James Webster.

PROCLAMATION.

BY virtue of a certain Sentence, given and pronounced by the Honourable Court of Justice of this Colony, bearing Date 10th August 1804, in the Matter Bothamley and Jackson versus John Ley Harrop, Notice is hereby given unto all and every one, that at the Expiration of One Year and Six Weeks next ensuing the Date hereof, shall be publicly sold by me, the under-written under Execution, to the highest Bidder, the precise Day of which Sale public Notice shall hereafter be given here by Proclamation, The Plantation named Hackney, belonging to the said J. L. Harrop, situated on the West Sea Coast of this Colony, known under Lot No. 82, with all the Slaves, Buildings, planted Grounds, and Crops belonging to the same, and with all other Appurtenances and Dependancies thereof, on the Terms and Conditions prescribed in the Ordinance issued for this Colony; and that Three Months after such Sale Judgment will be given by the said Honourable Court of Justice, on the Point touching the Participation and Preference with regard to the Proceeds of the said Plantation. All Creditors, both known and unknown, who shall be able to establish any Claim of Participation and Preference with regard to the Proceeds of the said Plantation, being herewith summoned to appear in Person, or by Attornies, before the said Court of Justice about the first Court-Day, which shall be Three Months after the Sale above-mentioned, in order to make and prefer such Claim and conclusive Prayer as shall appear to them suitable to their Case, on Pain of the Non-Appears being proceeded against, in order to effectuate that an eternal Silence be enjoined to them, according to Law.—Rio Ellequibo, the 9th November 1807.

(Signed) FRED. W. M. TUCKERMAN,
Principal Summoner.

The Inventory may be inspected at the Counting-House of Mr. Thomas King, Falcon-Square, London.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

ALL Persons having Demands on the Estate of John Hughes, formerly of the Minorities, in the City of London, Silversmith, and late of Giltspur-Street Compter, in the said City, and afterwards of Northampton, in the County of Northampton, Ironmonger, before the Month of March 1801, when he took the Benefit of a certain Act of Parliament passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors; and also all Persons having Demands on the said John Hughes subsequent thereto, and prior to his executing a certain Deed of Trust, bearing Date the 11th Day of June 1803, and also the unsatisfied Creditors and Legatees of Robert Hughes, late of the Town of Northampton aforesaid, Ironmonger, deceased, and who have not received any Distribution or Dividend of either of their Estates and Effects, are, in pursuance of a certain Cause instituted in the High Court of Chancery, wherein James Butt, Esq; and others are Plaintiffs, and Francis Evans and Walter Mills are Defendants, respectively desired, on or before the 29th Day of February 1808, to send an Account of their several Demands, verified by Affidavit, to Mr. Williams, Solicitor, Chancery Chambers, Quality-Court, Chancery-Lane, Mellis Kinderley, Long, and Ince, Gray's-Inn, London, or Mr. Howe, Solicitor, Northampton, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the Dividend ordered to be made to the said several Creditors.

TO be sold by Auction, by Mr. Gasquoin, before the major Part of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt against Francis Marcellus Hodion, at the Spread Eagle Inn, in Manchester, on Friday the 26th Day of February instant, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon,

A Messuage or Dwelling-House, together with the Print-Shop, Dye-House, Stable, Barn, Shippin, and other Out-buildings thereto adjoining, with the Water-Wheel and Millwright Works thereto belonging, and Six Acres of Land, situate in Newton, about Two Miles from Manchester aforesaid, used as Print Works, and in the Occupation of F. M. Hodson. The Premises are Leasehold for a Term, of which Forty-three Years are unexpired, and are subject to a Rent of 100l. per Annum. There are very fine Springs of Water, with a large Reservoir, Weir, &c. on the Premises. They form a small but very compact and convenient Establishment, which, from its Contiguity to Manchester, and other Advantages, would be a very desirable Purchase to Persons wishing to carry on the Calico-Printing Business on a moderate Scale.

For further Particulars apply at the Premises; to Mr. Cheek, Solicitor to the Commission; or to Mr. Hewitt, Attorney, Manchester.

IN pursuance of a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing Date the 7th Day of December 1807, made in a Cause wherein the Reverend Francis Reed, Clerk, and others are Plaintiffs, and John Morris and others are Defendants, the Creditors of William Selby, late of Bombay, in the East Indies, Esq; who was a Captain in the Bombay Marine in the Service of the Honourable East India Company, and died in India in the Month of December 1801, are forthwith to come in and prove their Debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Buckley against Norton, the Creditors and Legatees of the Reverend Abel Collin Lauder, late of the Town of Nottingham, Clerk, deceased, (who died in or about the Month of August 1803,) are forthwith to come in before John Ord, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their Debts, and claim their Legacies, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, made in a Cause Monk against Drnce, the Creditors and Legatees of Charles Saunders, late of Witney, in the County of Oxford, Esq; deceased, are, on or before the 29th Day of February 1808, to come in, by their Solicitors, and prove their respective Debts, and claim their respective Legacies, before Abel Moysey, Esq; Deputy-Remembrancer of the said Court, at his Chambers, in the Exchequer Office, in the Inner-Temple, London, or in Default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.
