Treasury-Chambers, Whitehall, Jan. 31, 1810.

WHEREAS the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are authorized by an Act passed in the 47th Year of His present Majesty's Reign, Cap. 51, intituled "An Act to extend the Provisions of an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, for abolishing Fees received by certain Officers and other Persons employed in the Service of the Customs in the Port of London, and for regulating the Attendance of Officers and others so employed to the Out Ports, and to appropriate the Fees of certain abolished and vacant Offices in the Customs to the Superannuation Fund," to extend the Provisions of an Act passed in the 46th Year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for abolishing Fees received by certain Officers and other Persons employed in the Service of the Customs in the Port of London, and for regulating the Attendance of Officers and others so employed," to any Port or Ports in Great Britain, and to the Officers, Clerks and other Persons so employed in the Service of the Customs therein.

Now we, being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, having taken the said Acts into our Consideration, and deeming it fit and expedient to exercise the Power so veiled in us, do, in pursuance of that Part of the said first recited Act, by which we are required to give Notice in the London Gazette Three several Times, at least Fourteen Days before such Extension shall take place, hereby give Notice to all Persons concerned, that from and after the Fifth Day of April 1810 all the Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the 46th Year of his present Majesty's Reign shall be extended, as far as the same are applicable, to the Ports of Whitehaven and Dover.

LONDON DOCKS.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty," It is enacted, That it should be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees of any of the Goods, Wares or Merchandize, enumerated or described in the Table thereunto annexed, marked (B.), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the Port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint Locks of the Crown and the London Dock Company, in any Warehouse or Warehouses, erected or to be erected, situate within the Premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without Payment at the Time of the first Entry of such Goods, Wares and Merchandizes of the Duties of Customs or Excise due on the Importation thereof, subject nevertheless to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions therein contained: Provided that no such Goods, Wares or Merchandize should be so lodged or secured unless and until such Warehouses or other Works belonging or to belong to thereto, should be so far completed, that in the Judgement of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every respect for the Reception of such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the Regulations and Directions in the said Act contained, and the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's
