And Twelve Private Acts.

THE following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Francis Lord Napier, His Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Richard Ryder, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to the King, which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

THE gracious Letter, with which your Majesty has been pleased to honour the present General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, was received with the most lively Sentiments of Respect and Gratitude.

We regard with no common Satisfaction the Assurance which your Majesty has thought fit to give us, that you deem it good for the Propagation of Reformed Religion that the General Assembly of our National Church should hold their annual Meeting at the appointed Period; at the same Time we feel this high Expression of your Confidence, as a most powerful Incitement to us to conduct our Proceedings with that Gravity and Calmness which may best promote an Object of such great Importance. Considering the Representation of your Royal Person in our General Assemblies as the Symbol of that Union between Church and State which tends to give Vigour and Stability to both, we receive as a pleasing Testimony of your paternal Affection for the Church of Scotland, the Appointment of Lord Napier to be your Majesty's Commissioner, and are prepared, by the Experience of the Zeal and Fidelity which have heretofore marked his character in the Execution of his important Trust, and secured to him the Attention and Approbation of the Members of our Body, to receive with all Earnestness the important and holy Exhortations with which, on this Occasion, your Majesty has found it more especially necessary to charge him.

The renewed Assurance which he has most impressively conveyed to us of your Majesty's firm and unalterable Attachment to the Doctrines of the Christian Religion, and of your constant and tender Regard for the peculiar Privileges of the Church of Scotland, reminds us of the inestimable Blessings which we enjoy under the just and beneficent Administration of a King, who, through a long Reign, has been the nursing Father of the Church, and no less solicitous for the spiritual than the temporal Interest of his people. We are anxious to justify the Hope which your Majesty is pleased to entertain of this General Assembly, by continuing still to prefer to all Objects that can solicit our Attention, the Precepts which our holy Faith recommends, and to practice with unshaken Constancy the Conduct which it approves, the beneficial Influence of which we have long seen under the sincere and effectual Protection which your Majesty has afforded to us in the Propagation of them.

We are deeply convinced that the Adoption of wild and speculative Notions, entertained by misguided Men, and the manifest Errors which prevail among us in these Times, are justly ascribed to the Neglect of the salutary Principles and holy Laws of our Divine Religion; and, in Obedience to your paternal Call, and in Fulfilment of the Duties of our sacred Office, we solemnly pledge ourselves to your Majesty, that, through the Grace of the Lord Jesus, we will lend ourselves with all Assiduity and Vigilance to correct these Errors, and to expose the fallacious Prospects which are held out to captivate the Weak and seduce the Unwary.

It is our determined Resolution, that if the specious Theories of false Philosophy and the persevering Efforts of her Advocates, are offered to the Admiration of the People entrusted to our Charge, we will most affectionately teach them to avoid the Councils of Hypocrisy, and to follow rather the Example of those that do well. We shall not fail to guard them against the violent and intemperate Followers of pretended Patriotism, shewing them what Manner of Men they are, and setting before them the sober Demeanor and earnest Endeavours of the true Friends of the Gospel, striving by sound Principles and pure Morals to continue and increase that public Happiness which we have derived from our envied Constitution. By an Appeal to the History of past Ages and the Experience of the present Times, we shall labour to convince all Men of the Advantages which result from a due and proper Obedience to the Laws and Ordinances which Wisdom has established; happy if by the Sobriety of our Lives we shall be favoured, like the faithful Men who have gone before us, as the Instruments of Divine Providence in discouraging the Principles which tend only to the Subversion of all good Government and social Order.

From the great Experience of your Majesty's faithful Representative in these and other Matters, which concern the Interests of our Church, we confidently expect high Encouragement in the Discharge of the difficult Duties recommended to us by your Majesty. He has fully satisfied us of your Majesty's Determination to support us under every discouraging Embarrassment, and of your Royal Conviction that by timely Caution and the firm and prudent Conduct recommended to us by your Majesty, our public Ministations may be blessed of God to make the virtuous and upright more steadfast, and to reclaim those who may for a Time have wandered in Search of pernicious Novelties.

