

I beg Leave to exprefs the great Satisfaction I have felt from the zealous and attentive Services of Rear-Admiral Effington, to whom the general Superintendance of the numerous Transports, and the Re-embarkation of the Army, with all its Artillery and Stores, has been committed.

I embrace this Opportunity to make a particular Acknowledgement of the very able and judicious Dispositions which Rear-Admiral Keats has made from Time to Time of the Force under his Command, for guarding the Belt; and the vigilant Attention which his whole Squadron have paid to this important Branch of the Service.

Sir Home Popham has not ceas'd to manifefl his ufual Zeal and Ability in the Affiftance he has rendered me in the various Services of the Fleet; and I fhould not do juftice to the diligent Attention and arduous Endeavours of Captain Mackenzie to fulfil the Civil Duties of the Arfenal, which were committed to his Management and Superintendance, if I did not, on this Occafion, exprefs my warm Approbation of his Exertions, and I beg Leave to recommend him to their Lordships' favourable Notice.

I have the Honour to tranfmit herewith a Lift of the Danifh Ships and Veffels which have been brought away, and of thofe deftroyed. The Account of the Stores fhipped from the Arfenal fhall alfo be fent as foon as the feveral Returns can be collected and arranged.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) J. GAMBIER.
