By the KING.

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,
G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the Fifth Day of December next: We, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, That the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said Fifth Day of December next, to Tuesday the Twenty-third Day of January next: And We have given Order to Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, with the Advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That the said Parliament shall, on the said Twenty-third Day of January next, be held and sit for the Dispatch of divers urgent and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners of Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster, on the said Twenty-third Day of January next.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Twenty-second Day of November, One thousand eight hundred and nine, in the Fiftieth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 22d of November 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-fourth Day of May last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the Sixth Day of December next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Sixth Day of December next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:"—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 15th of November 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and eight, for the Payment of the Bounties for the Encouragement of Seamen and Landmen to enter into His Majesty's Royal Navy, and the Rewards for discovering Seamen who may conceal themselves, so that such Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service; and also the Rewards to Persons who should procure the voluntary Service of Able and Ordinary Seamen, and Landmen, fit for His Majesty's Naval Service, and should convey such Seamen and Landmen on board any of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels, or to any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed in raising Men, will expire on the Thirty-first Day of December next; which Bounties and Rewards are as follows, that is to say,—To every Able Seaman not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should enter himself to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, a Bounty of Five Pounds; and to every Ordinary Seaman so entering himself, and not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, a Bounty of Two Pounds Ten Shillings; to every Able-bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, so entering himself, a Bounty of Thirty Shillings; to every Person or Persons who shall discover any Able or Ordinary Seaman or Seamen who may have concealed him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen shall be taken for His Majesty's Service by any of His Majesty's Officers employed to raise Men, a Reward of Three Pounds for every such Able Seaman, and Fifty Shillings for every such Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships; to any Person or Persons who shall procure the voluntary Service of Able or Ordinary Seamen or Landmen fit for His Majesty's Service, and shall convey them on board any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or to any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed in raising Men, a Reward of Three Guineas for every such Able Seaman, Two Guineas for every such Ordinary Seaman, and One Guinea for every such Landman, together with an Allowance, at the Rate of One Penny per Mile, for each Able Seaman, Ordinary Seaman, and Landman, for every Mile such Men may respectively travel to the nearest of His Majesty's Ships of War, or nearest Place of Residence of any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed in raising Men; provided such Man shall be found fit for His Majesty's Service, and there shall not be Reason to suppose that he is an Apprentice: And whereas it is expedient that the said several Bounties, Rewards, and Travelling Allowance should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Payment of the said Bounties, Rewards, and Travelling Allowance be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty-first Day of December next to the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and ten, inclusive, and that the same be paid in the Manner specified in His Majesty's several Proclamations now in Force for the Encouragement of Seamen and Landmen to enter into His Majesty's Royal Navy, and for the discovering Seamen who may conceal themselves, and for giving Rewards for procuring the voluntary Service of Seamen and Landmen; whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Admiralty-Office, December 5, 1809.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, addressed to the Hon. W. W. Pole, and dated on board His Majesty's Ship Ville de Paris, off Saint Sebastian, the 30th of October 1809.

SIR,

MY Letter of the 4th August informed their Lordships of the Proposal I had made to Lieutenant-General Sir John Stuart, that the Islands of Zante, Cephalonia, &c should be seized before the French could turn their Regard from the Defence of Naples, to strengthen other Points, and in which Letter I inclosed to you a Copy of the Instructions I had sent to Rear-Admiral Martin, to be delivered to Captain Spranger of the Warrior, whom I had selected to command the Naval Part of the Expedition. The Change which at that Time had taken place in the State of the Armies in the North, required the Lieutenant-General's Consideration, whether an adequate Force might be spared from the Army, and delayed their Departure from Sicily, until the 23d September, when the Warrior sailed from Messina, with the Philomel Sloop, and Transports carrying about One Thousand six hundred Troops, under the Command of Brigadier-General Oswald. The Spartan at the same Time sailed from Malta, with Mr. Foresti and Count Cladan, a Cephalonian Gentleman, who had for some Time taken Refuge at Malta, and whose local Knowledge and Influence in the Country, I hoped would be advantageous to the Service. Orders were also sent to Captain Eyre of the Magnificent to join them with the Corfu Squadron.

