

Whitehall, March 3, 1810.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Edward Dickens, of the City of Coventry, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 27, 1810.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of Sunday the 21st of January last, a Hay-Rick, belonging to Mr. Richard Withers, of Handley, in the County of Dorset, Tenant to the Earl of Uxbridge, was set on Fire, and that there is great Reason to believe the same was occasioned by some malicious Person or Persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Hay-Rick), who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Earl of Uxbridge, FIFTY POUNDS by the County Fire-Office, in which the said Property was insured, and FIFTY POUNDS by the said Richard Withers, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, February 27, 1810.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that Seven Heifers, in Calf, the Property of the Honourable George Herbert, of St. Andrew's Hall, Old Buckenham, have been wilfully and maliciously poisoned by some Person or Persons unknown, of which Poison Five have died, and the others are past much Hope of Recovery;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in such atrocious Act, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually administered the Poison to the said Heifers), who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders by the said George Herbert.
