

And while every Heart is kindled with the holy Ardour which glows in the Bosoms of the Spanish Patriots, the oppressed in every Part of the Globe turn their Eyes with anxious, but not doubtful, Expectation to your Majesty's powerful Co-operation in this sacred Cause. The prompt and disinterested Sentiments which your Majesty has expressed, the Exertions which have already been made, and the large and active Preparations which are now on foot to support a Cause the most momentous to social Man which has occurred since the Days of William Tell, are the Pride and Triumph of the Subjects of the magnanimous Sovereign of one of the most free and happy People at this Day on Earth; and will encircle your Majesty's Memory with Glory to the remotest Times, so long as one Spark of manly rational Freedom shall remain unextinguished in the human Breast.

And while we humbly offer up our hearty Prayers to Almighty God that, after so many Years of his just Chastisement, he would be pleased to unnerve the Arm of the Oppressor, to bless the Cause of that Being whom he has stamped with his own immortal Image, and to give Repose to the wearied Nations, permit us, Sir, to express our deep Sense of the paternal Solitude with which your Majesty, through a long Reign in new and disastrous Times, has preserved to us unimpaired a Constitution, so uniform and equal in its Blessings, that, like the Sun in its Course, it neglects not to shine upon the poor Man's Glebe, and to warm and cherish the lowly Cottager. Permit us to express our Gratitude for those wise Councils, which, amidst the Wreck of surrounding Empires, have, under the Divine Protection, preserved this Country undisturbed and undismayed. May it please the Disposer of all Things to prolong your Majesty's Reign, and to continue to this Empire the Example of your Virtues, and the Guidance of your Wisdom.