I have now great Satisfaction in informing you, Sir, of the complete Success of this Expedition, and that the French Garrison in the Islands of Zante, Cephalonia, Ithaca, and Cerigo have, after a very faint Resistance, surrendered to His Majesty's Arms, the People liberated from the Oppression of the French, and the Government of the Sept' Insular Republic declared to be restored.

As no Preparation for so unexpected a Change could have been made by the Inhabitants, it has been found convenient by the Officers commanding, and by the principal People who are now to assume the Government, that the British Flag, with that of the Republic, shall be continued to fly until the several Departments are filled and Regularity is established.

The Influence of Mr. Foresti, and the Estimation in which his Character is held by the People, very much facilitated the Operations:—I have written to him to resume his Functions of British Resident with the Republic, until he shall receive the Instructions of His Majesty's Ministers.

I enclose, Sir, the Letters of Captains Spranger, Brenton, and Crawley, detailing the several Parts they took in the Reduction of the Islands, a Copy of the Proclamation, and Reports of the Garrisons and Stores, by which their Lordships will find with what good Judgment all the Measures were taken by the Commanders of the Sea and Land Forces, and the Zeal and Intelligence with which they were executed.

At Cerigo the greatest Resistance was made; but Captain Brenton's Skill and Resources are such as would surmount much greater Difficulties than they could present.

I am, &c.

(Signed) COLLINGWOOD.

His Majesty's Ship Warrior, Bay of Zante, October 3, 1809.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to acquaint you, for the Information of the Commander in Chief, that, in pursuance of His Lordship's Orders, I sailed from Messina on the 23d ultimo, in Company with the Sloop Philomel, two large Gun Boats, and the Transports, with Troops under the Command of Brigadier-General Oswald, and proceeded off Cephalonia, where we arrived on the 28th, and continued in Sight of the Island until the 1st of October, during which Days we were joined, as had been previously arranged, by the Spartan from Malta, and the Magnificent, Belle Poole, and Kingsfisher, from Corfu, and anchored that Night in the Bay of Zante, just without Reach of the nearest Battery.

At Day-light on the following Morning, the Troops assembled alongside the Warrior, and under Cover of the Spartan, Belle Poole, and Gun Boats, who soon silenced the Batteries, landed a Division of the Army in the most perfect Order, about Three Miles from the Town, and whilst General Oswald was advancing, Captains Brenton and Brisbane, and the Gun Boats, conducted by Mr. Cole, my First Lieutenant, were actively employed in keeping the Enemy, who had re-manned their Batteries, in Check, and covering the second Disembarkation, when the whole Army moved forward and closely invested the Castle, to which the French had retired from every Direction.

A Proclamation, herewith annexed, was in the Meantime distributed to the Inhabitants, explanatory of our Views, and finding, as was expected, that they rejoiced in the Expulsion of these common Disturbers of Mankind, I forbore attacking with the Ships a strong Battery on the Mole Head, which could not be taken without destroying a great Part of the Town; and have the Satisfaction of adding, that in the Course of the Day, the Enemy though advantageously situated in a most important and commanding Position, thought proper to capitulate on the Terms which I have the Honour to inclose.

I am, &c.

Rear Admiral Martin, &c. &c. &c.

PROCLAMATION to the Inhabitants of Cephalonia, Zante, and others of the Seven Islands.

IT having been represented to the Commander in Chief of His Britannic Majesty's Sea and Land Forces in the Mediterranean, that the Inhabitants of Cephalonia, Zante, and other of the Seven Islands, wearied and oppressed with the Violence and Exactions of the French Government, under which their Commerce has been annihilated, and their personal Freedom invaded, are desirous to shake off the Yoke; their Excellencies Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, K. B. and Lieutenant-General Sir John Stuart, Count of Maida, K. B., &c. commanding in Chief the respective Sea and Land Forces, have directed such Aid to be given as may enable them to expel their present Oppressors, and re-establish a free and independent Government, with the uncontrolled Exercise of their Religious, Civil, and Commercial Rights.

The Undersigned commanding the Division of His Majesty's Sea and Land Forces, charged with the Execution of this interesting and important Duty, call therefore on the Inhabitants of all Ranks to come forward, and share in the glorious Labour of expelling the common Enemy.

