Admiralty-Office, February 12, 1811.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Bertie, Commander in Chief of His Majelty's Ships and Veffels at the Cape of Good Hope, to John Wilfon Croker, Efg. dated on board His Majelty's Ship the Africaine, St. Paul's, Ifle of Bourbon, the 13th OE. 1810. SIR,

FOLLOWING the Intentions communicated by I my Letter addreffed to you of the 26th Au-gust, I have the Honor now to acquaint you, for the Information of their Lordships, that having made the neceffary Dispositions and Arrangements previous to my Departure from the Cape, I hoifted my Flag on board the Nifus, and failed on the 4th Ultimo, in that Ship for the Ifle of France. Having made the Land on the 2d Inftant, I proceeded to reconnoitre Port South East, and from thence to Port Louis; where, having cruized forty-eight hours, and not falling in with any Ship of the blockading Squadron, I proceeded to this Anchor-age for Information of them, where I found lying His Majesty's Ships Boadicea, Otter, and Staunch Gun-Brig, together with His Majefty's Ships Africaine and Ceylon, which had been taken and recaptured from the Enemy, and the Imperial French Frigate La Venus, alfo captured from the Enemy.

The Details, Copies of which I have the Honor to tranfmit herewich, will fully explain to their Lordfhips the Circumftances of the Occupation of the Ifle de la Paffe, as well as the fublequent unfortunate Refult of a very gallant Attack made on the Enemy's Ships in Port S. E. with the Sirius, Captain Pym, the Magicienne, Captain Curtis, the Iphigenia, Captain Lambert, and the Nereide, Captain Willoughby, which ended in the unavoidable Deftruction of the two former of His Majefty's Ships, and the Surrender to the Enemy of the Iphigenia and Nereide, the latter after a glorious Refitance almost unparallelled even in the brilliant Annals of the British Navy.

A momentary Superiority thus obtained by the Enemy has been promptly and decifively crufhed by the united Zeal, Judgment, Perfeverance, Skill, and Intrepidity of Captain Rowley, in His MajeRy's Ship Boadicea; the Value and Importance of whofe Services, long confpicuous and diftinguifhed as they have been, have fully jultified the Selection and Detention of him as the Senior Officer conducting the Blockade of this Station; and who, in the prefent Inflance, almoft alone and unfupported but by the never failing Energies and Refources of his active and intelligent Mind, under Circumftances, as may be eafily imagined, of extrement Anxiety, Mortification, and Difappointment, in a few Hours not only retook His Majefty's Ships Africaine and Ceyion, but captured alfo the largeft Frigate poffeffed by the Enemy in these Seas, and has thus reflored the Britifh naval Pre-eminence in this Quarter, which his Talents have long fo fucefsfully contributed to maintain.

Nor can I omit to offer the Tribute fo juftly due to the Memory of the gallant Corbett, of His Majefty's Ship Africaine, whofe meritorious Eagernefs to check the Triumph of an exulting Enemy impelled him to an unequal Conteft, in which he nobly fell, defending the Caufe of that Country, to whofe Service his valuable Life had been most ulefully, most honourably devoted.

Under the Pressure of these Events, the Arrival of the Nisus was to be considered as molt opportune, as every Exertion had been already employed with a View to the Equipment of the Africaine and Ceylon, which Ships, though feverely cut up in the Mails and Rigging (the lower Mails being unit for further Service), had fortunately, at the Time of their Re-capture, Part of their Crews on board. Fully concurring in the Expediency and the absolute Neceffity of this Measure, the Adoption of which, and the carrying into Effect with the least Delay, is of the most ferious Importance to the ultimate Success of the Operation, now ripe for Execution, against the Ille of France, and having found it further practicable to equip the Venus in furtherance of this Ob-ject, I have not helitated to commission her for the Time being, under the Name of the Nereide, in Commemoration of the gallant Defence of His Ma-jefty's Ship bearing that Name, notwithstanding the very many local Difficulties and Difadvantages with which we have neceffarily had to contend in the Exe-cution of these Plans. The Squadron, now on the cution of these Plans. Eve of failing from these Roads, confisting of the Ships named in the Margin*, exhibits a firking and no lefs gratifying Inftance of what may be effected by British Exertion and British Perfeverance.

