By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For further continuing from the Thirty-first Day of December next, until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain, in the United Kingdom.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Forty-ninth Year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to prohibit the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain in the United Kingdom, for a limited Time;" it was enacted, that in case We, at any Time after the First Day of October last, should in Our Royal Discretion judge it to be for the Benefit and Advantage of Our Kingdom, further to continue the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain from the Thirty-first Day of December next, until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, then, and in such Case, it should and might be lawful to and for Us, by Our Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, or by Our Order in Council, to be published from Time to Time in the London Gazette, and in the Dublin Gazette, to continue, throughout the United Kingdom, from the said Thirty first Day of December until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, the Prohibition therein before mentioned, that is to say, That throughout the United Kingdom, during the Continuance of such Prohibition, no Worts or Wash for Distillation shall be made from Oats, Barley, or any other Corn or Grain, or from Malt, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the same: And whereas We do judge it for the Benefit and Advantage of Our Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be further continued; We are thereupon pleased by this Our Royal Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to order and direct that the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain in the United Kingdom, be further continued from the Thirty-first Day of December next, until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, and that during that Period, no Person shall cause any Worts or Wash for Distillation to be made from Oats, Barley, or any other Corn or Grain, or from Malt, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the same, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeiture in the said Act mentioned.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the First Day of November, One thousand eight hundred and nine, in the Fiftieth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Addresses have been transmitted to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and have been presented by him to the King; His Majesty was pleased to receive them in the most gracious Manner.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

TO accept the loyal Congratulations of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Citizens of your ancient City of Chichester on a late joyful Event, so uncommon in the Annals of our History, and so interesting to our Feelings, when we reflect that the Blessing we commemorate has been bestowed on a Monarch ever studious to cultivate, and anxious to retain, the affectionate Attachment of his People.

Devoted as we are to the Constitution under which we live, from a serious Conviction of its unrivalled Excellence, and bearing equal Regard to the exalted Virtues of him who presides over it, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall never cease to pray for the Prosperity of the one, and the Health and Felicity of the other.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of our said City to be hereunto affixed this 4th Day of November, in the Fiftieth Year of your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereigns,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and others Inhabitants of the County of Glamorgan, with Hearts full of Affection and Duty to your Majesty, and Gratitude to Divine Providence, do humbly offer unto your Majesty our most Sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's entering the Fiftieth Year of your Reign.

We are deeply affected with the Sense of the many Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's just and benign Government, and are fully persuaded not only that our Rights and Liberties have been maintained but that the very Being of the British Name and Constitution has, in a great Measure, been preserved through Times of unparalleled Difficulty by the Influence of your Majesty's Examples and Virtues.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as we are grateful to Divine Providence for having vouchsafed thus long to grant to us the Benefit of your Majesty's Protection, so we do most earnestly pray the Almighty for the further Continuance of your Majesty's Life and Health, being perfectly convinced that your Majesty's gracious Views will ever be directed to the Welfare, Prosperity, and Happiness of your People.

Signed by Order of the Meeting of the County of Glamorgan, held at Tyle, the 31st Day of October 1809. Jereb. Homfray, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Jereb. Homfray, Esq; the High Sheriff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Clergy, Gentry, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Huddersfield, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our humble and dutiful Address of Congratulation on the Commencement of the Fiftieth Year of your mild and equitable Reign; in Testimony of our heartfelt Joy on the happy Occasion, and of our zealous Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government.

We would express our sincere Gratitude to God for having preserved to us so long your Majesty's most valuable Life; and to your Majesty for the Benefits which in our civil and religious Privileges we have enjoyed and do enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Sway.

We attribute to the Wisdom of your Majesty and your Councils, under God, our national Preservation from the Attacks and Machinations of our Enemies, as well as our present national Posterity, in which this Town and Neighbourhood so largely partake.

We recognise with Pleasure in your Majesty's Character Virtues of the most exalted Class, conspicuously exemplified in your Attention to the holy Worship of God, your Love of independent Justice; your disinterested Patriotism, and your universal Philanthropy and Benevolence; of all which your Majesty has not failed to give your Subjects the most convincing and satisfactory Proofs.

We are not insensible how violently the political Atmosphere of Europe has been agitated in our Times by the desolating Tempests of War; but our earnest Prayer to God is, that your Majesty may survive them all, and see the Calm of a secure Peace restored to your People and to the World.