We present ourselves to you, Inhabitants of Cephalonia, not as Invaders, with Views of Conquest; but as Allies who hold forth to you the Advantages of British Protection, in the Freedom and Extension of your Commerce, and the general Prosperity of your Island: Contrast these obvious Advantages with the Privations you have laboured under, since you were passed over from the Yoke of Russia to that of France, and deprived at one Blow of your Independence as a Nation, and of your Rights of Freedom as Men.

We demand of you no Exertions but such as are necessary for your own Liberation, no other Aid than what reciprocal Advantage requires.

Hostility, whether shown in Acts of Opposition towards us, or in Aid to the Enemy, must of course be repressed; but no Retrospect will be made to the Errors of the past, no other Distinctions suffered than what results from present Opportunities of Zeal, Courage, and Patriotism.

Given under our Hands on board His Majesty's Ship Warrior, in Zante Roads, this 2d October 1809.

(Signed) By Brigadier-General OSWALD, commanding a Division of His Majesty's Forces, and

J. D. SPRANGER, Captain of the Warrior, and Senior Naval Officer.

ARTICLES of CAPITULATION agreed upon between Lieutenant-Colonel Lowe, on the Part of Brigadier General Oswald, commanding a Division of His Britannic Majesty's Forces, and of Captain Spranger, commanding a Squadron of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels employed in the Liberation of the Island of Zante, and the Lieutenant-Colonel Commanding the French Garrison in the Castle of the said Island. Zante, 2d October 1809.

Art. I. THE French Garrison will march out with the Honours of War, and be considered as Prisoners of War, to be exchanged whenever Circumstances will permit.

Art. II. The Officers will retain their Swords and private Property, the Men their Packs.

Art. III. All public Property appertaining in any way to the French Government, will be delivered up to the Officers charged to receive it; this includes all Plans and Official Papers of the Artillery and Engineer Department.

Art. IV. The Persons in Civil Employment of the French Government will be considered on the same Footing as the Military.

Art. V. The Sick left by the French Garrison will be taken care of, by a Medical Officer to be left by them for that Purpose.

VI. The upper Part of the Castle will be occupied forthwith by a Detachment of British Troops. The French Garrison will march out at 9 o'Clock, and, after having laid down their Arms, will be conducted ed to the Mole Fort, where they will remain until embarked.

(Signed) JOHN OSWALD, Brigadier-General, commanding a Detachment of His Majesty's Forces.

His Majesty's Ship Warrior, Cephalonia, October 5, 1809.

SIR,

NO Time was lost after the Surrender of Zante, in establishing a Provisional Government, re-embarking the Troops, and proceeding on the 4th Instant, with the Squadron, augmented by the Arrival of the Leonidas, to Cephalonia, the Port of which was entered, with the Men of War formed in two Columns, and the Transports in the Rear, and taken Possession of, without any Opposition on the Part of the Enemy, which indeed, from the formidable Force I had the Honour to command, was perfectly useless.

And having landed the Advance the same Evening, the General summoned the Fort of St. George, situated on a steep Hill, two Leagues from the Town, which immediately surrendered, on the same Terms as those granted to the Garrison at Zante, and both Islands were fortunately occupied by His Majesty's Forces without any Loss whatever, and the Sept' Infular Flag, together with the British, to the great Joy of the Inhabitants, displayed at each.

At Zante we took One small French Privateer, and Four others of a peculiarly fast sailing Construction were on the Stocks, and ready for launching.

At Cephalonia we only found two Russian Ships, and an English captured Brig, with a small Number of coasting Traders, in one of the finest Harbours in the World, and capable of containing in Safety the largest Fleets. I am, &c.

His Majesty's Ship Warrior, Zante Bay, October 16, 1809.

SIR,

I ARRIVED here Yesterday, having been detained by strong Southerly Winds, and should have failed for Cerigo, to assist in the Reduction of that Island this Morning, had I not received the accompanying Dispatch from Captain Brenton, which so happily periods the Orders I had in Command from his Lordship to execute, and restores these Islands to their Freedom, and the lawful Exercise of their Rights and Liberties, under the Protection, and by the Assistance of His Majesty's Arms.

