THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AT a Period unexampled in the Annals of this Country, we, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common Council assembled, deem it our indispensable Duty to come forward and repeat our Declarations of unshaken Fidelity and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Contemplating with deep Concern the Misery and Distress which restless Ambition has brought upon almost all the States of the European Continent, we acknowledge with Gratitude the interposing Providence that has preserved this Nation from similar Calamities, and continued to us, under your Majesty's mild and equitable Sway, the Blessings of Freedom and national Independence.

May the same over-ruling Power continue to inspire your Majesty's Councils with Wisdom and Vigour commensurate to the arduous Contest in which we are engaged; may Zeal and Unanimity influence the Hearts of all your Subjects in Support of your Majesty's just and equitable Government; and may your Majesty be enabled by the Divine Blessing upon your Arms, by Sea and Land, effectually to resist the powerful and extended Confederacy directed against your Majesty's Dominions; and ultimately to accomplish your Majesty's earnest Desire, to obtain for your People an honourable, secure, and permanent Peace.

Given under our Common Seal of the said City, this 5th Day of April, in the Forty-eighth Year of your Majesty's Reign.
