East-India-House, March 21, 1810.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, do hereby give Notice,

That at the Quarterly General Court of the said Company, appointed to be held on Wednesday the 28th Instant, the following unanimous Resolution of the Court of Directors of this Day will be reported to the General Court, agreeably to the Acts of the 39th and 43d of His present Majesty, Cap. 89 and 63, viz.

"That this Court have every Reason to believe, that all the Persons who were on board the Ship Lord Nelson, at the Time of her Loss, have perished, and that the Occasions and Circumstances relating to her Loss are wholly unknown, and therefore that there is an Impossibility of enquiring satisfactorily into the Loss of the said Ship; and that this Court are fully satisfied that the Ship was stored in a sufficient Manner at her Outfit for her Voyage, and that, consequently, no Blame can attach to the Owners; and that, from the Experience and Ability of the Commander and Officers, it is reasonably to be inferred, that no Blame attaches to them."

William Ramsay, Secretary.