Cerigo has long been a Nest of Privateers of the worst Description, whose Piracies have been directed against the Trade of all Nations, and, from its Situation, of singular Annoyance to ours. And I cannot conclude these Details without observing, that though the Resistance has every where been inconsiderable to what might have been expected from local and other Advantages the Enemy possessed, yet the Zeal, Activity, and perfect Harmony that has existed in both Services was equal to surmount whatever could have been opposed to us.

To the Experience and Ability of Brigadier-General Oswald I am much indebted, and am confident we both unite in one Sentiment in Regard to Mr. Forelli, His Majesty's Minister to the Sept' Insular Republic.

From this Gentleman the most disinterested and judicious Councils have been received, and the cordial Reception we every where met with, amongst a People so long acquainted with his Character, is the best Proof of the high Estimation he is held in.

Captain Brenton's well known Merit would make it presumptuous in me to enlarge on it, and only renders it necessary to say, that I have derived the utmost Advantage from his Judgment, and bear willing Testimony to his Gallantry and Activity. He speaks most favourably of Mr. Willis, First Lieutenant of the Spartan, and I have equal Reason to be pleased with the Conduct of Mr. Cole, the First Lieutenant of this Ship, who commanded the Gun Boats, and with the Behaviour of all Descriptions of Officers and Men under my Command.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) J. W. SPRANGER.

To George Martin, Esquire, Rear-Admiral of the White, &c. &c. &c.

Spartan, off the Island of Cerigo,
13th October 1809.

SIR,

IN my last from Zante I expressed a Hope that we might be able to reduce the Island of Cerigo without any farther Reinforcement. This Idea was strengthened by Papers and Plans found upon the late Governor of the Island, made Prisoner at Zante. Major Clarke and myself decided upon making our first Attack upon the Forts in the Harbour of Avlemmeno, in order to prevent the Escape of any Vessels which might be there. The Forts are those of St. Nicholas and St. Joaquin. The first is a Stone Building mounting Nine Guns; the latter an Embrasure Battery of Four Guns. At Four P. M. on the 9th Instant we ran into the Bay. The Forts opened upon us, but were both silenced in a few Minutes by the Ship and Schooner, whilst the Troops under Major Clarke landing made several Prisoners. The Enemy had One killed and One wounded upon this Occasion. Only One Man of the Thirty-fifth was wounded on our Side.

At Day-light on the 10th we weighed with the

NO. 16321.

Intention of immediately attacking the Castle of Caspal in the Bay of Cerigo, but variable Winds prevented our getting round. At Two P. M. the Troops and Marines were landed in a small Cove in the Bay of St. Nicholas, and marched forwards towards the Castle, one Watch of the Spartan following with Three small Field Pieces. I landed with the Troops that I might be enabled by Signal to command the Resources of the Ship without the Delay of sending Messages, foreseeing that we could not be brought to act against the Castle whilst the Wind continued Southerly. The Nature of the Country rendered our Approach to the Castle extremely difficult, particularly for the Guns, which did not arrive till Ten o'Clock on the 11th Instant at the Position the Troops occupied, a Height on a Level with the Castle, within Four Hundred Yards of it. A Fire commenced on both Sides with Guns and Musketry, which continued the greatest Part of the Day. In the Evening some Rockets were landed from the Ship, and in the Course of the Night some of them thrown at the Citadel. At Day-light I ordered Two Twelve Pounders to be landed from the Ship, but before they could be disembarked a Flag of Truce came out with an Offer of surrendering, provided the Garrison was allowed to return to Corfu. This we refused; and after some Deliberation it surrendered on the same Terms as those of Zante and Cephalonia. At Ten o'Clock our Troops took Possession of the Castle.

It is to the Zeal and Ability of Major Clarke, and the judicious Arrangements which he made of the Forces under his Command, that the speedy Reduction of this strong Post may be attributed. The Enemy were cut off from any Prospect of Escape or Relief, and were convinced that our Means of Offence were hourly increasing.

I cannot speak too highly of the Conduct of the Officers and Men of both Services, as well in respect to the cheerful Perseverance under Fatigue, as to their Gallantry when opposed to the Enemy.

I am happy to say our Loss has been much less than might have been expected. One Bombardier of the Royal Artillery killed, Two Privates of the 35th Regiment wounded.

