

the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were entered outwards: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, nevertheless, that the following Articles, viz. Bar-Iron, White and Tarr'd Rope, Tallow or Mill-Grease, Tarpaulins for Waggon-Covers, Pitch, Tar, and Turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon Payment of the proper Duties, without Bond being entered into by the Merchant Exporter, to any of the British Plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's Settlements in South America; provided the Merchant Exporter shall first verify, upon Oath, that the Articles so exported are intended for the Use of a particular Plantation or Settlement, to be named in the Entry Outwards, and not for Sale; and that the said Plantation or Settlement has not before been furnished with any Supply of the said Articles during the same Season; and provided also that the Exportation of the said Articles shall, in no Case, exceed the Value of Fifty Pounds Sterling for any given Plantation or Settlement, whether by one or more Shipments within the same Season: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

THE following Addresses have been transmitted to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and have been presented by him to the King; His Majesty was pleased to receive them in the most gracious Manner.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

AT this auspicious Moment, when the united Voice of a whole People is raised in celebrating the Commencement of the Fiftieth Year of a beloved Sovereign's Reign, the President and Council, and the rest of the Academicians and the Associates of your Royal Academy, feel doubly bound to join the general Congratulations, and to offer their Effusions of Gratitude to your Majesty, not only as their King, but as their Founder.

Enjoying with the rest of their fellow Subjects those public and private Advantages, which during so long a Period have diffused Happiness over Three Kingdoms, they, as a Body, date their Existence from your Majesty's paternal Care, you Sire, have given them a Station and that Name which it will ever be their Duty and their Pride to render important by their own Exertions, and to transmit pure and unblemished to their Successors.

That the Supreme Disposer of all Good, may for a long Series of Years preserve in you, Sire, the Father of a loyal, happy, and grateful People, is the fervent Prayer of, your Majesty's most devoted Subjects and Servants, the President and Council, and the rest of the Academicians and Associates of your Royal Academy.

Benjamin West, President.

[Transmitted by John Yenn, Esq; Treasurer.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness, with Gratitude to Heaven for the Prolongation of your Majesty's invaluable Life, beg Leave to approach the Throne and present to your Majesty our Tribute of hearty Congratulations upon your attaining the Fiftieth Year of a Reign so eminently distinguished by a steady Adherence to the Principles of our glorious Constitution in Church and State; by a paternal Regard for the best Interests of your Subjects, and by setting before them, in the Exercise of the private Virtues, a bright Pattern of that Conduct, the individual Observance of which can alone insure the Happiness of a Nation.

It is, Sire, to the Benefits resulting from your Majesty's benign Government, whereby the Hearts of your People continue firmly united in a faithful Attachment to your royal Person and Family; that, by the Blessing of God, we owe our being still left in the envied Possession of our dearest Rights and Privileges, while the surrounding Nations of Europe have been destined to sink under the Yoke of a cruel and relentless Tyrant.

That your Majesty may long continue to wield the British Sceptre, and that to the Close of Life you may have to reflect that your Reign has been productive of the most solid Advantages to those Realms, is the most ardent Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Caithness.

Signed in General Meeting, in our Name, and in our Presence, at Thurst, this 6th Day of December 1809.

Jas. Sinclair.

[Transmitted by Sir John Sinclair, Bart]

Downing-Street, December 30, 1809.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, was Yesterday Morning received at Lord Liverpool's Office, addressed to his Lordship by Lieutenant-General Don, dated His Majesty's Ship Cæsar, off the Duerloo Passage, December 22, 1809.

His Majesty's Ship Cæsar, off the

My LORD, Duerloo Passage, Dec. 23, 1809.

ALTHOUGH I have regularly communicated to your Lordship the principal Circumstances which have occurred, relative to the Army under my Command, yet I have judged it advisable to postpone my detailed Report on the Evacuation of the Island of Wa'cheren until the Troops were withdrawn and the Fleet had sailed.

