By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For further continuing from the Thirty-first Day of December next, until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain, in the United Kingdom.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Forty-ninth Year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to prohibit the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain in the United Kingdom, for a limited Time;" it was enacted, that in case We, at any Time after the First Day of October last, should in Our Royal Discretion judge it to be for the Benefit and Advantage of Our Kingdom, further to continue the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain from the Thirty-first Day of December next, until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, then, and in such Case, it should and might be lawful to and for Us, by Our Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, or by Our Order in Council, to be published from Time to Time in the London Gazette, and in the Dublin Gazette, to continue, throughout the United Kingdom, from the said Thirty-first Day of December until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, the Prohibition therein before mentioned, that is to say, That throughout the United Kingdom, during the Continuance of such Prohibition, no Worts or Wash for Distillation shall be made from Oats, Barley, or any other Corn or Grain, or from Malt, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the same: And whereas We do judge it for the Benefit and Advantage of Our Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be further continued; We are thereupon pleased by this Our Royal Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to order and direct that the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or

Grain in the United Kingdom, be further continued from the Thirty-first Day of December next, until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, and that during that Period, no Person shall cause any Worts or Wash for Distillation to be made from Oats, Barley, or any other Corn or Grain, or from Malt, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the same, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeiture in the said Act mentioned.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the First Day of November, One thousand eight hundred and nine, in the Fiftieth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 1st of November, 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Henry John Viscount Palmerston was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Richard Ryder to be One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, he was this Day, by His Majesty's Command, sworn One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.