I cannot in Justice to Lieutenant Willes, first of the Spartan, close this Letter without saying, that Fort St. Joaquin of Two Eighteen and Two Nine Pounders was completely silenced by the gallant Manner in which he attacked it in the Prize Schooner under his Orders, with a Party of the 35th Regiment on board. The Inhabitants of the Island received us with every Demonstration of Joy.

I have sent Lieutenant Willes in the Schooner with the Dispatches, and shall remain off this Place till I receive your further Directions.

I inclose for your Information the Articles of Capitulation, together with a List of Artillery, &c. found on the Island. I have, &c.

the Island of Cerigo, and Monsieur Martin Metrasa Lifco, Commanding the Castle of Cerigo.

Art. I. The Garrison will march out with the Honours of War, and deposit their Arms at the Gate, remaining Prisoners of War till an Opportunity offers of exchanging them. Officers are permitted to retain their Arms.

Art. II. All personal Property will be respected.

Art. III. All Property belonging to the French Government, whether in the Castle or in any other Part of the Island shall be delivered up to the English.

As soon as the foregoing Articles shall have been signed by the British and French Commanders, the Castle will be occupied by the British Troops.

His Majesty's Sloop Philomel, Outer Harbour

SIR, of Rhaca, 10th October 1809.

I BEG leave to inform you that His Majesty's Sloop Philomel anchored here on the 8th Instant, having been prevented from gaining the Port before by contrary Winds. On working into the Harbour, I observed that the Battery was so situated as to render any Attempt to destroy it by the Guns of the Sloop impracticable; the Detachment of Troops, together with the Marines belonging to the Philomel, were therefore immediately landed under the Command of Captain Church, accompanied by a Party of Seamen, which I conceived might be of Use, should the Enemy be foolish enough to make any Resistance.

The Gun Boat having been previously directed to keep the Enemy in Check, we immediately proceeded to a Height commanding the Battery, with an Intention of taking it by Storm, which was only prevented by their making an unconditional Surrender immediately they observed us, and in less than an Hour from the Time the Philomel anchored, we had the Satisfaction to find ourselves in full Possession of the Island.

A few Shots were exchanged between the Gun Boat and Battery, which consisted of Two Guns only, with a Garrison of between Seventy and Eighty Men; which was greatly reduced by the whole of the Albanians having deserted it.

The Cordiality and general good Conduct of the Troops and Seamen, was such as I am fully convinced would ever ensure Success in any of our Enterprizes; I have only to regret that they had not a greater Opportunity of evincing their Resolution and Zeal.

The Inhabitants are apparently much pleased with the Established provisional Government; a Copy of the Form of which you will herewith receive.

I should be much deficient in my Duty did I now neglect to state the Exertions made use of, and very essential Services rendered, by Mr. Foresti, His Britannic Majesty's Minister, which were such as to claim my greatest Gratitude, and I am happy in this Opportunity of making my Acknowledgments to him. I have, &c.

Copy of another Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, addressed to the Hon. W. W. Pole, and dated on board the Ville de Paris, off Minorca, 3d October 1809.

SIR,

CAPTAIN Hargood has transmitted to me Letters from Captains West and Clephane, giving an Account of a very spirited Attack made by the Boats of the Excellent, Acorn, and Bustard, covered by the Two Sloops, on a Convoy of the Enemy, which had anchored under a Fortrefs at Duin, to the Westward of Trieste, in which all the Enemy's Vessels, consisting of Six Gun Vessels, and Ten Trabaccolas, were captured. This Enterprize their Lordships will perceive, by the Letters herewith enclosed, was well devised, and gallantly executed.—The Manner in which Captain Clephane speaks of the Conduct and Skill of Lieutenant Harper, is only a Repetition of what he has ever been entitled to when he goes upon Service; every Account of him that has come to me describes him as an admirable Officer.

I also enclose the List of Killed and Wounded on the Occasion, with Reports of the Vessels captured, and Prisoners taken.

I am, &c.

(Signed) COLLINGWOOD.

His Majesty's Ship Excellent, at Anchor off Trieste 29th July 1809.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to inform you, an Enemy's Convoy was observed Yesterday Morning standing along the Northern Shore towards Trieste, and being of Opinion that by anchoring the Excellent as near that Shore as her Safety would admit, might enable me to cut off the Enemy from his destined Port, I immediately weighed and took up a Position accordingly.

