SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1807.

Downing-Street, October 31, 1807.

Extract of a Dispatch, of which the following is an Extract, has been received from Lieutenant-General the Right Honourable Lord Catcart, K. T. addressed to the Lord Viscount Castlereagh, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, dated on board His Majesty's Ship Africaine, the 21st October 1807.

AS no Sort of Infraction of the Capitulation had been made by the Danes, who, on the contrary, acted most honourably in the strict and literal Fulfilment of their Engagement; with a View to the Fulfilment of the Articles of the Capitulation on our Part, it was decided to commence the Embarkation of the Army on Tuesday the 13th Instant.

Accordingly, on that Day, the Eight Battalions of the Line of the King's German Legion, were embarked in the Arsenal; and, on the 14th, the Two Light Battalions of the King's German Legion, together with Brigadier-General Macfarlane's Brigade, viz. the 7th and 8th Regiments of British, which embarked in the same Ships which brought them from Hull. These Corps, with the Depot and Garrison Company of the Legion, and the Sick and Wounded of the Army, completely occupied all the Troop Ships, whether for Home or Foreign Service, which had not been appropriated to the Conveyance of Naval Stores.

These Ships having been removed to the Road, were replaced by the Horse Ships.

On the same Day the Advanced Posts were withdrawn from Kolhaven, Werdenberg, Corfoer Kallenberg, Fredericksberg, Herholm, and adjacents, and proceeding through a Chain of Cavalry Posts, reached the Environs of Copenhagen in Three Marches.

The Embarkation of the Royal Artillery, with the Field and Battering Ordnance, having been gradually carried on from the Kalk Brauderie, that of the Cavalry and Foreign Artillery in the Dock-Yard, and that of the British Regiments from the Citadel, to the Men of War, there remained on Shore, on Sunday Afternoon the 18th Instant, only the Brigade of Guards, who moved on that Day from the Palace of Fredericksberg, to the Strand near Hellerup, with One Brigade of British Light Artillery, the Flank Companies of the 32d and 50th Regiments, with the 82d Regiment, under Major-General Spencer, in the Arsenal; and the 4th Regiment, with a Detachment of Royal Artillery in the Citadel, under Lieutenant-Colonel Wynch, who acted as Lieutenant-Governor, the 4th, or King's own Regiment, having been in Garrison there the whole Time.

Lieutenant-General Sir George Ludlow was appointed to command the Rear-Guard of the Army.

In the Evening of the 18th Instant, a Gale of Wind came on which lasted Twenty-four Hours, and rendered further Embarkation impossible, and any Communication from the Shore with the Ships very difficult.

As soon as it became evident that the Evacuation of the Island, on the 19th, was impracticable, a Correspondence took place between the British and Danish Head-Quarters, the Result of which left no Reason to apprehend that Hostilities would re-com-
