Council-Hall, Cupar, February 12, 1808.

[Transmitted by Sir David Wedderburn, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Royal Burgh of Queensferry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Queensferry, beg Leave, in the present arduous Situation of the Country, humbly to approach your Majesty with Expressions of our Gratitude for that paternal Care of the Welfare and Interests of your Subjects, which has invariably manifested itself in your Majesty's Conduct; and with the Assurance of our Confidence in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils towards the Attainment of a permanent Security to these Realms, against the Attempts of all our Enemies. We feel that this great Object cannot be accomplished without Exertions such as at no former Period of our History were called for. We feel also the Value and Magnitude of the Stake for which we have to contend. The Efforts of our Foes are directed against our Independence; against those Liberties which have been handed down to us from a long Series of Ancestors, and which have been the Admiration and Envy of all the surrounding Nations. For the Preservation of these, pure as they have been transmitted to us, we beg most humbly to assure your Majesty that no personal or private Considerations shall influence our Conduct, and that such shall never by us be put in Competition with the Birthright of Britons.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Queensferry, the 29th Day of February 1808 Years, and the Common Seal of the Burgh thereto affixed,

James Murray, Chief Magistrate.