This Movement had the desired Effect, obliging the Enemy to take Shelter in Duin, a Port four Leagues to the Northwest of Trieste.

In the Afternoon a Coaster was brought on board by the Excellent's Boat, which informed me the Enemy's Convoy was composed of Six Gun Boats and several Vessels laden with Grain.

Conceiving it very practicable to Capture or Destroy them in their present Situation, at 10 P. M. I detached His Majesty's Sloops Acorn and Bustard, which you did me the Honour to put under my Command, with all the Boats of the Excellent, under the Direction of Lieutenant John Harper, the First Lieutenant, to perform this Service. At Midnight a very heavy Cannonade was seen in that Direction, which in a short Hour ceased, when I had the Satisfaction of seeing a Rocket go up, which announced to me a favourable issue to the Enterprize.

At Noon this Day His Majesty's Sloops and Boats detached returned to this Anchorage, having with them the whole of the Enemy's Convoy which they captured the preceding Night.

Enclosed I have the Honour to transmit to you a Letter I have received from Captain Clephane of His Majesty's Sloop Acorn, and Senior Officer on the Command of this Expedition, together with a Return of killed and wounded in His Majesty's Sloops and Boats employed in this Service, as likewise of Enemy's Vessels captured and Prisoners made in the Execution of it.

The very masterly and complete Manner in which this Service has been performed by Captains Clephane and Markland of His Majesty's Sloop Acorn and Bustard, and Lieutenant John Harper in Command of the Boats of His Majesty's Ship Excellent, excites my highest Admiration; every Officer, Seaman and Marine, I am assured individually distinguish himself.

Of the Merits of Lieutenant John Harper, an Officer of fifteen Years standing, I cannot speak in Terms of sufficient Praise; his Conduct on this as on many former Occasions, was that of a most experienced and enterprising Officer.

I have, &c.

(Signed) JOHN WEST.

His Majesty's Ship Acorn, off Trieste,

SIR,

July 28, 1809.

IT is with the greatest Satisfaction I have to inform you, that the Service you did me the Honour to put under my Direction, has been completely executed by the boarding and bringing away, under a very heavy Fire, all the Gun Boats and Merchant Vessels which had taken Shelter under the Castle of Duin.

About Midnight, covered by the Fire of His Majesty's Sloops Acorn and Bustard, the Detachment of Boats, under the Orders of Lieutenant John Harper, First of the Excellent, pushed on Shore, and in about half an Hour had complete Possession of the Enemy's Vessels, at per enclosed Statement.

I take the Liberty to express my high Sense of the Conduct of Captain Markland of the Bustard, both by his leading into a Place so little known, and by the well directed Fire kept up by him.

It would be the highest Presumption in me to attempt, by any Praise of mine, to add to the Merits of Lieutenant Harper, which are so well known to you, yet I conceive it a most indispensable, and likewife a most pleasant Duty, to express my greated Admiration of the prompt, gallant, and determinest Manner he performed the above Service, with fo inferior a Force, and likewise of the judicious and Soldier like Conduct of Captain Cummings of the Royal Marines, who, by taking Post on Shore with a small Party of his Men, entirely prevented the Enemy annoying our People from the rugged Precipices surrounding the Port, while in the Act of launching the Vessels. Lieutenant Harper speaks highly of the great Attention and good Conduct of every Officer and Man under his Orders. Permit me to add how much pleased I am with the Conduct of the Officers and Ship's Company of the Acorn, it being the first Time I have had the Honour to carry them before an Enemy.

The Loss the Enemy sustained could not be ascertained, but it is conjectured they had from Twenty to Thirty killed and wounded, and Twelve made Prisoners.

Our Loss, though comparatively small, I much regret; a List of which I enclose.

I have, &c.

(Signed) R. CLEPHANE, Commander.

John West, Esquire, Captain of His Majesty's Ship Excellent.

A Return of Killed and Wounded, Officers, Seamen, and Royal Marines, on board His Majesty's Ships Acorn and Bustard, and in the Boats of His Majesty's Ship Excellent, in Action with the Enemy in Port Duin, on the Night of the 28th Day of July 1809.

Admiralty-Office, December 5, 1809.

V ICE-ADMIRAL LORD COLLINGWOOD has transmitted to this Office the following Reports of Captures made by Ships under his Lordship's Command, viz.