I should at the fame Time be very deficient, were I not to avail myfelf of the Opportunity now afforded me of expressing the Obligations of the Service to the Lieutenant Governor and Commander of the Forces on this Island, Lieutenant-Colonel Keating, to whom it is indebted not only for his Co-operation, as well as that of the whole military Force, not only for the Application of every civil Means at his Command, but for that Spirit of zealous Emulation, wherever the Navy is concerned, which has most anxiously anticipated the Appropriation of every Refource to its Service, and the Influence of which has been extended throughout this Division of the Army.

Among other Veffels captured by the Enemy 1 regret to mention the Ceylon and Wyndham, Honourable Eaft India Company's Ship<sup>a</sup>, and the Ranger Transport, from the Cape, having on board Provisions and Stores for the Squadron; I am happy to add that the Wyudham has fince been re-taken, and is arrived here, and the Venus was found to have on board the greater Part of the Stores and Provisions taken in the Ranger, both of which Circumstances have been particularly advantageous, the lower Masts of the Wyndham having been applied to the Africaine, and the victualling of the Squadron being, by means of the Provisions found in the Venus, completed to Four Months.

It is further of itill greater Moment that I should apprize you, for the Information of their Lordships, that Major-General Abercromby, who with his whole Staff was embarked in the Ceylon, and who is entrusted with the Command of the Expedition against the Isle of France, was recaptured in that Frigate.

As the Squadron will proceed to Sea in a few Hours, after the clofing thefe Difpatches, I truft I shall ftand excufed to their Lordships, in deferring to a future Opportunity the feveral Returns and Details of the Squadron, as well as a Statement preparing of Work performed in each Department, which, in the fhort Space of Three Weeks, through the unremitting and unwearied Exertions that have been difplayed, has been fuch as to complete the Equipment of the Squadron, and to render the whole thoroughly effective.

I should add, that the Light Brigade of the Troops from hence are embarked, to the Number of Six Hundred Men, on board the five Frigates, and are doing Duty as Marines, until their Services shall be required on Shore.

I have, &c. (Signed) A. BERTIE

His Majeffy's Ship Boadicea, St. Paul's SIR, Road, Ifle of Bourbon, 21/t Sept. 1810. I HAD the Honor to transmit to you on the 31ft of August, Captain Pym's Report of a gallant and fuccefsful Attack by his Boats on Isle de la Passe, and I beg Leave to second his Recommendation of Lieutenants Chads and Watling for their Conduct on that Occasion. Under the same Cover, I also transmitted Captain Pym's Detail of his sublequent Operations at Grande Porte. The Urgency of the Service we were then engaged in, prevented me from entering more minutely into Particulars; the Boadicea was then under Weigh, proceeding to Grande Porte, in Hopes of relieving the Iphigenia, the only Frigate left to me by the Difafters which had be-fallen our Squadron. It is now my Duty to give you a more detailed Account of our Operations.

I had acquainted you with the Intentions of Colonel Keating in concert with myfelf to establish a ftrong military Poft at Flat Island, after Occupation of Isle de la Passe. For this Service the Bombay Merchant Transport was prepared with Water and Provisions fufficient for the Supply of both Places; and the Flank Battalion, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Austin, with a Proportion of Artillery, were in Readinels to embark, when, on the Evening of the 22d of August, by the Arrival of the Wyndham recaptured Indiaman, I learned that the Bellone and Minerve, French Frigates, Victor Corvette, and Ceylon captured Indiaman, had forced the Paffage by Ifle de la Paffe into Grande Porte, and that it was Captain Pym's Intention to attack them there.

