Published by Authority.

From Saturday February 24, to Tuesday February 27, 1810.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 7th of February 1810,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that the Islands of Feroe and Iceland, and also certain Settlements on the Coast of Greenland, Parts of the Dominions of Denmark, have, since the Commencement of the War between Great Britain and Denmark, been deprived of all Intercourse with Denmark, and that the Inhabitants of those Islands and Settlements are, in consequence of the Want of their accustomed Supplies, reduced to extreme Misery, being without many of the Necessaries and of most of the Conveniencies of Life:

His Majesty, being moved by Compassion for the Sufferings of these defenceless People, has, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, thought fit to declare His Royal Will and Pleasure, and it is hereby declared and ordered, that the said Islands of Feroe and Iceland and the Settlements on the Coast of Greenland, and the Inhabitants thereof, and the Property therein, shall be exempted from the Attack and Hostility of His Majesty's Forces and Subjects, and that the Ships belonging to Inhabitants of such Islands and Settlements, and all Goods, being of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Islands and Settlements, on board the Ships belonging to such Inhabitants, engaged in a direct Trade between such Islands and Settlements respectively, and the Ports of London or Leith, shall not be liable to Seizure and Confiscation as Prize:

His Majesty is further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, that the People of all the said Islands and Settlements be considered, when resident in His Majesty's Dominions, as Stranger Friends, under the Safeguard of His Majesty's Royal Peace, and entitled to the Protection of the Laws of the Realm, and in no Case treated as Alien Enemies:

His Majesty is further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, that the Ships of the United Kingdom, navigated according to Law, be permitted to repair to the said Islands and Settlements, and to trade with the Inhabitants thereof:

And His Majesty is further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, that all His Majesty's Cruisers and all other his Subjects be inhibited from committing any Acts of Depredation or Violence against the Persons, Ships, and Goods of any of the Inhabitants of the said Islands and Settlements, and against any Property in the said Islands and Settlements respectively.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them shall respectively pertain.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 7th of February 1810,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act made and passed in the Forty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled "An Act for authorizing His Majesty in Council to allow, during the present War, and for Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods and Commodities in Neutral Ships, into and from His Majesty's Territories in the West Indies and Continent of South America;" it is enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of His and their Privy Council, to permit or to authorize the Governors of the said Islands and Territories, in such Manner and under such Restrictions as to His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council shall seem fit, to permit, when the Necessity of the Case shall appear to His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council to require it, from Time to Time, during the present War, and for Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, the Importation into, and Exportation from any Island in the West Indies, (in which Description the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands are included,) or any Lands or Territories on the Continent of South America, to His
