

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday February 17, to Tuesday February 20, 1810.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 7th of February 1810,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that the Islands of Feroe and Iceland, and also certain Settlements on the Coast of Greenland, Parts of the Dominions of Denmark, have, since the Commencement of the War between Great Britain and Denmark, been deprived of all Intercourse with Denmark, and that the Inhabitants of those Islands and Settlements are, in consequence of the Want of their accustomed Supplies, reduced to extreme Misery, being without many of the Necessaries and of most of the Conveniencies of Life :

His Majesty, being moved by Compassion for the Sufferings of these defenceless People, has, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, thought fit to declare His Royal Will and Pleasure, and it is hereby declared and ordered, that the said Islands of Feroe and Iceland and the Settlements on the Coast of Greenland, and the Inhabitants thereof, and the Property therein, shall be exempted from the Attack and Hostility of His Majesty's Forces and Subjects, and that the Ships belonging to Inhabitants of such Islands and Settlements, and all Goods, being of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Islands and Settlements, on board the Ships belonging to such Inhabitants, engaged in a direct Trade between such Islands and Settlements respectively, and the Ports of London or Leith, shall not be liable to Seizure and Confiscation as Prize :

His Majesty is further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, that the People of all the said Islands and Settlements be considered, when resident in His Majesty's Dominions, as Stranger Friends, under the Safeguard of His Majesty's Royal Peace, and entitled to the Protection of the Laws of the Realm, and in no Case treated as Alien Enemies :

His Majesty is further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, that the Ships of the United Kingdom, navigated according to Law, be permitted to repair to the said Islands and Settlements, and to trade with the Inhabitants thereof :

And His Majesty is further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, that all His Majesty's Cruisers and all other his Subjects be inhibited from committing any Acts of Depredation or Violence against the Persons, Ships, and Goods of any of the Inhabitants of the said Islands and Settlements, and against any Property in the said Islands and Settlements respectively.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

W. Farwell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 7th of February 1810,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act made and passed in the Forty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for authorizing His Majesty in Council to allow, during the present War, and for Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods and Commodities in Neutral Ships, into and from His Majesty's Territories in the West Indies and Continent of South America;" it is enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of His and their Privy Council, to permit or to authorize the Governors of the said Islands and Territories, in such Manner and under such Restrictions as to His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council shall seem fit, to permit, when the Necessity of the Case shall appear to His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council to require it, from Time to Time, during the present War, and for Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, the Importation into, and Exportation from any Island in the West Indies, (in which Description the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands are included,) or any Lands or Territories on the Continent of South America, to His Majesty belonging, of any such Articles, Goods and Commodities as shall be mentioned in such Order of His Majesty in Council, in any Ships or Vessels belonging to the Subjects of any State in Amity with His Majesty, in such Manner as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice aforesaid, shall direct, whereupon certain Orders of Council were made on the Twelfth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nine, the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and nine, and the Tenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and ten, which Orders were made to continue in force for a limited Time: And whereas it appears at present to be necessary, to permit for a further limited Time, subject to be sooner terminated, varied or altered, as is herein-after provided, the Importation into and Exportation from the Islands and Territories of His Majesty in the West Indies, (including the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands,) and the Lands and Territories on the Continent of South America, to His Majesty belonging, of certain Articles, Goods and Commodities herein-after mentioned, in Ships or Vessels belonging to the Subjects of any State in Amity with His Majesty; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order and it is hereby ordered, that the said Three Orders of Council made on the Twelfth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nine, the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and nine, and the Tenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and ten, shall continue and be in force until the First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and ten, and that from and after the First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and ten, it shall be lawful for the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of any of His Majesty's Islands in the West Indies, (in which Description the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands are included,) and of any Lands or Territories on the Continent of South America, to His Majesty belonging, to permit until the First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and eleven, subject to be sooner terminated, varied or altered, as herein-after provided, in Ships or Vessels belonging to the Subjects of any State in Amity with His Majesty, the Importation into the said Islands, Lands and Territories respectively, of Staves and Lumber, Horses, Mules, Asses, Neat Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, and every other Species of Live Stock, and Live Provisions, and also of every Kind of Provisions whatsoever, (Beef, Pork and Butter excepted,) and also the Exportation from the said Islands, Lands and Territories respectively, into which Importation as aforesaid shall be made of Rum and Molasses, and of any other Goods and Commodities whatsoever, except Sugar, Indigo, Cotton Wool, Coffee and Cocoa; provided always, that such Articles so to be imported, except Staves and Lumber, shall be of the Growth or Produce of the Country to which the Ship or Vessel importing the same shall belong, and that Staves and Lumber shall be imported from the Country to which the Ship or Vessel importing the same shall belong; provided also, that such Ships or Vessels should duly enter into, report, and deliver their respective Cargoes, and re-load at such Ports only where regular Custom-Houses shall have been established.

But it is His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless; and His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy

Council, is further pleased to order, and has hereby ordered, that nothing herein-before contained, shall be construed to permit, after the said First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and ten, the Importation of Staves, Lumber, Horses, Mules, Asses, Neat Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Poultry, Live Stock, Live Provisions, or any Kind of Provisions whatsoever as aforesaid, into any of the said Islands, Lands or Territories in which there shall not be, at the Time when such Articles shall be brought for Importation, the following Duties on such Articles being of the Growth or Produce of the United States of America, namely:

Whitehall, February 20, 1810.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brals, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorized by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the King's Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any Ship or Boat, not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up, or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools, he shall, for every Offence, forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Effoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil, or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.

Admiralty Office, February 16, 1810.

IT being intended to distribute to the poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Charity established for their Relief, such Monies as may be due to them on account of their Pensions up to the 28th February instant; this is to give Notice, that any Widows who have not yet applied for the Pension, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible, by Letter, addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty: And that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, must send or bring to this Office, as soon as possible after the 17th Instant, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension List.

J. W. CROKER.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable House of Commons of the 16th Day of February 1810; Notice is hereby given, that Application is now making to Parliament, for an Act for paving, lighting, cleansing, and regulating the Streets, Lanes, and other Public Passages and Places within the Town or Borough of Pontefract, in the County of York, and for removing and preventing Nuisances, Annoyances and Obstructions therein, and for better supplying the said Town or Borough with Water; and also for altering and amending an Act passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for dividing the Park of Pontefract, in the County of York, and for other Purposes therein mentioned".—Dated this 19th Day of February 1810. Richard Hepworth, Solicitor.

Whitehall, February 6, 1810.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that on the 26th and 27th Days of January last, the following anonymous threatening Letters were received, through the Medium of the Chester Post-Office, by Roger Barnston, Esq; and William Magnus Henderson, Esq; of Chester, and Robert Jones, Printer, of the said City, according to the respective Affidavits annexed unto the said Letters:

Colonel Barnston

Let the Cause come on at our Castle then we shall do for we shall be in more order for you all but as for your witness they can do no good but let be aware of of themselves but your chief witness who at least as seen a good deal of what happened is one Norris, and a Jones a printer but as for him he has little time to consider of himself in this world for he may depend we are in right earnest with him for if we find him which we hope we shall we will dispatch him. if you do not obey our order we will put your life in a critical situation

Dated at Eaton Hall this 24th Jan 1810

Be Christ

Henderson Damn your Eyes we will settle you this night for we will cripple you as also Masin Taylor: and the next time we attack your witness Jones it will pay for all and that will not be long sooner than you expect so therefore be aware and drop the trial

Chetter 26 Jan

By the living eternal Christ I kill you if you appear against me as a witness recollect you can be in my power and woe to you when that day comes for I will leave you in a shocking state the next time will pay for all by Christ