Two of the FlankCompanies and a Detachment of Artillery were immediately embarked on board the Boadicea; the Transport with the Remainder of the Force was directed to follow as expeditioully as polfible. From baffling Winds our Paffage was very tedious; on the Morning of the 27th we picked up a Boat with an Officer and Fourteen Men dispatched with Letters from Captains Pym and Lambert, which I trafmitted to you; these made me ac-quainted with the unfortunate Refult of the Attack on the Frigates in Grande Pors: next Morning at Daylight I made Ifle de la Paffe, and perceived Two of the Enemy's Frigates close off the Porte; we flood nearly within Gun-Shot of One of thele, and within Five or Six Miles of Isle de la Passe, under which the Iphigenia was anchored, making Signals to her, but a Third Sail, which we afterwards learned was the Aftrea Frigate, appearing to Windward, I thought it prudent to tack off, and was immediately chaled by the French Squadron; of these the Venus, from her Superiority of failing, might foon have brought ns to Action, but appeared to wait for her Confort (La Manche).

Towards Day-break they hauled off; but as I judged it advifable to draw them down as far as possible from their Station, in order to give the Transport an Opportunity to succour the Iphigenia, and favour the Escape of both, I again stood towards the French Frigates, when they refumed their Chace, and continued it until our Arrival off St. Denis From thence I immediately dispatched an Express to Captain Tomkinson to move with his Ship's Company on board the Wyndham, and join me off the Island, the Otter being difmantled for heaving down.

On my Arrival off St. Paul's, I found that Cap-tain Tomkinion, confidering the Wyndham unfit for immediate Service had declined the Command of her; in confequence of which Captain Lynne had with the most indefatigable Exertions fitted the Emma Transport with her Guns, and joined me off the Port.

this Aid was afforded me, as well as for the most ample Affiltance on every Occasion, I am indebted to Colonel Keating, who has spared neither personal Exertions, nor the Refources which his Situation commands in facilitating the Supplies of the naval Service, and affilting me by Reinforcements of his Troops.

With the Emma in company I refumed my Route towards the Isle of France; but finding that she could not keep Company, I detached her to Windward from Round Island to Roderiguez in order to give Notice to any of our Ships she might meet, of the comparative State of our naval Force, and that of the Enemy's. I then proceeded with the Boadicea off Isle de la Passe, and on our Arrival there found the Iphigenia gone, and Four Ships at Anchor in Grande Porte ; thefe we have fince learned were the Bellone, Minerve, Nereide, and Ceylon, (East India Ships,) the first with Top-Gallant-Yards acrofs, Sails bent, and apparently ready for Sea; the fecond with Jury-Top-Mafts; and the third with Jury Fore and Mizen-Mifts. I have also understood from the Prifoners lately taken in the Venus, that they were shortly to proceed round to Port Louis, and that the Slaughter on board of them had been very great.

Finding that nothing was to be effected as Affairs then stood, I returned to this Port, where I anchored on the 11th of September.

Captain Lambert is faid to have capitulated for the Iphigenia and Ifle de la Paffe the Day before we first arrived off there, on Condition that all the Officers and Men should, in One Month from the Date of the Capitulation, be fent from the Isle of France to some Part in the Dominions of His Majesty, not to ferve against France or her Allies till exchanged.

1 have the Honour to be, &c. JOSHUA ROWLEY. Vice-Admiral Bertie, Gc. Gc. Cc.

His Majefly's Ship Boadicea, St. Paul's Road, SIR, Ifle of Bourbon, 21ft Sept. 1810. I WEIGHED Anchor from the Bay of St. Paul's on the Morning of the 12th of September, in company with the Otter Sloop, and Staunch Gunbrig, in order to attack Two of the Enemy's Frigates, the Aftrea and Iphigenia, who were in the Offing to Windward. When under Weigh, I received an Intimation from Colonel Keating that an English Frigate was faid to have arrived at St. Denis, and as we flood out clear of the Bay, I had the Satisfaction of recognizing the Africaine, who joined with me in the Chace. By fuperior Sailing, and having the fame Breeze as the Enemy, the was enabled to clofe with them before dark, and led by her Signals the Boadicea was gaining fast upon them, when at Three A. M. a heavy Firing was observed between the Frigates, at that time between Four and Five Miles a-head of the Boadicea. I concluded that it was Captain Corbett's Intention merely to attempt crippling the Enemy, in order to enable us fooner to clofe with them : but unfortunately at that Moment the Winds became light and variable, and the Africaine becoming unmanageable under the Fire of both Ships (one in a most destructive-raking Polition), after a most gallant, though unequal Contest, was obliged to furrender, and the Firing ceased at about For the Promptitude and Expedition with which | Fifteen Minutes after Four in the Morning.

