THE following Address has been transmitted to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and has been presented by him to the King; His Majesty was pleased to receive it in the most gracious Manner.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, other Heritors and Justices of the Peace of the Shire of Inverness, in a General Meeting assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, other Heritors and Justices of the Peace of the Shire of Inverness, beg leave to approach the Throne, with unfeigned Loyalty and Attachment to Your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

We glory in the Benefits we receive from the invaluable Constitution under which we live, a Constitution that, amidst the Commotions which have overset most of the other Nations of Europe, has preserved and confirmed to Great Britain its Freedom and Independence in Church and State. And we assure Your Majesty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, support that Constitution as by Law established, against every Attempt foreign or domestic which may be made to overthrow it.

We conceive that Parliament has, in its own vital Principles, Resources sufficient for introducing
