P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Order in Council of the Twenty-fourth Day of May instant, was pleased to order that the Orders of His Majesty in Council of the Seventh of January and Eleventh of November One thousand eight hundred and seven should be suspended, so far as was necessary for the Protection of Vessels of the United States of America, sailing for or from the Ports of Holland, for a limited Time, and under certain Circumstances; His Majesty, more distinctly to ascertain the Southern Boundary of the Countries to be taken as comprized under the Description of Holland in such Order, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order shall not be construed to extend or to comprehend the Island of Walcheren, which is in the Possession of France, or any Port or Place South of the said Island; but, nevertheless, no Vessel of the said United States, which shall have been destined to the Island of Walcheren, or to any Port or Place on the North Bank of the River Schelde, shall be liable to Capture under this Order, unless such Vessel shall have been informed of this Order on her Voyage, and warned by any of His Majesty's Ships or Privateers not to proceed to the said Island of Walcheren, or to any Port or Place in the River Schelde:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.
