

“ An Act for the Increase and Preservation of Timber in the New Forest in the County of Southampton,” it was required that One Thousand Acres, part of the Waste Lands of the said Forest, should be inclosed and kept in Severalty, for the Growth and Preservation of Timber for the Supply of His Majesty’s Royal Navy, forthwith after the passing of the said Act; and that in the Year following One Thousand Acres more, Part of the said Waste Lands, should be in like manner inclosed, and that Two Hundred Acres more, Part of the said Waste Lands, should yearly and every Year, for the Term or Space of Twenty Years, from and after the Time that the several Inclosures of the Two Thousand Acres above mentioned should be made and completed, be inclosed and kept in Severalty as aforesaid: And whereas it was also directed by the said Act, that when the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, or Lord High Treasurer of England, or Chancellor of the Exchequer for the Time being, should be satisfied, and should determine that the Woods and Trees which should be growing on the said Waste Lands, so to be inclosed as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, were become past Danger from the browsing of Deer or Cattle, or other Prejudice, and should think fit to lay the same open, and in common, and should cause the same so to be done, that then and so often there should and might be inclosed for the same Purposes, the like Quantity out of any Part of the Residue of the said Wastes, in lieu of so much as should be laid open as aforesaid: And whereas certain Inclosures were at different Times made in the said Forest by virtue of Commissions respectively issued to John Philipson, Esq; and John Pitt, Esq; and others, to the Extent in the Whole of Two Thousand Two Hundred and Seventy-four Acres or thereabouts: And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, “ An Act for the Increase and Preservation of Timber in Dean and New Forests,” it is enacted that the said Quantity of Two Thousand Two Hundred and Seventy-four Acres, inclosed by Virtue of the Commissions aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken, and were thereby declared to have been duly and legally made under the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth of William the Third; and it is thereby further enacted, that all such Parts of the said Two Thousand Two Hundred and Seventy-four Acres as shall have any Timber growing thereon fit to be preserved, or which shall be deemed fit for the Growth of Timber, and which shall not now be inclosed, may be inclosed for the Growth and Preservation of such Timber under the Provisions of the said Acts of the Ninth and Tenth William, and Forty-eighth George Third: And whereas it has been certified to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury by the Right Honourable Sylvester Lord Glenbervie, Surveyor-General of His Majesty’s Woods and Forests, that whatever Woods and Trees there are growing on One Thousand and Sixty-six Acres, or thereabouts, Part of the said Two Thousand Two Hundred and Seventy-four Acres, are become past Danger from the browsing of Deer or Cattle, or other Prejudice, to wit:

Etherise Inclosure, Part in Denny Walk, and Part in Whitley Ridge Walk, and containing One Hundred and Two Acres, or thereabouts.

Black Bush Inclosure, Part in Denny Walk, and Part in Whitley Ridge Walk, and containing Thirty-four Acres, or thereabouts.

Pignell Inclosure, in Whitley Ridge Walk, and containing Ninety-four Acres, or thereabouts.

Rhinefield Sandy Inclosure, in Rhinefield Walk, and containing Two Hundred and Twenty-five Acres, or thereabouts.

Aldridge Hill Inclosure, in the same Walk, and containing One Hundred and Thirty-one Acres, or thereabouts. And Wilverley Inclosure, in Wilverley Walk, and containing Four Hundred and Eighty Acres, or thereabouts.

And we, Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, being satisfied that whatever Woods and Trees there are growing upon the said Inclosures, consisting, together, of One Thousand and Sixty-six Acres or thereabouts, as aforesaid, are become past Danger from the browsing of the Deer or Cattle or other Prejudice, think fit to lay the same open and in common; and we do hereby declare and make known that the said Inclosures are laid open and in common accordingly, to the Intent that such Parts thereof as are not now inclosed, and shall be deemed fit for the Growth of Timber, may be inclosed, or that an equal Quantity of other Lands may be inclosed in lieu thereof, pursuant to the Directions and Provision of the said Acts of the Ninth and Tenth of William the Third and Forty-eighth of George the Third, and for the Purposes therein mentioned.
