Whitehall, January 30, 1808.

Whereas it hath been represented to His Majesty, that, on the Night of the 20th Ultimo, William Blackett, (a Watchman stationed at one of His Majesty's Warehouses for seized Spirits, at the Town of Deal, in the County of Kent,) was violently assaulted and dangerously wounded by Five or Six Persons unknown, who were surking about the said Warehouse, with Intent to plunder the same, and one or more of whom struck the said William Blackett about the Head with an Iron Crow, or some such Weapon, and several Times knocked him down;

His Majesty is most graciously pleased, for discovering the said Offenders, hereby to offer His most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Offenders (except the Person or Persons who so struck the said William Blackett with an Iron Crow,) who will give Information against any one or more of the said Offenders, so that he or they may be convicted of the said Offence.

HAWKESBURY.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for further promoting such Discovery, do hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who will give such Information as aforesaid, such Reward to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs, on the Conviction of the said Offender or Offenders.

By Order of the Commissioners,

D. F. Richmond, Secretary.

Whitehall, February 2, 1808.

Whereas it has been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the Morning of the 13th Day of November last, a most alarming Fire was discovered at the Woollen-Manufactory of Mr. Scot, at Sberborne, in Dorsetshire, which totally consumed the same, whereby the Owner of the said Manufactory has suffered a Loss of near 4000l.; and whereas there is strong Ground for suspecting that the said Manufactory was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the Felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of them (except the Person who actually set the said Manufactory on Fire,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the above mentioned Mr. Scot, to any Person or Persons making the Discovery as aforesaid, except as is before excepted.

And a further Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is offered by the Inhabitants of the said Town of Sberborne, upon the like Conditions and Exceptions, to be paid on Conviction of the Offender or Offenders by John Milliar, Esq; Chairman of the Committee appointed to investigate the Circumstances of the Fire before mentioned.

Office of Ordnance, January 20, 1808.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, that Proposals will be received at their Office, in Pall Mall, on or before Monday the 22d February next, from such Persons as may be willing to undertake the Supply of Ironmongery Articles for Dwelling-Houses, &c. for Service of this Department, for a Period of Three Years, agreeable to Patterns, which may be viewed at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower.

Further Particulars, together with the Terms and Conditions of the Contract, may be known upon Application at the Secretary's Office, in Pall Mall aforesaid, and also at the said Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower, any Day between the Hours of Ten and Four o'Clock. The Proposals must be delivered at the Secretary's Office aforesaid, sealed up and endorsed "Proposals for the Supply of Ironmongery Articles;" but no