Firmly convinced of the indissoluble Connection which must ever subsist between the temporal Welfare of a People and the faithful Discharge of their more sacred Duties, we shall exert our most strenuous Endeavours to maintain and improve that happy Union by impressing a just Sense of the blessed Effects of it upon the Minds of all those that are committed to our Care; admonishing them, as they value the distinguishing Privileges of an excellent and admired Constitution, to cultivate and extend the Observance of those spiritual Obligations which alone can render these Blessings permanent or themselves happy.

The condescending and indulgent Communication of the pious and benevolent Sentiments by which your Majesty is animated at this momentous Crisis, has made a deep Impression on our Hearts; binding us by new Ties of Affection to your Majesty's Person, and calling forth a more ardent Zeal in behalf of your Government. While we feel that, from the general Aspect of the Times, our Duties as Pastors of the Church of Scotland are multiplied, and that our Responsibility is increased, we feel also that our Minds are invigorated by the firm Reliance which your Majesty is pleased to repose in our Wisdom and Fidelity.

We rejoice in the renewed Assurance, that the Good of the Church and the Welfare of your People are the Objects of your Majesty's constant and most anxious Care; and we have learned, from long Experience, that no Services are more acceptable to your Royal Mind than those which are conducive to these great Ends of your Government. Under this Impression, we shall labour with united Effort to promote by our Deliberations the particular Interests of the Church of Scotland, and the Prosperity and Happiness of that Portion of your Subjects who have been accustomed to receive from it, through us, the wholesome Precepts of the Gospel.

We receive your Majesty's Royal Donation for the Propagation of Christian Knowledge and the Principles of the Reformed Religion, in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, as a pleasing Expression of your Majesty's unremitting Attention to the best Interests of your People. It shall be our Care to secure, by a faithful Application of this Bounty, the valuable Objects for which it has been bestowed.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may protect your Majesty's Person, and prosper the Administration of your Government; that he may bless abundantly our Gracious Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Members of your illustrious House; and that, after a long and happy Reign over a loyal and affectionate People, you may at length be received to the Glory of the Heavenly Kingdom, are, through Jesus Christ, the united and fervent Prayers of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Edinburgh, 19th May, 1810.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in General Assembly, embrace the first Opportunity of approaching our Gracious Sovereign, to join in those heartfelt Congratulations which were lately so universally expressed by an attached and loyal People, on the Fiftieth Anniversary of your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms. Satisfied that a virtuous and religious King is one of the greatest Blessings which the Almighty can bestow upon a Nation, we regard your Majesty's lengthened Reign as a peculiar Mark of the Favour of Heaven, for which we are grateful to God, who has added this to the many distinguishing Advantages conferred upon us as a People. During nearly Half a Century, your Majesty's Subjects have had displayed to them from the Throne, an Example of every public and private Virtue; an Example which has excited their Respect and Veneration, and by its powerful Influence has been of incalculable Benefit in promoting their Happiness.

Your Majesty has been called to discharge the Duties of a highly important Station, in one of the most eventful Periods to be found in History; a Period during which ancient Institutions have been destroyed, Thrones levelled with the Ground, and all the Relations which had for Ages connected the great Commonwealth of Europe torn asunder. In the midst of this general Convulsion, Britain, under the auspicious Rule of a wise and just Monarch, has remained secure. Her unrivalled Constitution has been preserved—her Territory enlarged—her Commerce, under the Shelter of a triumphant Navy, spread to the most distant Regions—her Agriculture and Manufactures carried to an unexampled Degree of Perfection, whilst the peaceful Pursuits of Literature and Science have been fostered, the pure Administration of Justice secured, and the Temples of Religion, where our Fathers worshipped, untouched by the Hand of Sacrilege, have remained open to their Posterity, to offer up their Adorations to the Author of these varied Gifts. This envied Situation, Sir, in which Providence has been pleased to place our Country, cannot fail of being truly gratifying to a Sovereign who, as the Father of his People, rejoices in their Happiness; and this Gratification must be greatly increased by the Reflection, that your Majesty's conscientious and faithful Discharge of your high Duties has contributed so largely to preserve to your Subjects the Enjoyment of so many Blessings.