May it please the Almighty long to preserve your Majesty's most valuable Life, and to render the future, like the past Part of your Reign, a Blessing to your Kingdom, and the Admiration of all Posterity.

[Transmitted by Sir Geo. Armitage, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, Justices of the Peace, Deputy Recorder, Town Clerk, Sheriffs, Burgesses and Commonalty, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Town and County of the Borough of Caermarthen, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Sentiments of devout Gratitude to Almighty God, and of the most affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person.

By the Protection of Divine Providence, your Majesty has been preserved to us through a Reign, arduous, eventful, and of a Duration nearly unexampled in our Annals. To your Majesty's Virtues, and eminent Attention to the Duties of Religion, both public and private, we ascribe it, under God, that this Nation has been maintained in the Enjoyment of its Rights, its Independence, and its Honour, amidst the Wreck of Empires, and the Desolation of a great Proportion of the civilized World.

That your Majesty's sacred and inestimable Life may long be spared, to a free, loyal, and affectionate People, is our earnest Prayer: and when you shall be called (late may it be) to the Reward of a Life devoted to the Welfare of your People, may your Successors prove emulous of your Virtues, and studious of your Example, that so our unrivalled Constitution may continue to exist, the Wonder, the Boast, and the Delight of a late Posterity.

Horton, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by Vice-Admiral Campbell, M. P. for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipswich, in Great Court assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of your ancient Town and Borough of Ipswich, ever anxious to shew our Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, feel an unfeigned Pleasure on this propitious Day, being the Celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of your Majesty's Reign, in approaching your Royal Person with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations, and rejoice in the Opportunity it affords us of renewing our Assurances of Loyalty to your Majesty, and of testifying our Veneration for the free and happy Constitution of the United Kingdom.

When we reflect upon the State of Europe, and the humiliating Situation to which almost every continental Power has been reduced, and consider the extreme Misery and Calamities the Subjects of those Powers have been forced to endure, we feel the more forcibly the Blessings the Subjects of these Realms have enjoyed, and are imperiously called upon to express our Adoration to that Divine Providence which has hitherto watched over, and preserved your Majesty's Life; and we humbly and most fervently pray that the same Providence will continue to preserve your Majesty from all Dangers, and prolong a Life so truly dear to all the Subjects of these Realms.

Given under our Common Seal the 25th October 1809.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty;

The humble and loyal Address of the High Constable and Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Walsgrave, near Scarborough, in the County of York.

Sheweth,

THAT your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of Walsgrave, in Public Meeting assembled, feel desirous to join in the general Expression of most sincere Congratulation on your Majesty's attaining the Fiftieth Year of a Reign uniformly marked by the Exercise of every Virtue which can adorn the Monarch and render his People truly happy.

Long, very long, may your Majesty's valuable Life be preserved in the Enjoyment of every Comfort, public and domestic; and may the envied Constitution of our Government maintained by the mild Rule of your Majesty, and the illustrious House of Brunswick, be continued to us, and to our Children's Children till the latest Period of Time.

Signed at Walsgrave, this 3d Day of November in the Fiftieth Year of your Majesty's most gracious Reign.

By order of the Meeting,

To His Majesty, the KING.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's very faithful Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of Paisley, feel it a Duty incumbent upon us, at this singular Æra of your Majesty's Reign, to transmit to your Majesty the most cordial Assurance of our sincere Regard for your Majesty's Person and Family, and undiminished Attachment to the Government over which your Majesty has so long and so honourably presided.

While we have endeavoured to commemorate in a suitable and becoming Manner, the happy Return of the Fiftieth Anniversary of your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, we have contemplated with supreme Satisfaction the Accounts of the Ardour and Felicity with which this fortuitous Event has been celebrated in every Corner of the Land. Such Demonstration affords the truest Criterion of the Worth and high Estimation of the Sovereign, and of the Loyalty and Patriotism of the Subjects; and as we fervently pray that your Majesty's valuable Life may be prolonged, we remain assured that your Majesty will, as in Times past, prove the Pattern of public and domestic Virtue, the Defender of our Religion, the Guardian of our envied Constitution, and the Monarch of a free, loyal, and happy People.

AT the Close of a Period of Forty-nine Years, during which, all the Virtues that can adorn a

Throne, or are valuable in the Character of Man, have been uniformly conspicuous in your Reign; sensible of the incontrovertible Truth of this Assertion from the Blessings we have so long enjoyed, we beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the highest Respect, our warmest Affection, our sincere Gratitude and Attachment.

