AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 10th of August 1808,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament which stands prorogued to Saturday the Twentieth Day of this instant August, be further prorogued to Tuesday the First Day of November next.

St. James's, August 10, 1808.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of the warmest Admiration for the Measures so vigorously adopted by your Majesty towards assisting the glorious Cause in which the Spanish and Portuguese Nations are engaged, to defeat the foulest Perfidy and the most violent Usurpation that ever stained the Page of History.

At this awful Period, when the Injustice, the Inults, the unexampled Aggression, and the inordinate Ambition of the common Enemy of Europe, have roused the indignant Feelings of a brave and generous People, and compelled them to appeal to Arms in Vindication of their Honour, their Rights, their Liberties, and their Properties, we should deem ourselves unworthy of the Blessings we enjoy under our matchless Constitution, if our Bosoms did not also glow with the same patriotic Ardour, and if we did not thus publicly declare our fixed Determination to concur in every Measure which your Majesty, in your Wisdom, may be graciously pleased to adopt for the Relief of those injured, oppressed, and insulted Nations; and may your Conduct excite other States and Kingdoms to follow their great Example, and finally rescue Europe from the Domination of an unprincipled Usurper.

Permit your faithful Citizens of Dublin to renew to your Majesty their Assurances of unalterable Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government, and their sincere Wishes that you may long continue the beloved Sovereign of a free and loyal People, and the glorious Assertor of the Liberties of Europe.

In Testimony whereof the Common Seal of said City is hereunto affixed, the 22d Day of July, in the Forty-eighth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, beg to approach your Throne with every Sentiment of Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We cannot behold with Indifference either the noble Struggle of the Patriots of Spain and Portugal to secure every Thing that is dear to them, or the generous Aid given to their Endeavours by your Majesty.

We entertain at all Times the sincerest Wishes for the fullest Success of all your Majesty's Undertakings. In the present Contest between Spain and Portugal and the Invader of their Territories, we have a peculiar Interest, arising from the very intimate Connection which existed for so many Years between the Subjects of those Kingdoms and this City, and which has, unfortunately, been interrupted by the Influence of that Power which has proved itself to be the Destroyer of the Peace and Happiness of the World.

We beg, Sir, you will be pleased to accept our
