

guardian Arm over your Majesty, and the Realms you govern; may the Sceptre be long swayed by our venerable Monarch; may conscious Rectitude, and every earthly Comfort unite to lessen the Weight of those Duties inseparable from your exalted Station; and may you long, very long, continue to preside over a faithful People, ready at all Time to meet every Peril, in Support of the British Throne, and our invaluable Constitution. Thomas Edwards, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Paul Treby Treby, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Freeman of the ancient Borough and Corporation of Appleby, in our Town-Hall assembled, beg Permission to present our most respectful and warmest Congratulations on the Occasion of a national Jubilee indicative of your Majesty's being enthroned in the Hearts of every British Subject.

Affectionately and unfeignedly attached to your Majesty, by a profound Veneration for the Virtues which adorn your Character, and by a just Sense of the long experienced Blessings derived from your Majesty's paternal and beneficent Government, during a Reign of Anxiety and Importance unparalleled in the Annals of our own or of any other Nation; we feel unbounded Gratitude to the Almighty, for having so long preserved a Life endeared to us by every Sentiment that can bind a faithful People to their beloved Sovereign.

May a Reign upon which not only the Happiness of your Majesty's Subjects, but the Fate of Europe seems in great Measure to depend, be still of long Continuance; and may your Majesty's Descendants transmit, unimpaired, to the latest Posterity, the pre-eminent Privileges of our envied and valuable Constitution.

GOD save the KING.

Given unanimously by the Corporation of Appleby in their Town-Hall assembled, and under their Common Seal, the 25th Day of October in the Fiftieth Year of our Majesty's Reign.

Christopher Kilner, Mayor.
