From Tuesday May 8, to Saturday May 12, 1810.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 2d of May 1810,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all Vessels which shall have cleared out from any Port, so far under the Controul of France or her Allies, as that British Vessels may not freely trade thereat, and which are employed in the Whale Fishery, or other Fishery of any Description, save as hereinafter excepted, and are returning, or destined to return, either to the Port from whence they cleared, or to any other Port or Place at which the British Flag may not freely trade, shall be captured and condemned, together with their Stores and Cargo, as Prize to the Captors.

But His Majesty is pleased to except from this Order, Vessels employed in catching and conveying Fish fresh to Market, such Vessels not being fitted or provided for the curing of Fish.

And it is further ordered, that all Vessels subject to the Provisions of this Order as aforesaid, which shall have failed on their present Voyage previous to Notice of this Order, or reasonable Time for Notice thereof, shall be permitted to return to their own Port without Molestation, on account of any Thing contained in this Order; provided they shall not have continued on their Fishery as aforesaid more than Twenty-one Days, (which are hereby allowed to such Vessels) after due warning of this Order received at Sea. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Farquhar.

Downing-Street, May 12, 1810.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, was received on the 10th Instant at Lord Liverpool's Office, addressed to his Lordship, by Lieutenant-General Graham, commanding His Majesty's Forces at Cadiz, dated Isola, 22d April 1810.

My LORD, Isola, April 22, 1810.

FROM the Information your Lordship already had of the miserable State of the Fort of Matagorda, (never to be considered free from the Danger of Assault) it will not be Matter of Surprize, that after holding it two Months it should now be abandoned.

I have the Honor to enclose Captain Maclaine's (of the 94th) Report to me. It would be an Injustice to the Service not to recommend him in the warmest Manner to your Lordship's Notice, as well as the Officers who continued with him to the last of this arduous Duty, Lieutenant Brereton, of the Royal Artillery, Ensigns Cannon and Scott, of the 94th, and Mr. Dobson, Midshipman of His Majesty's Ship Invincible. The Defence of Matagorda has been witnessed by every body with Admiration, and I should not have been justified in allowing it to be continued so long, but from the Expectation of the Possibility of some Diversion being made in its Favor, which, however, was found to be impracticable.

It is impossible that I should not endeavour to express to your Lordship the Feelings of universal and deep Regret excited by the untimely Fall of that distinguished Officer Major Lefebvre, of the Royal Engineers, whose Zeal carried him from the Admiral's Ship to be the Bearer of my Orders for the Evacuation of the Fort, that he might be satisfied that it was no longer tenable. The chief Direction of that important Department now devolves on Captain Birch. Your Lordship is well acquainted with my Opinion of his Merit and Talents, so well calculated to inspire Confidence under this Misfortune.

I have, &c.

THOMAS GRAHAM.

P. S. The original Garrison of the Fort of Matagorda consisted of Captain Maclaine and Ensigns Cannon and Scott, 94th Regiment; Twenty-five Royal Artillery; under Lieutenant Brereton;

Twenty-five Royal Marines; Twenty-five Seamen, under Mr Dobson; and Sixty-seven Non-commissioned Officers and Privates of the 94th Regiment.—Reinforcements were sent in the Evening of the 21st, and Reliefs of the whole were offered, but declined.

SIR, Cadiz, April 23, 1810.

I have the Honor to inform you, that at Two o'Clock on the Morning of the 21st, the Enemy opened upon the Seventy-four Gun Ship St. Paulo, and Gun-Boats stationed near Fort Matagorda, with hot Shot, and succeeded in forcing them to abandon their Position.

Immediately after this, they opened upon Fort Matagorda a very heavy Cannonade of Guns and Mortars, but as it would have been impossible to direct our Fire with a Certainty, I ordered Lieutenant Brereton, of the Royal Artillery, to delay our Fire until Day-break.

The Morning discovered Three Batteries opposed to us, in the Trocadero of Twenty-one Guns, and from the Flight of their Shells we judged they had Eight Mortars in other Three Batteries. From the Time they commenced firing at the Fort they kept up a most tremendous Cannonade of Shot and Shells with great Effect until Night, when the Enemy and the Fort both discontinued.

That Day's Fire made a very large Breach in the Escarp of the Rampart, on which was the principal Part of our Guns, and completely laying open our Magazine.

We were, from the Manner the Enemy placed his Batteries, and which they had contrived to do under mask of the Houses in the Village of Trocadero, (distant from the Fort about Nine Hundred Yards) only able to bring Seven Guns to bear on them; yet with these we contrived to silence, and, as I conceive, dismount the Guns of one of their Batteries, in which were Six Thirty-two Pounders.

The whole of the Night of the 21st, and Morning of the 22d, I employed in endeavouring to repair the Parapet of the South-East Face, composed of Sand-Bags, and which, from the very heavy Fire of Twenty-one Pieces of Cannon, (most of them Thirty-two Pounders) the Enemy had totally demolished, so that the Men at the Guns were perfectly exposed.

We continued to replace the Sand Bags and fill up the Breach, so as to put ourselves in a tolerable State of Defence, and at Daybreak in the Morning the Enemy opened with a Salvo from all his Batteries. We returned the Fire with the same Spirit and Success as Yesterday, but the Fort soon became a complete Ruin, and no where afforded any Shelter for the Reliefs. The Evacuation, however, only took place in consequence of your Order; we left the Fort at Ten A. M., Captain Stackpole, of the Royal Navy, having been sent by the Admiral to complete its Destruction.

I cannot sufficiently express to you the Gallantry and Coolness with which every individual Officer, Seaman, Marine, and Soldier conducted himself during the two Months we maintained this Post, particularly during the two last Days.

I beg, in a particular Manner, to mention the Services of that most excellent Officer Lieutenant Brereton, of the Royal Artillery, for his unremitting Attention to his Duty, and the masterly Stile in which he kept up his Fire on the Enemy; as likewise Ensigns Cannon and Scott, of the 94th Grenadiers: And I request, Sir, you will state to the Admiral, how highly sensible I am of the handsome Manner in which Lieutenants Chapman and M'Pherson, of the Royal Navy, and one or two others, whose Names I cannot now recollect, volunteered their Services during the heaviest of the Fire.

Mr. George Dobson, Midshipman of the Invincible, had charge of the Seamen under my Command during the whole Time, and I beg you, Sir, to recommend him to the Admiral, as a very excellent and brave Officer.

Herewith I send a List of Killed and Wounded; and among the former I am sorry to return Major Lefebure, of the Royal Engineers; he was killed close to me by a Cannon-Ball; the Loss of such an excellent Officer is deeply to be lamented.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) A. MACLAINE, Captain 94th Regiment, late Commander at Fort Matagorda.
To Lieutenant-General Graham,
Esq. &c. &c.

N. B. Hospital-Mate Bennet, attached to the 94th Regiment, and who was the Surgeon attending the Garrison, I beg to recommend to your Notice, as a most attentive and excellent professional Man; he wishes much to be appointed Assistant-Surgeon of the 94th Regiment. I have omitted to mention Lieutenant Wright, of the Royal Artillery, who succeeded to the Command of the Artillery in the Batteries on the Morning of the 22d, after Lieutenant Brereton was wounded.

A. MACLAINE, Captain 94th Reg.
