NORTH WALES SPRING CIRCUIT,
1810.

Hugh Leicester, Esquire.

Sir Thomas Plumer.

Merionethshire, Tuesday, March 27, at Bala.

Carnarvonshire, Monday, April 2, at Carnarvon.

Anglesey, Saturday, April 7, at Beaumaris.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable House of Commons of the 16th Day of February 1810; Notice is hereby given, that Application is now making to Parliament, for an Act for paving, lighting, cleansing, and regulating the Streets, Lanes, and other Public Passages and Places within the Town or Borough of Pontefract, in the County of York, and for removing and preventing Nuisances, Annoyances and Obstructions therein, and for better supplying the said Town or Borough with Water; and also for altering and amending an Act passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for dividing the Park of Pontefract, in the County of York, and for other Purposes therein mentioned".—Dated this 19th Day of February 1810. Richard Hepworth, Solicitor.

Whitehall, February 27, 1810.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of Sunday the 21st of January last, a Hay-Rick, belonging to Mr. Richard Withers, of Handley, in the County of Dorset, Tenant to the Earl of Uxbridge, was set on Fire, and that there is great Reason to believe the same was occasioned by some malicious Person or Persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Hay-Rick), who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Earl of Uxbridge, FIFTY POUNDS by the County Fire-Office, in which the said Property was insured, and FIFTY POUNDS by the said Richard Withers, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, February 27, 1810.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that Seven Heifers, in Calf, the Property of the Honourable George Herbert, of St. Andrew's Hall,

Old Buckenham, have been wilfully and maliciously poisoned by some Person or Persons unknown, of which Poison Five have died, and the others are past much Hope of Recovery;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in such atrocious Act, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually administered the Poison to the said Heifers), who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders by the said George Herbert.

Whitehall, February 6, 1810.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that on the 26th and 27th Days of January last, the following anonymous threatening Letters were received, through the Medium of the Chester Post-Office, by Roger Barnston, Esq; and William Magnus Handerson, Esq; of Chester, and Robert Jones, Printer, of the said City, according to the respective Affidavits annexed unto the said Letters:—

Colonel Barnston

Let the Cause come on at our Castle then we shall do for we shall be in more order for you all but as for your witness they can do no good but let be aware of of themselves but your chief witness who at least as seen a good deal of what happened is one Norris, and a Jones a printer but as for him he has little time to consider of himself in this world for he may depend we are in right earnest with him for if we find him which we hope we shall we will dispatch him. if you do not obey our order we will put your life in a critical situation

Dated at Eaton Hall this 24th Jan 1810

Be Christ

Henderson Damn your Eyes we will settle you this night for we will cripple you as also Masin Taylor: and the next time we attack your witness Jones it will pay for all and that will not be long sooner than you expect so therefore be aware and drop the trial

Chester 26 Jan

By the living eternal Christ I kill you if you appear against me as a witness recollect you can be in my power and woe to you when that day comes for I will leave you in a shocking state the next time will pay for all by Christ

Eaton Hall 26, Jan 1810

In earnest by Christ

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending such Letters, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of them (except the Person who actually wrote or sent the same) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended or convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on Conviction of one
