

Said Bowen and Lucas, on or before the said 1st Day of July, that the same may be investigated, previous to making a Dividend of the Personal Estate of the Intestate.

BURTONS' BANKS.

THE Assignees appointed by and pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for the more effectually carrying into Execution the several Acts therein mentioned for the Relief of the Creditors of certain Banks, lately kept in the City of Dublin, called Burtons' Banks," do hereby give Notice, that the Period for exhibiting the Claims of the Creditors of said Banks, (except by Persons residing or being out of Ireland,) will expire upon the 20th Day of August next; and in order to facilitate the Receipt of Claims, the said Assignees do hereby further give Notice, that Ebenezer Dix, their Register, will attend on every Wednesday from the Hours of Twelve until Two o'Clock, at his House, in Dorset-Street, in the City of Dublin, for the Purpose of receiving the Claims of such Creditors as have not heretofore exhibited the same to said Assignees, of which all Persons concerned are required to take Notice.—Dated this 1st Day of May 1809.

EBENEZER DIX, Register to the said Assignees.

To Gentlemen of the Law, Proctors, and others.

IF the Gentlemen, who some Time in the Year 1806 or 1807, made particular Inquiry at Mr. Richard Orpwood's, in Worship-Street, Finchbury-Square, Watchmaker, for a Person of the Name of William Orpwood, and mentioned that he had some Communication to make to the Advantage of the said William Orpwood, will favour Mr. R. S. Taylor, of Gray's Inn, with his Name and Address, so that either by a personal Interview or Correspondence with such Gentleman the precise Information intended to be given may be ascertained, it will be esteemed a great Favour, and such Gentleman shall, if required, be handsomely rewarded for his Trouble.—It is supposed that the above Inquiry was made in consequence of the Death of a Person of the Name of Orpwood, who is supposed to have died in Ireland possessed of considerable Property; or any other Person who can give the Information desired will be handsomely rewarded on communicating the same to the above Mr. Taylor.—If this Advertisement should not be answered, it is intended to make a more particular Inquiry in England and Ireland.

WHEREAS Mr. James Hughes, of the City of Bristol, Attorney at Law, departed this Life in the Month of August 1808, leaving an unexecuted Testamentary Paper, which, by Agreement, hath been relinquished by the Parties, claiming under the same, and Letters of Administration of his Personal Estate and Effects, as dying Intestate, have been granted by the Prærogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury to Four of his First Cousins and next of Kin—Notice is hereby given, that such of the next of Kin of the said James Hughes, who have not yet executed the said Agreement, are required forthwith to apply to Mr. William Tanner, Bristol, Solicitor to the Administrators, in order that they may be admitted to a Participation of the said Deceased's Effects; and if any Person have in his or her Possession any last Will and Testament of the said Mr. Hughes, he or she is required to give immediate Notice thereof to the said Mr. Tanner.
