Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, about Three o'Clock on the Morning of the 26th September last, the Chapel at Holloway was burned down, and that there is every Reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Chapel) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by Mr. Thomas Wilson, of Tyndal-Place, Islington.

Whitehall, November 21, 1807.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, on Tuesday the 3d of November instant, a Barn, in the Occupation of Mr. James Bingham, sen. in the Parish of Hatfield Broad Oak, in the County of Essex, belonging to Sir John Barrington, Bart. was discovered to be on Fire, between Six and Seven o'Clock in the Morning, and that there is every Reason to believe the said Barn was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil disposed Person or Persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above mentioned Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the said Barn) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Sir John Barrington, Bart. to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by Mr. Young, of Chancery-Lane London.
