Bristol, 1st May 1809.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership of John Tuckett and Anthony Fletcher, of the City of Bristol, Sugar-Refiners, Grocers, and Tea-Dealers, lately carried on under the Firm of Tucketts and Fletcher, expired and was determined by Effluxion of Time, on the 30th Day of April last.

*John Tuckett.
Anthony Fletcher.*

WHEREAS by Indenture, bearing Date on or about the 7th Day of November 1692, the Right Honourable Marrogh Lord Blessington did demise unto James White, then of the City of Limerick, Merchant, the large Street Houfe on the West Side of High-Street, in the Middle Ward in St. Mary's Parish, in Limerick aforesaid, containing in Breadth to the said Street 24 Feet, and in Length backwards to the Langable 128 Feet, (be the same more or less,) and formerly in the Possession of Richard Lillis and his Assigns, for the Lives of Peter Lewis, John White, and James White, with Covenant for perpetual Renewal, subject to the Yearly Rent of 16l. Sterling, with Twelve Pence per Pound Receiver's Fees, and to One Year's Rent as a Fine for the Renewal of every Life to be added to the said Demise; and whereas all the Estate and Interest of the said Marrogh Lord Viscount Blessington in and to the said Premises hath since become duly vested in me, the Reverend Edward Henry Hoare, Clerk, of Knustonhall Higham Ferrars, Northamptonshire, in Great Britain, and there are now several Fines for Renewal, Septennial Fines, and Interest due to me out of the said demised Premises; now I do hereby require you, the Representatives of the said James White, and all other Persons whom it may concern, within a reasonable Time after this Notice, to pay unto me, or to Daniel Gabbett, of the City of Limerick, Esq; in Ireland, the Agent and Receiver of my Rents, all such Fines for Renewal, Septennial Fines, and Interest as are due and owing unto me out of the said demised Premises, otherwise I shall consider the Covenant for Renewal in the said Lease as forfeited, and shall proceed as may be advised to recover the actual Possession of said Premises.

Given under my Hand this 7th Day of April 1809.

EDWARD HENRY HOARE.

To the Representatives of the said James White, and all other Persons concerned.

WHEREAS by Indenture, bearing Date on or about the 7th Day of August 1700, the Right Honourable Marrogh Lord Viscount Blessington did demise unto Henry Eames, then of the City of Limerick, Felt-Maker, in trust for Thomas Beevin, then of Camas, in the County of Limerick, Gentleman, the situated Houfe or Pair of Walls fronting with High-Street, and running Westwards to the Lane between the said situated Houfe and the City Wall of Limerick aforesaid, situate on the West Side of High-Street, in the Parish of St. Mary, in the Middle Ward of Limerick, for the Lives of the said Thomas Beevin, Elizabeth his Wife, and Michael Beevin his Son, with Covenant for perpetual Renewal, subject to the Yearly Rent of 9l. Sterling, with Twelve Pence per Pound Receiver's Fees, and to the Payment of One Year's Rent as a Fine for the Renewal of each and every Life to be added to the said Demise; and whereas all the Estate and Interest of the said Marrogh Lord Viscount Blessington in and to the said Premises hath since become duly vested in me, the Reverend Edward Henry Hoare, Clerk, of Knustonhall Higham Ferrars, Northamptonshire, in Great Britain, and there are now several Fines for Renewal, Septennial Fines, and Interest due to me out of the said demised Premises; now I do hereby require you, the Representatives of the said Henry Eames or Thomas Beevin, and all other Persons whom it may concern, within a reasonable Time after this Notice, to pay unto me, or to Daniel Gabbett, of the City of Limerick, Esq; in Ireland, the Agent and Receiver of my Rents, all such Fines for Renewal, Septennial Fines, and Interest as are due and owing unto me out of the said demised Premises, otherwise I shall consider the Covenant for Renewal in the said Lease as forfeited, and shall proceed as may be advised to recover the actual Possession of said Premises.

Given under my Hand this 7th Day of April 1809.

EDWARD HENRY HOARE.

To the Representatives of the said Henry Eames and Thomas Beevin, and all other Persons concerned.

DEM ERARY.

M. SMIT, in the Capacity of First Marshal for the Honourable Court of Justice in the Colony of Demerary, advertises by these Presents, for the first, second, and third Time, that by Power of two Sentences decreed by the above-mentioned Court, on the 2d of May and 19th of October 1808, and the thereupon followed Execution he will expose at public Marshal's Sale, in the Month of July 1809, the Sugar Plantation called Rynestein, situated on the West Side of this River, with all its Buildings, Cultivation, Slaves, and further Appurtenances, belonging to Brumell and Addison, in Behalf of Culpeper and Troughton, and C. Vincent, Attorney of Mr. P. T. Boddaert, for the Houfe of Trade carried on by the Firm of P. T. Boddaert and Co. at Middelburgh.

The Inventory of the above-mentioned Plantation is daily to be seen at the Counting Houfe of Mr. John Nodin, Beer-Lane, Thames-Street, London.

And be it known, that Three Months after the Day of Sale at the Ordinary Session of the above-mentioned Court of Justice, the Judicium of Preference and Concurrence shall be held, and in consequence of which, I the First Marshal do hereby summon all those who may pretend to have a Claim against the Amount of the Produce of Sales, or otherwise, of said Plantation, to appear, or appoint Attornies, at the Time and Place before-mentioned against the first Day to go to Law, which will be kept by the before-mentioned Court in the Month of September 1809, to sustain their Rights, as Proceedings shall be instituted against the Non-appears according to Law.—Rio Demerary, the 27th January 1809.

MART. SMIT, First Marshal.

RIO ESSEQUEBO.

BY virtue of Two Sentences, given by the Honourable Court of Justice of this Colony, respectively dated on the 8th March and 3d August 1808, in the Matter of James Lyon and Co. versus the Owners or Administrators of Plantation Cornelia, and Edward Aultin for and in Behalf of himself and John Aultin, as jointly and severally substituted Attornies of William Aultin, as Attorney for Thomas and John Daniel, Merchants, trading under the Firm of Thomas Daniel and Sons in Bristol, and Thomas Daniel and Co. in London, versus the Executors to the Estate of Bartholomew Day, deceased, or the Representatives or Administrators of the Plantation Cornelia, and in pursuance of the Executions levied in consequence of said Sentences;

I, the undersigned, First Exploiteur of this Colony, do hereby notify, that a Year and Six Weeks after the Date of these presents, on such Day as the Court aforesaid shall appoint at the Time, and which will be duly advertised, will be exposed for public Sale by Execution, The Estate or Plantation called Cornelia, and Wine belonging unto the Estate of Bartholomew Day, deceased, situate on Leguan Island in this River, with all the Slaves, Buildings, Cultivation, and other Appurtenances, agreeable to the local Laws of this Colony.
