G. TUCKER, jun.
DUNCAN MACBEAN.
JONH MURRAY.

St. Thomas, September 13, 1809.

Whereas the Marshal of both the Honourable Courts of this Colony, A. G. Calmer, by virtue of two Writs of Execution, granted by his Excellency William Woodley, Lieutenant-Governor in and over the Colony of Barbice and its Dependencies, President in all Courts and Colleges within the same, &c. &c. &c. dated the 23d September 1809, the one in Favour of Henry Tulloh and Co. and the other for the Use of Douglas Reid and Co. Holders of the aforesaid Warrants, against Hugh B. Inglis, Owner of the Cotton Estate named Clifton, situate on the East Corentine Coast of this Colony, has taken under Execution, on the 27th September 1809, the aforementioned Plantation Clifton, with all the Appurtenances and Dependencies thereunto belonging; and has further on the 10th January of this Year, given over the said Estate to Sequestrators appointed by the Honourable Court of Civil Justice.

Be it therefore known, that I, the undersigned, intend to sell the aforementioned Plantation Clifton, with all the Slaves, Buildings, Cultivation, Cattle and other Appurtenances to the same belonging, all agreeable to an Inventory formed, which lies at the Marshal's Office of this Colony, for the Inspection of those whom the same may concern, after the Expiration of One Year and Six Weeks, calculated from and after the 10th January 1810, by public Vendue at Execution Sale within this Colony agreeable to the New Order of the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, relative to Sales of Estates, enacted on the 7th September and 8th October 1804, for the Purpose of recovering out of the Proceeds of the Sale of said Estate Clifton, cum annexis, such Sums of Money, together with the Costs of Suit incurred, for the whole of which the said Estate is taken under Civil Execution, and of which Intent all and every Person is to regulate themselves accordingly.—Thus done and advertised, and further acted upon according to Usage in such Cases.—23d January. K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.