Day dawned, and shewed us the Refult; the Enemy appeared to have fuffered little; the Africaine was in their Possession, with no apparent Loss but that of the Mizen Topmalt; fuch a State did not appear to justify my commencing an Attack on a Force fo much fuperior, particularly in the prefent critical Situation of our Affairs, when mine was the only British Frigate in those Seas, and we knew of Two other Frigates of the Enemy and a Corvette cruizing in the Neighbourhood : I therefore made fail to bring up the Otter and Staunch, then out of Sight, and having foon rejoined them, I led them towards the Enemy, who at our Approach abandoned the Africaine, leaving an Officer and Nine Frenchmen in charge of her, with most of the wounded, and about Eighty-three of her Crew, whom they had not Time to remove. The Extent of her Lofs in killed and wounded I have not been able to afcertain, but it must have been considerable. It is with deep Regret I have to mention the Lofs of my gallant Friend Captain Corbett ; he was wounded early in the Action, and died a few Hours after it had ceased; in him the Service has loft one of its best Officers.

I cannot conclude without mentioning, in Terms of Approbation, the Steadinefs and Zeal manifelted by my First Lieutenant, Mr. Langhorne, the Officers and Ships' Company under my Command, and beg Leave to recommend them to your favourable Notice.

I have the Honour to be, &c. (Signed) JOSHUA ROWLEY. To Vice-Admiral Bertie, Sc. Sc. Sc.

His Majesty's Ship Boadicea, St. Paul's

Road, Ifle of Bourbon, 21ft Sept. 1810. SIR, I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that after having anchored in this Bay, on the Morning of the 18th September, I discovered foon after Three Sail in the Offing, Two of which appeared to have fuf-fered in their Malls and Rigging. I immediately weighed Anchor in Company with the Otter Sloop and Staunch Gun Brig, but from light Winds was unable for fome Hours to clear the Bay, at which Period the Ships were nearly out of Sight,

The Boadicea having the Advantage of a frefh Breeze neared the Enemy; One of them which had a crippled Frigate in tow, caft her off, and made all Sail away from us, the Third bore up under her Courses, (having loft her Topmasts,) to protect the other, which enabled us to close with her; we foon ran her alongfide, and after a fhort but close Action, having loft Nine killed and Fifteen wounded, the ftruck to the Boadicea, and proved to be the French Imperial Frigate Venus of Forty-four Guns, with a Complement on leaving Port of Three Hundred and Eighty men, commanded by Commodore Hamelin, Senior Officer of the French Squadron in India, visualled and flowed for Six Months.

She had in the early Part of the Morning, in company with the Victor Corvette, captured, after a most gallant Defence, His Majesty's Ship Ceylon, commanded by Captain Gordon, having on board General Abercromby and his Staff, bound for this Ifland.

I made the Signal for the Otter to take poffeffion of Ceylon, while we took the Venus in tow, and they are both arrived in these Roads, where I trutt we shall in a few Days have them and the Africaine in a State for Service, which will again reftore us to our accustomed Ascendancy in these Seas, Colonel Keating having, with that Zeal he has manifelled ou every Occasion, offered to complete their Complements from the Force under his Command.

It is with much Satisfaction I have again to call your Attention to the Gallantry and Zeal manifested by my Officers and Ships' Company in Prefence of the Enemy; to which I have also to add that of Lieutenant Ramsay of the 89th, with his Detachment doing Duty on board. To Lieutenant Langhorne I feel much indebted for his able Affiftance in taking charge of and conducting into Port the Africaine and La Venus, and beg you will have the Goodness to recommend him to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I think it my Duty to mention the active Zeal shewn by Captain Tomkinson, of the Otter, and Lieutenant Strut, Commander of the Staunch Gun-Brig, both on the prefent Service and those on which we have lately been engaged ; the latter is an Officer of long Service, whole Merits being well known to you, renders it unneceffary for me to recommend him to your Notice.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

JOSHUA ROWLEY. (Signed) To Vice-Admiral Berile, Sc. Sc. Sc.

