews, John Underwood and William Underwood, (Sons of his Brother, John Underwood,) provided they apply to his Executor in Six Months after his Death; and whereas it is not known where the said Nephews now are, this is to advise the said John and William Underwood, that if living, they may make their Claim to Mr. Edmund Antrobus, No. 480, Strand, the Executor: William Underwood, it is believed, was impressed into His Majesty's Navy, in London, in 1798, and John Underwood was a Soldier in the Coldstream Regiment of Guards many Years ago.

To be sold by Auction, by Order of the Assignees of Thomas Jones, of the City of Gloucester, Horse-Dealer, and Chapman, a Bankrupt, by Mr. Philippotts, Esq; at the Boothall Inn, in the City of Gloucester, on Wednesday the 2d Day of September 1807, at Six o'Clock in the Afternoon.
