From Tuesday December 8, to Saturday December 12, 1807.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 9th of December 1807,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, that no Ships or Vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects be permitted to enter and clear out for any of the Ports within the Dominions of the Emperor of Russia until further Order; and His Majesty is further pleased to order, that a general Embargo, or Stop, be made of all Ships and Vessels whatsoever belonging to the Subjects of the Emperor of Russia now within, or which shall hereafter come into, any of the Ports, Harbours, or Roads within any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, together with all Persons and Effects on board all such Ships and Vessels; and that the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War and Privateers do detain and bring into Port all Ships and Vessels belonging to the Subjects of the Emperor of Russia, or bearing the Flag of the Emperor of Russia; but that the utmost Care be taken for the Preservation of all and every Part of the Cargoes on board any of the said Ships or Vessels, so that no Damage or Embezzlement whatever be sustained; and the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War and Privateers are hereby instructed to detain and bring into Port every such Ship and Vessel accordingly: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 25th of November 1807,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented that it would be expedient to fix certain Periods at which it shall be deemed that a reasonable Time shall have elapsed for receiving Information, at different Places, of His Majesty's Order in Council of the Eleventh of November instant, respecting the Trade with His Majesty's Enemies, and in their Produce and Manufactures; His Majesty taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to obviate any Difficulties that may arise in respect thereto, and also to allow ample Time for the said Order being known to all Persons who may be affected thereby, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that Information of the said Order of the Eleventh of November instant shall be taken and held to have been received in the Places hereinafter-mentioned, at the Periods respectively assigned to them; namely,

Ports and Places within the Baltic—December 21, 1807.

Other Ports and Places to the Northward of Amsterdam—December 11, 1807.

From Amsterdam to Ushant—December 4, 1807.

From Ushant to Cape Finisterre—December 8, 1807.

From Cape Finisterre to Gibraltar, inclusive—December 13, 1807.

Madeira—December 13, 1807.

Ports and Places within the Streights of Gibraltar, to Sicily and Malta, and the West Coast of Italy, inclusive—January 1, 1808.

All other Ports and Places in the Mediterranean beyond Sicily and Malta—January 20, 1808.

Ports and Places beyond the Dardanelles—February 1, 1808.

Any Part of the North and Western Coast of Africa, or the Islands adjacent, except Madeira—January 11, 1808.

The United States, and British Possessions in North America and the West Indies—January 20, 1808.

Cape of Good Hope, and East Coast of South America—March 1, 1808.

India—May 1, 1808.

China, and the Coast of South America—June 1, 1808.

And every Vessel sailing on or after those Days, from those Places respectively, shall be deemed and taken to have received Notice of the aforesaid Order: And it is further ordered, that if any Vessel shall fail within Twenty Days after the Periods above assigned respectively, from any of the said Places, in Contravention of the said Order of the Eleventh of November instant, and shall be detained as Prize on account thereof, or shall arrive at any Port in this Kingdom, destined to some Port or Place within the Restriction of the said Order, and Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the Court of Admiralty in which such Vessel shall be proceeded against, in case the same shall be brought in as Prize, that the Loading of the said Vessel had commenced before the said Periods, and before Information of the said Order had actually been received at the Port of Shipment, the said Vessel, together with the Goods so laden, shall be restored to the Owner or Owners thereof, and shall be permitted to proceed on her Voyage in such Manner as if such Vessel had failed before the Day so specified as aforesaid: And it is further ordered, that no Proof shall be admitted, or be gone into, for the Purpose of shewing that Information of the said Order of the Eleventh of November instant had not been received at the said Places respectively, at the several Periods before assigned:—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judges of the High Court of Admiralty and Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain. W. Fawkener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 25th of November 1807,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Order in Council, dated Eleventh November instant, respecting the Trade to be carried on with His Majesty's Enemies, was pleased to exempt from the Restrictions of the said Order, all Vessels which shall have cleared out from any Port or Place in this Kingdom, under such Regulations as His Majesty may think fit to prescribe, and shall be proceeding direct to the Ports specified in the respective Clearances; His Majesty, taking into Consideration the Expediency of making such Regulations, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all Vessels belonging to Countries not at War with His Majesty, shall be permitted to lade in any Port of the United Kingdom any Goods being the Produce or Manufacture of His Majesty's Dominions, or East India Goods, or Prize Goods, (all such Goods having been lawfully imported) and to clear out with, and freely to convey the same to any Port or Place in any Colony in the West Indies, or America, belonging to His Majesty's Enemies, such Port or Place not being in a State of actual Blockade, subject to the Payment of such Duties as may at the Time when any such Vessels may be cleared out, be due by Law on the Exportation of any such Goods, or in respect of the same being destined to the Ports of the Colonies belonging to His Majesty's Enemies; and likewise to lade, clear out with, and convey as aforesaid, any Articles of Foreign Produce or Manufacture which shall have been lawfully imported into this Kingdom, provided His Majesty's Licence shall have been previously obtained for conveying such Foreign Produce or Manufactures:

And it is further ordered, that any Vessel belonging as aforesaid shall be permitted to lade in any Port of the United Kingdom any Goods, not being Naval or Military Stores, which shall be of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of this Kingdom, or which shall have been lawfully imported, (save and except Foreign Sugar, Coffee, Wine, Brandy, Snuff, and Cotton,) and to clear out with, and freely to convey the same to any Port, to be specified in the Clearance, not being in a State of actual Blockade, although the same shall be under the Restrictions of the said Order; and likewise to lade, clear out, and convey Foreign Sugar, Coffee, Wine, Brandy, Snuff, and Cotton, which shall have been lawfully imported, provided His Majesty's Licence shall have been previously obtained for the Exportation and Conveyance thereof: And it is hereby further ordered, that no Vessel shall be permitted to clear out from any Port or Place in this Kingdom to any Port or Place of any Country subjected to the Restrictions of the said Order, with any Goods which shall have been laden (after Notice of the said Order) on board the Vessel which shall have imported the same into this Kingdom, without having first duly entered and landed the same in some Port or Place in this Kingdom; and that no Vessel shall be permitted to clear out from any Port or Place in this Kingdom to any Port or Place whatever, with any Goods the Produce or Manufacture of any Country subjected to the Restrictions of the said Order, which shall have been laden after Notice as aforesaid on board the Vessel importing the same without having so duly entered and landed the same; or any Goods whatever which shall have been laden after such Notice in the Vessel importing the same, in any Port or Place of any Country subjected to the Restrictions of the said Order, without having so duly entered and landed the same in some Port or Place in this Kingdom, except the Cargo shall consist wholly of Flour, Meal, Grain, or any Article or Articles the Produce of the Soil of some Country which is not subjected to the Restrictions of the said Order, except Cotton, and which shall have been imported in an unmanufactured State direct from such Country into this Kingdom, in a Vessel belonging to the Country from which such Goods have been brought, and in which the same were grown and produced:

And it is further ordered, that any Vessel belonging to any Country not at War with His Majesty, may clear out from Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, to any Port or Place under the Restrictions of the said Order, which shall be specified in the Clearance, not being in a State of actual Blockade, with such Articles only, not being Naval or Military Stores, as shall have been legally imported into such Islands respectively, from any Port or Place in this Kingdom direct; and with respect to all such Articles as may have been imported into the said Islands respectively, from any Port or Place under the Restrictions of the said Order, it shall not be permitted to any Vessel to clear out with the same from any of the said Islands, except to some Port or Place in this Kingdom:—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judges of the High Court of Admiralty and Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 25th of November 1807,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Order in Council dated the Eleventh of November instant, respecting the Trade to be carried on with His Majesty's Enemies, was pleased to exempt from the Restrictions of the said Order all Vessels belonging to any Country not at War with His Majesty, together with their Cargo, which shall be coming from any Port or Place in Europe which is declared in the said Order to be subject to the Restrictions incident to a State of Blockade, direct to some Port or Place in Europe belonging to His Majesty, and also all Vessels which shall be cleared out from Gibraltar or Malta under such Regulations as His Majesty may think fit to prescribe, and which shall be proceeding direct to the Ports specified in their respective Clearances:

And whereas it is expedient to encourage the Trade from Gibraltar and Malta to Countries under the Restrictions of the said Order, subject to Regulations to be made in respect thereto; His Majesty is therefore pleased to prescribe the following Regulations in regard to such Trade, accordingly, and by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all Sorts of Flour and Meal, and all Sorts of Grain, Tobacco, and any other Article in an unmanufactured State, being the Growth and Produce of any Country not being subjected by the said Order to the Restrictions incident to a State of Blockade, except Cotton, and Naval and Military Stores, which shall have been imported into Gibraltar or Malta direct from the Country where the same were grown and produced, shall, without any Licence, be permitted to be cleared out to any Port or Place not being in a State of actual Blockade, without the same being compelled to be landed: But neither the said Article of Cotton, however imported, nor any Article which is not the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of this Kingdom, or which has not been imported in a British Ship, or from this Kingdom direct, (except Fish,) and which shall have been laden at the Port of original Shipment after the Period directed by an Order of this Date to be taken as the Time at which Notice of the said Order of the Eleventh of November shall be considered as having been received at such Port of Shipment, shall be permitted to be exported from Gibraltar or Malta, except to some Port or Place in this Kingdom; and all other Articles of the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of this Kingdom, or which shall have been imported into Gibraltar or Malta in a British Ship, or from some Port or Place in this Kingdom, together with the Article of Fish, however imported, may be exported to any Ports or

Places in the Mediterranean or Portugal, under such Licence only as is hereinafter directed to be granted by the Governor of Gibraltar and Malta respectively:

And it is hereby further ordered, that Licences be granted by the Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, or other Persons having the Chief Civil Command at Gibraltar or at Malta respectively, but in His Majesty's Name, to such Person or Persons as the said Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, or Persons having the Chief Civil Command shall think fit, allowing such Person or Persons to export from Gibraltar direct, to any Port in the Mediterranean, or to any Port of Portugal, or to any Port of Spain without the Mediterranean, not further North than Cape Finisterre, and from Malta direct to any Port being within the Mediterranean, with any Articles of the Produce or Manufacture of His Majesty's Dominions, and any Articles which shall have been imported into Gibraltar or Malta from this Kingdom, to whomsoever such Articles shall appear to belong, (not being Naval or Military Stores,) in any Vessel belonging to any Country not at War with His Majesty, or in any Vessel not exceeding One Hundred Tons Burthen, and being unarmed, belonging to the Country to which such Vessel shall be cleared out and going, and also to import in any such Vessel or Vessels as aforesaid, from any Port within the Mediterranean, to Gibraltar or Malta; or from any Port in Portugal or Spain as aforesaid, to Gibraltar; such Port and such Destination respectively to be specified in such Licence, any Articles of Merchandise whatsoever, and to whomsoever the same may appear to belong; such Articles to be specified in the Bill of Lading of such Vessel, subject however to such further Regulations and Restrictions with respect to all or any of the said Articles so to be imported, or exported, as may be inserted in the said Licences by the Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, or other Persons having the Chief Civil Command at Gibraltar, or Malta, for the Time being respectively, as to them shall, from Time to Time, seem fit and expedient:

And it is further ordered, that in every such Licence shall be inserted the Names and Residence of the Person or Persons to whom it shall be granted, the Articles and their Quantities permitted to be exported, the Name and Description of the Vessel, and of the Master thereof, the Port to which the Vessel shall be allowed to go, which shall be some Port not under actual Blockade; and that no Licence so to be granted shall continue in force for longer than Two Months from its Date, nor for more than One Voyage; nor any such Licence be granted, or acknowledged to be valid, if granted to permit the Clearance of any Vessel to any Port which shall be actually blockaded by any Naval Force of His Majesty or of His Allies:

And it is further ordered, that the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War and Privateers, and all others whom it may concern, shall suffer every such Vessel sailing conformably to the Permission given by this Order, or having any Licence as aforesaid, to pass and repass, direct between Gibraltar, or Malta, and such Port as shall be specified in the Licence, in such Manner, and under such Terms, Regulations, and Restrictions as shall be expressed therein:

And it is further ordered, that, in case any Vessel, so sailing as aforesaid, for which any such Licence as aforesaid shall have been granted, and which shall be proceeding direct upon her said Voyage, shall be detained and brought in for legal Adjudication, such Vessel, with her Cargo, shall be forthwith released by the Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty in which Proceedings shall be commenced, upon Proof being made that the Parties had duly conformed to the Terms, Regulations, and Restrictions of the said Licence; the Proof of such Conformity to lie upon the Person or Persons claiming the Benefit of this Order, or obtaining or using such Licence, or claiming the Benefit thereof:

And it is hereby further ordered, that no Vessel belonging to any State on the Coast of Barbary shall be prevented from sailing with any Articles of the Growth or Produce of such State, from any Port or Place in such State, to any Port or Place in the Mediterranean, or Portugal, such Port or Place not being actually blockaded by some Naval Force belonging to His Majesty, or his Allies, without being obliged to touch at Gibraltar, or Malta:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judges of the High Court of Admiralty and Courts of Vice Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein, as to them shall respectively appertain.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 25th of November 1807,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Order in Council of the Eleventh of November instant, was pleased to order and declare, that all Trade in Articles which are of the Produce or Manufacture of the Countries and Colonies mentioned in the said Order, shall be deemed and considered to be unlawful (except as is therein excepted); His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that nothing in the said Order contained shall extend to subject to Capture and Confiscation any Articles of the Produce and Manufacture of the said Countries and Colonies laden on board British Ships, which would not have been subject to Capture and Confiscation if such Order had not been made:—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judges of the High Court of Admiralty and Courts of Vice-Admiralty are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty, taking into Consideration the Circumstances under which Prussia and Lubeck have been compelled to shut their Ports against British Ships and Goods, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all Ships and Goods belonging to Prussia which may have been seized subsequent to His Majesty's Order of the Nineteenth of November, One thousand eight hundred and Six, and are now detained in the Ports of this Kingdom, or elsewhere, and all Ships and Goods belonging to Inhabitants of Lubeck which are so detained, shall be restored upon being pronounced by the High Court of Admiralty, or any Court of Vice-Admiralty, in which they have been or may be proceeded against, to belong to Subjects and Inhabitants of Prussia or Lubeck, and not otherwise liable to Confiscation; and that such Ships and Goods shall be permitted to proceed to any Neutral Port, or to the Port to which they respectively belong: And it is further ordered, that the Ships and Goods belonging to Prussia or Lubeck shall not, until further Orders, be liable to Detention, provided such Ships and Goods shall be trading to or from any Port of this Kingdom, or between Neutral Port and Neutral Port, or from any Port of His Majesty's Allies, and proceeding direct to the Port specified in their respective Clearances:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judges of the High Court of Admiralty and Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein, as to them shall respectively appertain.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Montagu, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Portsmouth and Spithead, to the Honourable W. W. Pole, dated on board His Majesty's Ship Royal William, at Spithead, the 11th Instant.

INCLOSE a Letter I have received from Captain Honyman, of His Majesty's Ship Leda, acquainting me of his having chased and taken a French Lugger Privateer, of Eighteen Guns. I am sorry to add that she is on Shore at Bembridge Ledge, with little Hopes of getting her off.

His Majesty's Ship Leda, December 4, Beachy Head bearing N. N. W. Ten or Eleven Leagues.

SIR,

IHAVE the Honour to acquaint you, that at Eight o'Clock this Morning, Cape de Caux bearing S. S. W. Distance Four Leagues, we discerned a Lugger and a Brig standing for the French Coast; and conceiving the Lugger to be a Privateer, with her Prize, I stood towards them, when the Brig ran for Havre de Grace, and the Lugger stood E. by S. when I instantly gave Chace to her, and, after a Run of Six Hours, we came up with her, and found her to be the L'Adolphe French Privateer, Monf. Nicholas Famentor, Commander, Eight Days from Boulogne. She is a remarkable fine Vessel, is entirely new, sails uncommonly well, and mounts Ten Eighteen-Pound Carronades, Four long Four-Pounders, Two Two-Pounders, and Two Swivels; had Seventy Men on board when she failed, but has now only Twenty-five, the others having been sent away in Prizes she has captured.

I have the Honour to be, &amp;c.

(Signed) ROB. HONYMAN.

Admiral Montagu, &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, November 16, 1807.