A Letter from Captain Ayscough of the Success, giving an Account of the Capture by the Boats of that Ship, on the 30th July, off Cerigo, of Two French Privateers, one mounting Nine Carriage Guns, and Four Swivels, with Seventy-eight Men, and the other, One Gun, and Twenty Men.

A Letter from Captain Pearce of the Halcyon Sloop, stating the Capture on the 30th of August, of the St. Anna French Privateer, of Two Guns and Forty-six Men, Twenty Days from Naples, without making any Prize.

And two Letters from Captain Rosenhagen of the Volage, giving Accounts of his having on the 6th and 20th of September, captured two Enemy's Privateers, the Annunciate and Jason, one of Two Guns and Forty Men, and the other of Six Guns and Sixty-nine Men.

THE following Addresses have been transmitted to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and have been presented by him to the King; His Majesty was pleased to receive them in the most gracious Manner.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Principal and the Professors of the University of Edinburgh, rejoice in the Opportunity which the Meeting of our Session affords us of approaching with profound Respect to the Throne, and of presenting at the Commencement of the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of your Majesty the dutiful Assurances of our Gratitude and Attachment.

With warm Satisfaction we have perceived the Piety and Virtue by which the personal Character of our Sovereign has been so eminently distinguished, and those Benefits that have resulted to his Subjects from the Purity of his Example and the Rectitude of his Administration.

Led by our official Duties to mark the auspicious Patronage which he has invariably vouchsafed to Literature and Science, we have recognised with the most lively Gratification his Benevolence and Wisdom, contributing by enlightened and efficient Means to promote the Improvement and Happiness of his Empire.

We have at the same Time received with deep Impressions of Respect and Gratitude those Instances of Royal Munificence and Favour with which it hath pleased your Majesty, on so many Occasions, to honour the Institution over which we preside.

We humbly, therefore, intreat your Majesty to be assured, that our Prayers for your Majesty enjoying a Reign still long to be protracted are sincere and fervent, and that we will continue to communicate by our Instructions to the Youth entrusted to our Charge those Principles of Loyalty and those Sentiments of Reverence and Affection for the Person of your Majesty which we ourselves have never ceased to cherish.

Signed by Appointment of the Senatus Academicus.

College of Edinburgh, Nov. 28, 1809.

[Transmitted by Dr. Baird, Principal of the University.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Carmarthen, beg to approach your Majesty with unfeigned Joy upon the Occasion of your Majesty's having entered upon the Fiftieth Year of your Reign, and to assure you that duly sensible and deeply impressed as we are by the manifold Blessings which under Providence we have experienced during your Majesty's arduous Reign, we feel ourselves bound to offer up our most hearty Acknowledgments to the all-wise and merciful Director of all Events, that in his Goodness he hath thought fit to vouchsafe to these Realms such Instances of his Goodness to them, and that whilst the Nations of the Continent have been visited by the most dreadful and unprecedented Calamities, the People of these Kingdoms have, under your Majesty's benignant Administration, been protected in the free Exercise of their Religion, and in their Liberties; that the Laws have been administered with Justice, and that notwithstanding the Difficulties which have occurred, and the Dangers which have threatened us, we are still a happy and prosperous People, with Resources adequate to the awful Struggle in which we are engaged. May those Objects which have long been the first in your Majesty's Consideration and the chief End of your Endeavours, be under Divine Providence speedily attained, and may you long be continued to reign over a free and loyal People.

[Transmitted by Lord Robert Seymour, Member of Parliament for Carmarthenshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most humble and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor and Corporation of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Evesham, eagerly embrace the Opportunity afforded us by your Entrance into the Fiftieth Year of your Reign, to approach your Throne.

We acknowledge, with heartfelt Gratitude the many Blessings we have received from your Majesty's paternal Care and Goodness; you, during an eventful and arduous Period of Time, have shewn that a warm Attachment to real Liberty is consistent with a firm Adherence to that Civil and Religious Establishment, which is the Glory of this Island, and the Admiration of the World.

May your Majesty long continue its beloved Protector; may the remaining Part of your Reign be happy to yourself and prosperous to your Subjects; and may your Majesty's illustrious Example convince all our future Sovereigns, that the uniform Practice of every domestic, moral, and religious Duty, can only secure to them the Loyalty and Admiration of a free and enlightened People.