Among the various Circumstances which have marked an eventful Reign, there is not one more honourable to your Majesty's Feelings, or which reflects a brighter Lustre on the British Character, than the Assistance which has been so liberally afforded to suffering Nations, struggling to rescue themselves from the Grasp of lawless Ambition. The Exertions made by your Majesty for this Purpose, have proved to the World, that Britain is ready to expend her Blood, as well as Treasure, in succouring her Allies. Whilst the successful Valour of your Troops, opposed to such superior Numbers, has confirmed the Expectations of the most sanguine, inspired the timid with Confidence, and taught a vaunting Foe how hopeless would be the Attempt to combat Freemen on their native Soil. Whatever, under Divine Providence, may be the Fate of the other Nations of Europe, your Subjects will have the Consolation to think, that following your Majesty's illustrious Example, they acted the Part which became a great and generous Nation; and no Page in History will be read by Posterity with greater Exultation than that which records, that Britons were the only People who dared, in defiance of a powerful Usurper, to extend their Arm for the Protection of the Oppressed; whilst their Country remained the only Asylum where the unfortunate Exile found a Refuge from the Effects of his sanguinary Vengeance.

Amidst the general Benefits in which we participate with our Fellow-Subjects, we recollect, with the liveliest Emotions, the peculiar Marks of Royal Favour which this National Church has experienced during your Majesty's Reign; and knowing that the faithful Discharge of our sacred Duties is the Expression of Gratitude most acceptable to your Majesty, we renew the Pledge often given, to be zealous in our Endeavours to cherish and strengthen those Principles of Loyalty to the King, and Attachment to the Constitution, by which the People under our Care have long been animated; and to impress deeply upon their Minds those Sentiments of Religion and Virtue which are the true Source of private Happiness and national Greatness.

That Almighty God, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may prolong your Majesty's Life, and prosper your Administration; that he may bless the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all your Royal Family; and that, after a prosperous Reign upon Earth, you may obtain a Crown of Glory; is the earnest Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Halifax, to John Wilson Croker, Esq; dated at Bermuda, the 21st February 1810.

SIR,

I ENCLOSE, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant Peter Proctor, an old Officer of much Merit, commanding His Majesty's Schooner the Thistle, detailing the Account of an Action with the Dutch National Corvette De Havik, commanded by a Lieutenant of Marine. The Prize is a large East India built Ship, of very warlike Appearance, and the good Conduct and Bravery displayed by Lieutenant Proctor, his Officers and Men, in attacking a Ship of her Size and Force, and their Perseverance under many Difficulties, will, I trust, entitle them to their Lordships' Favour.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) JOHN BORLASE WARREN.

SIR, Thistle, at Sea, February 11, 1810.

YESTERDAY Morning we were in Sight of a Ship, which, upon being chased, manœuvred suspiciously, and excited our best Endeavours to come up with her. After a Chase to Windward of Seven Hours and a Half, the superior Sailing of His Majesty's Schooner under my Command brought us alongside; and the Moment I hailed, the Stranger hoisted Dutch Colours, commenced Action, and attempted to run us down; we were fully prepared to meet him, and avoiding his Bows, continued to engage so closely, and with such good Effect, that, in the Course of an Hour, the Enemy made Sail and endeavoured to escape before the Wind; we were thus brought into running Fight for Four Hours, when I had the Pleasure to find the Batavian Flag was hauled down, being hailed that they had struck.

