TO CREDITORS AND DEBTORS.

March 9, 1808.

Whereas William Cash, of Long-Sutton, in the County of Lincoln, Draper and Grocer, hath by Deeds of Conveyance and Assignment, respectively bearing Date the 5th Day of March instant, conveyed all his Real Estate, and assigned over all his Personal Estate and Effects unto Thomas Maples, of Spalding, in the said County of Lincoln, Grocer, William Brown, of Holbeach, in the same County, Draper and Grocer, and Francis Drake, of Newgate-Street, in the City of London, Wholesale Mercer and Draper, in trust for the Benefit of themselves and such other of the Creditors of the said William Cash as shall execute the said Deed of Assignment within Three Months from the Date thereof; Notice is therefore hereby given, that the said Deed of Assignment is left with the said Thomas Maples, at Spalding aforesaid, for the Inspection and Signature of the Creditors of the said William Cash; and such of them as shall neglect or refuse to execute the same within the Time aforesaid, will be excluded the Benefit thereof.—All Persons having any Claims or Demands upon the said William Cash are requested to transmit their respective Accounts thereof to the said Thomas Maples or William Brown; and all Persons indebted to the said William Cash are hereby required immediately to pay their respective Debts to the said Thomas Maples or William Brown, otherwise Actions will be commenced against them for the Recovery thereof.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing Date the 17th Day of July 1798, made in a Cause Hollingworth against Moulte, it was, among other Things, declared, that according to the Will of John Moulte, late of Rochdale, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, Surgeon, deceased, the Testator named in the Pleadings of the said Cause, Sarah Goodman, one of the Defendants therein, then residing at Eccles, in the Parish of Chapel-en-le-Frith, in the County of Derby, Widow, was entitled to One-Seventh Part of the Money which should arise from the Sale of the said Testator's Real Estates, and of the Rents and Profits thereof, and also to One-Seventh Part of the clear Residue of the said Testator's Personal Estate; that Emanuel Moulte, another Defendant in the said Cause, then and now residing at Chinley, in the Parish of Gloslop, in the said County of Derby, Gentleman, was entitled to One other Seventh Part thereof; that William Moulte, another Defendant therein, then and now residing at Mellor, in the said Parish of Gloslop, Gentleman, was entitled to One other Seventh Part thereof; that Sarah Hyde, (otherwise Hyde) who in her Lifetime resided at Tintwittle, in the Parish of Mottram, in Longendale, in the County of Cheshire, and was the Sister of Alexander Hollingworth, late of Old Hollingworth Hall, in the County of Cheshire, Gentleman, and who survived the said Testator, but was then deceased, was entitled to One other Seventh Part of the same; and whereas it was by the said Decree referred to John Ord, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether any and which of the Persons whose Rights were thereinbefore declared, had disposed of their Rights; and in whom the same were then vested, and in consequence whereof who may be interested in the said Inquiry are, on or before the 4th Day of May 1808, to lay their Claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and substantiate the same, or in Default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decree

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing Date the 17th Day of July 1798, made in a Cause Hollingworth against Moulte, it was, among other Things, referred to John Ord, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who were the nearest Relations of James Grantham, of Manchester, the Grandfather of John Moulte, late of Rochdale, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, Surgeon, deceased, (who died in the Month of February 1788,) the Testator named in the Pleadings of the said Cause, and of his the said John Moulte's late Grandmother, the second Wife of the said James Grantham, and whose maiden Name was Pearson; the nearest Relations of the said John Moulte's said Grandfather and Grandmother are therefore to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 4th Day of May 1808, and make out their Kindred, or in Default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.—It is believed that the said James Grantham was formerly a Merchant or Manufacturer at Manchester aforesaid, but had retired from Business, and died there in or about the Year 1769, and his Widow, — Grantham, (formerly Pearson) who survived her said Husband, died at Manchester aforesaid in or about the Year 1769.

Pursuant to a Decree and subsequent Orders of the High Court of Chancery, made in the Causes Hollingworth against Moulte, Paul against Moulte, and Goodman against Bancroft, and a Decree in a Cause Goodman against Moulte, the Creditors of John Moulte, late of Rochdale, in the County-Palatine of Lancaster, Surgeon, deceased, (who died in the Month of February 1788,) are, on or before the 4th Day of May 1808, to come in and prove their Debts before John Ord, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Mellish versus Mellish, the Creditors of Charles Mellish, late of Blyth, in the County of Nottingham, and of Manchester-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Esq; are forthwith to come in and prove their Debts before John Simeon, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing Date the 30th Day of November 1807, made in a Cause wherein Assistance Simons and others are Plaintiffs, and Joseph Anthony Simons and others are Defendants, the Creditors of the Reverend Robert Wells, late of the Parish of Pennaen, in the County of Glamorgan, South Wales, Clerk, deceased, (who died on or about the 28th Day of February 1804,) are forthwith to come in and prove their Debts, either by themselves or their Solicitors, before Robert Steele, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, made in a Cause Cooper against Fleetwood, the Creditors of John Kyffin and William Mitchell, late of the Old Change, London, Warehousemen and Copartners, (who were such on the 1st of October 1803, the Date of a certain Trust-Deed in the Pleadings of the said Cause mentioned, and were entitled to derive any Benefit under the same,) are forthwith to come in and prove their respective Debts, before Abel Moysey, Esq; Deputy-Remembrancer of the said Court, at the Exchequer-Office, in the Inner-Temple, London, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.