A Lift of the Killed and Wounded on board His Majefly's Ship Boadicea, in Alion with the French Imperial Frigate La Venus, off the Isle of Bourbon, on the 18th September 1810.

Killed—None.

Wounded-Benjamin Brown, Landman, badly ; Stephen George, Yeoman of the Sheets, flightly. The Bowfprit badly wounded; flanding and running Rigging much cut.

His Majefly's Ship Ceylon, St. Paul's, in the Ifland of Bourbon, September 22, 1810. SIR.

I HAVE to inform your Excellency, that agreeably to your Orders I proceeded towards the Illand of Bourbon, and on the 17th Inflant, being in expectation of falling in with the blockading Squadron off the Harbour of Port Louis, I reconnoitred that Port, and eltimated the Enemy's Force at Seven Frigates and one large Corvette. Not finding the Squadron, bore up at Noon for the Ifland of Bourbou. At One, Two of the Enemy's Ships were obferved coming out of Port, and were foon difcovered to be in Chace of His Majefly's Ship; the Headmoft gained faft, and the Sternmoft flowly. I continued under the fame Sail, endeavouring to draw them as far as poffible, which alfo tended to extend the Diffance of the chafing Ships. At Fifteen Minutes paft Twelve, on the Enemy's coming alongfide, I found her to be a Frigate of the largeft Clais. After a fevere Conflict of One Hour and Ten Minutes, the hauled off and dropped aftern, which I concluded was to wait her Confort's coming up.

Finding the great Superiority of Force I encountered (having drawn my Conclusion of the Enemy's Force before dark), I loft not a Moment in repairing my Rigging, which was much cut, and made fail, in hopes of reaching the Island. At Two, deferied the Enemy's Second Ship. At Fifteen Minutes past Two, the Enemy's head-most Frigate coming along fide, I shortened fail to the Top-fails, and renewed the Action. At Four I had the Satisfaction to fee her Mizen-maft and Three Top-mafts go by the board : a few Minutes afterwards, the Ceylon's Fore and Main Top-maîts fell. At this time, His Majesty's Ship, being unmanageable, had fuffered feverely; the Rigging and Sails being cut to pieces, which entirely precluded all further Ma-The Action was maintained and continued nœuvre. with great Spirit. At Five A. M. the Enemy's Fore and Main mails standing, with the Assistance of his Fore fail, enabled him to wear close under our Stern, and take a raking Polition on our Lee quarter. His Majelty's Ship lying an unmanageable Wreck, I di-rected the Mizen Top fail to be cut away, and endeavoured to fet a Forest-ay-fail, in hopes of getting the Ship before the Wind, but without Effect. The fecond Ship having opened her Fire, with the great Advantage the Enemy had by having both his Ships under Command, enabled him to take and keep his raking Polition, and pour in a heavy and destructive Fire, while His Majefty's Ship could only bring a few Quarter-guns to bear.

In the fhattered and difabled State of His Majefty's Ship, a Retreat was impoffible. The Superiority of the Enemy's heavy and deftructive Fire left me no Hopes of Succefs. Reduced to this diftrefsful Situation, feeling the firmelt Conviction that every Energy and Exertion was called forth, under the Influence of the ftrongeft Imprefilions. I had difcharged my Duty and upheld the Honour of His Majefty's Arms, feeling it a Duty I owed to the Officers and Crew, who had nobly difplayed that Bravery which is fo truly their Characteriftic, when I had loft all Hopes of faving His Majefty's Ship, to prevent a ufelel's Effution of Blood, I was under the painful Neceffity of directing a Light to be Ihaewn to the Second Ship that we had ftruck.

I think it a Duty I owe to Captain Rofs, of His Majeity's 69th Regiment, to thus publickly acknowledge the able Support I received from him and his Party of Men, who were acting as Marines for the Time being.