On taking Possession of our Capture, we found she was the Dutch National Corvette de Havik, commanded by Mynler J. Sterling, Lieutenant of Marine, mounting Ten Guns, pierced for Eighteen, with Fifty-two Men, and having on board the Batavian Admiral Buyfkes, with his Suite, late Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief at Batavia, from that Island bound to New York, and partly loaded with Spices and Indigo.

One Man on board the Enemy was killed, the Admiral and Seven Men badly wounded. The Loss on the Part of the Thistle was Samuel Hobbs, a Private Marine, killed, myself and Six Men wounded.

At an early Part of the Action Three of our Carronades were dismounted, but the gallant Conduct of every one of my Crew readily replaced this Damage, bravely emulating each other in supporting the Superiority of the British Flag.

I am &c.

(Signed) P. PROCTOR, Lieut. and Com.

Whitehall, May 19, 1810

The King has been graciously pleased to give and grant unto Lieutenant-General Sir John Stuart, Count of Maida, Knight of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and Commander of His Majesty's Forces in the Mediterranean, His Royal Licence and Authority, that he and his Descendants may bear and use to his and their armorial Ensigns the honourable Augmentation of A BEND CHARGED WITH A SWORD, representing the Sword, richly ornamented with various Devices, in allusion to the brilliant and decisive Victory obtained over the French Troops on the Plains of Maida, on the 4th Day of July 1806, which was presented to the said Sir John Stuart by His Majesty Ferdinand the Fourth, King of the Two Sicilies, accompanied by an Expression of His gracious Desire that the same should be preserved with the Diploma of the Title of Count of Maida, and be transmitted to Posterity, as a Memorial of a Day so glorious to the British Troops, and to the General who had led them to Victory, as well as a Pledge of His said Sicilian Majesty's high Regard.

Provided the said honourable Augmentation be first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and that this His Majesty's Concession, and especial Mark of His Royal Favour, be registered in the College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 26, 1810.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Griffith, of Llanwith, in the County of Denbigh, Gent to be a Master-Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, May 1, 1810.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous Letter has been addressed and sent from Reading to the Marquis of Blandford, dated 1st May 1810, and signed, "by Order of injured Volunteers R. O. Sey;" wherein, among other Things, his Lordship's Life is threatened in the following Terms, viz.

Prepare for another World.—Your Time is short—Death altho' perhaps slow—is certain before this month is past in a way you little expect—certain indeed—You have lived long enough—Yes We will accomplish our purpose—make good use of the Time You have left that You be not damned in another World—never shall You be a Duke if the writer loses his Life in what we aim at—We are determined altho' perhaps You think light of this—make Your peace with that Being You have offended—make no Delay.

A Postscript is also added in the following Words, viz.

As a Proof of the Reality of our Intentions, first You shall see a Fire that You little think of—Depend upon this as a Truth—You never shall see another King's Birthday—Air Gun most likely will do the Business—Our reason for sending this is that You may repent, and not be punished in another World—We have more apparatus than one, two, or ten—if one don't answer, another shall—We have a Reward to accomplish our purpose.

The said Letter also contains the most gross, scandalous, and indecent Expressions, addressed to his Lordship.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing and sending the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wrote the same.) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Marquis of Blandford, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) so to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Contract for building Houses and Cottages on Hawlbowlne Island, in the Cove of Cork.

Navy-Office, May 10, 1810.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 13th of June next, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to contract for building and completing

A House for the Residence of the Naval Officer, and also for building and completing Two Houses for Clerks, and Six Cottages for Labourers, on Hawlbowlne Island, in the Cove of Cork.

A Form of the Tender may be had, and the Drawings of the Houses and Cottages may be seen at this Office, and also at the Office of Mr. Labey, the Clerk of the Works, at Hawlbowlne Island aforesaid.

No Tender will be received after One o'Clock on the Day of Treaty, nor any noticed, unless the Party, or an Agent for him, attends.

Every Tender must be accompanied by a Letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by Two responsible Persons engaging to become bound with the Person tendering, in the Sum of 1000l. for the due Performance of the Contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.
