PROCLAMATION.

BY virtue of a certain Sentence, given and pronounced by the Honourable Court of Justice of this Colony, bearing Date 20th August 1804, in the Matter Bothamley and Jackson versus John Ley Harrop, Notice is hereby given unto all and every one, that at the Expiration of One Year and Six Weeks next ensuing the Date hereof, shall be publicly sold by me, the under-written under Execution, to the highest Bidder, the precise Day of which Sale public Notice shall hereafter be given here by Proclamation, The Plantation named Hackney, belonging to the said J. L. Harrop, situated on the West Sea Coast of this Colony, known under Lot No. 82, with all the Slaves, Buildings, planted Grounds, and Crops belonging to the same, and with all other Appurtenances and Dependencies thereof, on the Terms and Conditions prescribed in the Ordinance issued for this Colony; and that Three Months after such Sale Judgment will be given by the said Honourable Court of Justice, on the Point touching the Participation and Preference with regard to the Proceeds of the said Plantation. All Creditors, both known and unknown, who shall be able to establish any Claim of Participation and Preference with regard to the Proceeds of the said Plantation, being herewith summoned to appear in Person, or by Attornies, before the said Court of Justice about the first Court-Day, which shall be Three Months after the Sale above-mentioned, in order to make and prefer such Claim and conclusive Prayer as shall appear to them suitable to their Case, on Pain of the Non-Appears being proceeded against, in order to effectuate that an eternal Silence be enjoined to them, according to Law.— Rio Essequibo, the 9th November 1807.

(Signed) FRED. WM. TUCKERMAN, Principal Summoner.
