Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 6, to Saturday February 10, 1810.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 7th of February 1810,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that the Islands of Feroe and Iceland, and also certain Settlements on the Coast of Greenland, Parts of the Dominions of Denmark, have, since the Commencement of the War between Great Britain and Denmark, been deprived of all Intercourse with Denmark, and that the Inhabitants of those Islands and Settlements are, in consequence of the Want of their accustomed Supplies, reduced to extreme Misery, being without many of the Necessaries and of most of the Conveniencies of Life: His Majesty, being moved by Compassion for the Sufferings of these defenceless People, has, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, thought fit to declare His Royal Will and Pleasure, and it is hereby declared and ordered, that the said Islands of Feroe and Iceland and the Settlements on the Coast of Greenland, and the Inhabitants thereof, and the Property therein, shall be exempted from the Attack and Hostility of His Majesty's Forces and Subjects, and that the Ships belonging to Inhabitants of such Islands and Settlements, and all Goods, being of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Islands and Settlements, on board the Ships belonging to such Inhabitants, engaged in a direct Trade between such Islands and Settlements respectively, and the Ports of London or Leith, shall not be liable to Seizure and Confiscation as Prize:

His Majesty is further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, that the People of all the said Islands and Settlements be considered, when resident in His Majesty's Dominions, as Stranger Friends, under the Safeguard of His Majesty's Royal Peace, and entitled to the Protection of the Laws of the Realm, and in no Case treated as Alien Enemies:

His Majesty is further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, that the Ships of the United Kingdom, navigated according to Law, be permitted to repair to the said Islands and Settlements, and to trade with the Inhabitants thereof:

And His Majesty is further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, that all His Majesty's Cruizers and all other his Subjects be inhibited from committing any Acts of Depredation or Violence against the Persons, Ships, and Goods of any of the Inhabitants of the said Islands and Settlements, and against any Property in the said Islands and Settlements respectively.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

W. Fawkener.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Bligh, of His Majesty's Ship Vulkant, addressed to Admiral Lord Gambier, and transmitted by him to John Wilson Croker, Esq;

His Majesty's Ship Vulkant, off Belleisle,

MY LORD, 3d February 1810.

I BEG Leave to acquaint you, that at Daylight this Morning I fell in with, and after Six Hours' Chace, captured the French Frigate Cannoniere (now called the Constance), from the Isle of France, in part disarmed, having Fourteen Guns and a Complement of a Hundred and Thirty-seven Men, and laden with a Cargo of Colonial Produce.

It appears she was lent to the Merchants of the Mauritius, for the Purpose of transporting this valuable Cargo to France.

I have, &c.

(Signed) JOHN BLIGH.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Palmer, of His Majesty's Sloop Pheasant, addressed to Admiral Young, and by him transmitted by the latter to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Sloop Pheasant, at Sea,
SIR; February 4, 1810.

I HAVE the Honour to acquaint you, that off Scilly, Yesterday at Eleven A. M. on clearing up of a thick Fog, a Lugger was seen bearing West about the Distance of Six or Seven Miles from this Sloop. There was then but a very light Air of Wind from the Northward, I therefore thought it useless to chace him, but made sail from him, keeping the Pheasant's Head Sails as much aback as possible, and the Lugger direct a Stern, to prevent his discovering us to be a Vessel of War; and I was happy to see that the Manœuvre took, as he immediately made all Sail after us, and with rowing, &c. was up to the Pheasant by Five P. M. when he hoisted French Colours and gave us a Shot; on which I tacked, and had the good Fortune in passing him to strike away his Topmast; the Lugger likewise gave the Pheasant his Guns in passing, and fired several Volleys of small Arms at her without Effect. I am happy to add, that after a Chace of Four Hours I succeeded in capturing her, whose Name is the Le Comte D. Hunebourg, belonging to St. Maloes, carrying Fourteen Guns, which were thrown overboard in the Chace, and her Crew consisted of Fifty-three Men; had been out Three Days from the Isle of Bas, had not made any Capture, is a new Vessel upwards of Eighty Tons, and on her Second Cruise.

I have, &c.

(Signed) JOHN PALMER.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Stuart, commanding His Majesty's Ship Clyde, to John Wilson Croker, Esq; dated at Sea, February 6, 1810.

SIR,

BE pleased to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Ship Clyde, under my Command, after a Chace of Five Hours, has captured the French Lugger Privateer La Tranfet, pierced for Fourteen Guns, and having Forty-five Men, last from Bourdeaux.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

JOHN STUART, Captain.

Treasury-Chambers, Whitehall, Jan. 31, 1810.

WHEREAS the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are authorized by an Act passed in the 47th Year of His present Majesty's Reign, Cap. 51, intituled "An Act to extend the Provisions of an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, for abolishing Fees received by certain Officers and other Persons employed in the Service of the Customs in the Port of London, and for regulating the Attendance of Officers and others so employed to the Out Ports, and to appropriate the Fees of certain abolished and vacant Offices in the Customs to the Superannuation Fund;" to extend the Provisions of an Act passed in the 46th Year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for abolishing Fees received by certain Officers and other Persons employed in the Service of the Customs in the Port of London, and for regulating the Attendance of Officers and others so employed," to any Port or Ports in Great Britain, and to the Officers, Clerks and other Persons so employed in the Service of the Customs therein.

Now we, being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, having taken the said Acts into our Consideration, and deeming it fit and expedient to exercise the Power so vested in us, do, in pursuance of that Part of the said first recited Act, by which we are required to give Notice in the London Gazette Three several Times, at least Fourteen Days before such Extension shall take place, hereby give Notice to all Persons concerned, that from and after the Fifth Day of April 1810 all the Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the 46th Year of his present Majesty's Reign shall be extended, as far as the same are applicable, to the Ports of Whitehaven and Dover.

LONDON DOCKS.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty," It is enacted, That it should be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees of any of the Goods, Wares or Merchandize, enumerated or described in the Table thereunto annexed, marked (B.), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the Port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint Locks of the Crown and the London Dock Company, in any Warehouse or Warehouses, erected or to be erected, situate within the Premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without Payment at the Time of the first Entry of such Goods, Wares and Merchandizes of the Duties of Customs or Excise due on the Importation thereof, subject nevertheless to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions therein contained: Provided that no such Goods, Wares or Merchandize should be so lodged or secured unless and until such Warehouses or other Works belonging or to belong to thereto, should be so far completed, that in the Judgement of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every respect for the Reception of such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the Regulations and Directions in the said Act contained, and the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, were thereby authorized and empowered, in Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, to certify and make known his or their Approbation of such Warehouses, which Certificate should be published Three Times at least in the London Gazette, and in Two or more public Morning Newspapers usually circulated in London: And whereas the Table marked (B.), above referred to, is in the Words following, viz.

TABLE B.

"A List of Articles which (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies,) may be secured in the Warehouses within the Premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without the Duties due on the Importation thereof being first paid."

"Rice, Tobacco, Wine,
"Brandy, Geneva and other Spirits"

And whereas certain Vaults for Wine and Spirits, and Warehouses for other Articles of Merchandize, and other Parts of the said Works, have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in Use: And whereas the Building hereinafter mentioned, Part of the said Works, has since been completed.

We, being Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify that in our Judgement that Part of the Building erected on the North West Angel of the Dock Premises marked A. is now so far completed as to be fit and ready in every respect for the Reception of Wine, Brandy, Geneva, and other Spirits.

Given under our Hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, the 31st Day of January 1810.