We most earnestly implore the King of Kings, that in the full Enjoyment of the Comforts of the World, your Majesty may ever, as now, reign in the Hearts of a loyal, a free, and an united People.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and respectable Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Tain, convened the 25th October 1809.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Tain, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne upon this auspicious Day to congratulate your Majesty upon your entering into the Fiftieth Year of your Reign, and to express our just Sense of the many Blessings we do now and have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

It is, under the Divine Providence, owing to your Majesty's just and wise Administration, that while the other Kingdoms and States of Europe are overturned, and their Laws, Religion, and Liberties, trampled upon by the most despotic Tyrant that the Almighty ever permitted, as a Sovereign, upon the Earth; your Majesty not only stands up the acknowledged grand and gracious Protector of the Liberties of Mankind; but that we, and all your Majesty's Subjects of these happy Isles, enjoy, unimpaired, our Religion, our Laws, and Liberties.

Blessed, therefore, above all the other Nations of the Earth, under such a Sovereign, we not only in the most dutiful and loyal Manner congratulate your Majesty upon your entering into the Fiftieth Year of your Reign, but in the most earnest Manner we pray the Almighty God, the Author of all Mercies, and the greatest that infinite Goodness can bestow upon this Nation, may yet long preserve to us a Sovereign so deservedly dear to all his Subjects, to reign over a free and happy People; these are the earnest Wishes and Prayers of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and the Inhabitants of the Burgh of Tain, convened upon this auspicious Occasion.

Signed by Lieutenant-General Sir Charles Ross, Bart. Provost; in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Tain, this 25th Day of October 1809. Ch. Ross, Provost.

[Transmitted by Ch. Ross, Esq; Provost.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the County of Kinross.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Jusices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Kincardine, assembled at the Head Burgh of Stonehaven, the 25th Day of October 1809, beg Leave to approach your Majesty on this auspicious Day, with Sentiments of the most sincere and affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Grateful to Almighty God for having given us such a King, we rejoice in that Protection which Providence has afforded to your Majesty, during a long and arduous Reign, and that your valuable Life has been preserved as a Blessing to your People amidst the Vicissitudes of Time and the Conflicts of Nations. We congratulate your Majesty on having attained the Fiftieth Year of a Reign marked throughout by a steady Regard to the Principles of a free Constitution, by an anxious Care for the Welfare of your Subjects, and by an illustrious and instructive Example of Piety and Virtue. You have ruled these Kingdoms in Times of unprecedented Difficulty and Danger, with a mild and paternal Sway; and while many independent States have been overthrown, while many free and prosperous Governments have become extinct, while almost the whole Continent of Europe has been subjugated to the most odious Tyranny, you have been enabled, through the Blessing of the Most High, to maintain the Rights and Liberties of this Nation unimpaired, and to preserve it safe and happy. Britain, under your Majesty's benign Auspices, has increased in Greatness and in Strength, has improved its Arts, its Agriculture and its Commerce, to a Height unknown before, has acquired a splendid Degree of Naval and Military Glory, has extended its generous Affluence to other Nations struggling to be free, has been the Asylum of the oppressed, and is at this Moment the only Country in Europe, where true Liberty can be said to dwell.

That Almighty God may continue his Protection to your Majesty's sacred Person, that you may see the Blessings of an honourable and lasting Peace speedily restored to our Country, and that you may long continue to reign over a free and happy People, are the sincere and fervent Wishes of, most gracious Sovereign, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Kincardine.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, by our Præses George Harley Drummond, Esq; of Drumtochly.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Stafford, in the County of Stafford, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of your ancient Borough of Stafford, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the sincerest Professions of Attachment and Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government. After solemnly offering up our Thanks to Almighty God for the Protection afforded you through a long and arduous Reign, we are solicitous to express to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on your Entrance into the Fiftieth Year of your Government of this Kingdom. The first Dawn of that auspicious Æra was marked by Acts which taught us to expect much from your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare and the Interests of your People. The Event has shewn that our Hopes were not raised too high; for the Justice and Clemency that have uniformly distinguished your Reign have more than answered our most sanguine Expectations. We believe it to be owing, in a great Measure, (under Providence) to your Majesty's personal Virtues that we have escaped those Calamities which have overspread almost the whole Continent of Europe. Whilst other States have been made the Prey of foreign Foes, or torn to Pieces by domestic Broils, England alone has stood hitherto unmoved amidst the general Commotion; and only felt the remote and distant Consequences of War. Favoured as you have hitherto been by Divine Goodness, may you to the End of Life remain the chosen Object of its peculiar Care, and when it shall happen that your Majesty shall be gathered to your illustrious Ancestors, may your Posterity inherit the Crown, and by imitating your virtuous Example, reign, like your Majesty, seated in that best and proudest Throne of Monarchs the Hearts of a brave, grateful, and loyal People.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough of Stafford, this 7th Day of November 1809.

