

Officers and Seamen serving under their Orders, to Windward, the high Sense he entertains of the important Services rendered by them, not only at the Landing of the First Division of the Army under the Command of Major-General Hislop, and of the Reserve, with a considerable Proportion of Provisions and Stores, but for similar Exertions at Three Rivers, in disembarking Five Days Provisions for the Troops, without which they could not have advanced or closed with the Enemy, thereby bringing the Objects of the Campaign to a rapid Termination.

The General desires to acknowledge the Services of the Royal Marines now acting on Shore at Basse-terre.

The Commander of the Forces requests the Admiral will be pleased to do him the Honour to convey this public Order to Commodore Ballard and to Commodore Fahie, and to all the other Officers, Seamen and Royal Marines to whom it may refer, in such Manner as he shall think Proper.

(Signed) GEO. W. RAMSAY,
Brig. and Adjutant General.

Sir G. Beckwith, K. B. Commander of