Given under the Seal of the said Borough, at the Guild Hall there, the 25th Day of October, in the Year of our Lord 1809, John Hunter, Mayor.

PROCLAMATION

For pardoning Deserters from His Majesty's Land Forces.

War-Office, October 24, 1809.

WHEREAS it has been most humbly submitted to the King, whether, on the joyful Occasion of His Majesty's entering into the Fiftieth Year of His Reign, it might not be desirable to distinguish so memorable an Epoch by an Act of Grace to all Deserters; and His Majesty having graciously approved of His Free Pardon being extended to all such Deserters from His Land Forces as shall deliver themselves up within Two Months from the 25th Instant: These are publicly to declare His Majesty's benevolent Intention; and to direct that all Deserters, surrendering themselves to the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, or to any of the Superintending Field Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose Stations are mentioned in the Margin hereof; to the Commandant of the Army Depot in the Isle of Wight; Carlisle. or, where there is no Military Post, to a Leeds. Magistrate, shall be pardoned, and they Manchester. are hereby pardoned accordingly.

Nottingham. Such Deserters, if from the Regular Ipswich. Forces, being Able-bodied Men Shrewsbury. and fit for Service, shall be sent to the Birmingham. Regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to Bedford. such Regiments in the United Kingdom as His Majesty may be pleased to Gloucester. command; and, when so placed, shall Southampton. not be liable to be claimed by any other Wells. Corps to which they may formerly London. have belonged: and if from the Militia, shall be sent to the Regiments to which they respectively belonged.

And Whereas many of the said Deserters may have enlisted in other Corps, and are now serving therein, His Majesty is graciously pleased to extend to such Deserters the Benefit of this Pardon; and to direct that they shall continue to serve in the Corps wherein they now are, upon declaring themselves to their respective Commanding Officers, on or before the Period abovementioned: and they shall not be liable, at any future Time, to be claimed by the Regiments in which they formerly served.

The Magistrate, to whom any Deserter, as above, may surrender himself, is authorized and required to certify the Day on which such Deserter surrendered himself; which Certificate is to continue in Force until the Arrival of the Deserter at the nearest Military Post, provided he proceed at the Rate of Ten Miles a Day, unless prevented by Sickness, to be certified by some Medical Practitioner on the Back of the Magistrate's Certificate; or to be otherwise proved to the Satisfaction of the Officer commanding at such Military Post.

His Majesty has further been pleased to direct, that Deserters now actually in Confinement as such, shall have the Benefit of this His Royal Pardon.

By His Majesty's Command,

GRANVILLE LEVESON GOWER

Whitehall, December 5, 1809.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on Saturday the 4th of November last, about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, a Barn, belonging to the Right Honourable Lord Braybrooke, in the Parish of Binfield, in the County of Berks, was discovered to be on fire, and the said Barn, together with the Buildings adjacent, and a large Quantity of Corn and Hay, were wholly consumed thereby; and whereas there is strong Ground for suspecting that the Premises abovementioned were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the Persons concerned in the Felony abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set fire to the said Barn) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted,) to be paid by the Right Honourable Lord Braybrooke, on Conviction of One or more of the Offenders. And, as a still further Encouragement, an additional Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is also hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery (except as is before excepted) such additional Reward to be paid, on Conviction of One or more of the Offenders, by the Magistrates, on Application being made to Mr. John Roberts, Wokingham, Berkshire.

Commissary in Chief's Office, Great George-Street, Nov. 24, 1809.

IT is His Majesty's Command, that all Officers, without Exception, who are upon the Half-Pay of the Commissariat, do forthwith transmit to this Office, a Report, setting forth their Place of Residence, and Particulars of Service from the Period at which they entered this Department, together with their Age, and, if incapable of further Service, the Cause of such Incapacity.—The Report to be attested upon Oath.

N. B. The Names of such Officers as now appear upon the Half-Pay List of the Commissariat, and shall not be received at this Office, conformably to His Majesty's Commands above mentioned, on or before the 1st Day of January 1810, will be considered as having belonged to Persons not now in Existence, and be erased from the Half-Pay List accordingly.

J. W. Gordon, Commissary in Chief.