Francis Hugbes, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble, loyal, and dutiful Address of the Corporation and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Plympton Earle.

SIR,

AMONG the great Number of our Fellow-subjects eager to approach your Majesty with their sincere Congratulations on your having commenced the Fiftieth Year of an arduous Reign, we, the Corporation and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Plympton Earle, are most anxious to offer ours. To a Monarch long endeared to us by his firm Attachment to the British Constitution, and ever watchful over the Interests of his People, we know not what Tribute can be more acceptable than a grateful Acknowledgment of his paternal Care, with an Assurance of unshaken Loyalty, willing Obedience, and unfeigned Affection. Your Majesty has every Right to expect from us this Assurance, and in such Expectation you shall never be deceived. Some of us have grown old under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government; and having witnessed from its Commencement a Reign of unexampled Difficulty, and at a Period when no Deductions from former Experience could control a Series of Events as awful as they are new, and in the Vortex of which entire Kingdoms have been swept away; we almost wonder at our own Security, and that we still enjoy the Blessings of Freedom and Tranquillity amidst the Wreck of Nations. Till we reflect that the upright and vigorous Measures of a pious and patriot King, seconded by the best Energies of the British Character, have been directed by an unseen, but all-powerful Hand. May this resolute Power still mercifully vouchsafe to extend its guardian Arm over your Majesty, and the Realms you govern; may the Sceptre be long swayed by our venerable Monarch; may conscious Rectitude, and every earthly Comfort unite to lessen the Weight of those Duties inseparable from your exalted Station; and may you long, very long, continue to preside over a faithful People, ready at all Time to meet every Peril, in Support of the British Throne, and our invaluable Constitution. Thomas Edwards, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Paul Treby Treby, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Freeman of the ancient Borough and Corporation of Appleby, in our Town-Hall assembled, beg Permission to present our most respectful and warmest Congratulations on the Occasion of a national Jubilee indicative of your Majesty's being enthroned in the Hearts of every British Subject.

Affectionately and unfeignedly attached to your Majesty, by a profound Veneration for the Virtues which adorn your Character, and by a just Sense of the long experienced Blessings derived from your Majesty's paternal and beneficent Government, during a Reign of Anxiety and Importance unparalleled in the Annals of our own or of any other Nation; we feel unbounded Gratitude to the Almighty, for having so long preserved a Life endeared to us by every Sentiment that can bind a faithful People to their beloved Sovereign.

May a Reign upon which not only the Happiness of your Majesty's Subjects, but the Fate of Europe seems in great Measure to depend, be still of long Continuance; and may your Majesty's Descendants transmit, unimpaired, to the latest Posterity, the pre-eminent Privileges of our envied and valuable Constitution.

GOD save the KING.

Given unanimously by the Corporation of Appleby in their Town-Hall assembled, and under their Common Seal, the 25th Day of October in the Fiftieth Year of our Majesty's Reign.

SIR,

I BEG to report to you that at Four o'Clock this Evening a Luggger was seen from the Malthhead bearing S. E. and a Brig in Chace of her E. N. E.
(which proved to be His Majesty's Sloop Actzon.
His Majesty's Sloop Orestes was in the N. W. and joined in the Pursuit,) at Forty Minutes past Seven

His Majesty's Sloop under my Command, ran her alongside, when she proved to be the French Luger Privateer Le Lezard, of St. Malo, manned with Fifty-seven Men, and pierced for Fourteen Guns, but not any found on board; failed from the Isle de Bas Last night, and has not made any Capture. From the judicious Position kept by Lord Viscount Neville, of the Actæon, and Captain Davies, of the Orestes, her Escape would have been difficult.

I have to add, that the Plover, in Company with those Sloops, has recaptured the English Ship Weymouth, from Gibraltar, just about to enter the Port of Aber-wrach.

I have the Honour to be, &c.
